Module Learning Objectives:

After studying this module, the students will be able to -

- ◉ Appreciate the difference between direct and indirect taxes
- ◉ Understand the problems in erstwhile indirect taxes

“It was only for the good of his subjects that he collected taxes from them, just as the Sun draws moisture from the Earth to give it back a thousand folds” – Kalidas in Raghuvansh eulogizing King Dalip.

In a Welfare State, the Government takes primary responsibility for the welfare of its citizens, as in matters of health care, education, employment, infrastructure, social security and other development needs. To facilitate these, Government needs revenue. Taxation is the primary source of revenue to the Government for incurring such public welfare expenditure. In other words, Government is taking taxes from the public through its one hand and through another hand; it incurs welfare expenditure for public at large. However, no one enjoys handing over his hard-earned money to the government to pay taxes. Thus, taxes are compulsory or enforced contribution to the Government revenue by public. The government may levy taxes on income, business profits or wealth or add it to the cost of some goods, services, and transactions.

Basic Reasons to impose taxation

- To provide basic facilities for every citizen of the country : Whatever money is received by the government from taxation is spent by it for the welfare of the citizens of the country. Some of the services provided by the government are: health care, electricity, roads, education system, free houses for the poor, water supply, police, firefighters, judiciary system, disaster relief, taking care of bridges and other things of public welfare.
- To finance multiple governments : All the local governments of the state like village panchayats, block panchayats and municipal corporations receive funds from the finance commission.
- Protection of the life : Taxpayers receive the protection of life and wealth from the government in case of external aggression, internal armed rebellion or any other situation.

Administration of Tax Laws

The administrative hierarchy of tax law is as follows:

Taxpoint :

- Both of the Boards have been constituted under the Central Board of Revenue Act, 1963.
- CBDT deals with levy and collection of all direct tax whereas matters relating to levy and collection of Central indirect tax are dealt by CBIC.

Concept and Features of Indirect Taxes

4.1

- ◉ Tax on goods and services : Indirect tax is levied at the time of supply or manufacture or purchase or sale or import or export of goods. Further, it is also levied on supply.
- ◉ Burden : Tax, being indirect tax paid by the seller, shall be recovered by the seller from the buyer. Thus, one can say that burden of indirect tax is shifted from seller to buyer and ultimately borne by consumers of such goods or services.
- ◉ Inflationary in nature : Cost of goods and services increases due to levy of indirect tax thus indirect taxes promote inflation.
- ◉ Social welfare : It is useful tool to promote social welfare by checking the consumption of harmful goods or sin goods through higher rate of tax.
- ◉ Wider Tax Base : Majority of goods and services are liable to indirect tax with very low threshold limits, so tax base is much wider in case of indirect tax in compare to direct tax.
- ◉ Regressive in Nature : All persons (rich or poor) will bear equal wrath of tax on goods or service consumed by them irrespective of their ability. In other words, indirect tax does not create any difference between rich and poor. Poor people are also required to pay equal percentage of tax on certain goods and service of mass consumption. Thus, it may increase the disparities between rich and poor.
- ◉ No pinch : Seller (the person on which indirect tax is levied) does not perceive a direct pinch of tax as it is recovered by him from the buyer and then he is paying to the Government. On the other hand, since it is inbuilt in the price of the goods, the ultimate payer (i.e., buyer) pay it without knowing that he is paying any tax to the Government.

Difference Between Direct & Indirect Taxes

There are two types of taxes: Direct Tax and Indirect Tax

Tax, of which incidence and impact fall on the same person, is known as Direct Tax, such as Income Tax. On the other hand, tax, of which incidence and impact fall on two different persons, is known as Indirect Tax, such as GST, etc. It means, in the case of Direct Tax, tax is recovered directly from the assessee, who ultimately bears such taxes, whereas in the case of Indirect Tax, tax is recovered from the assessee, who passes such burden to another person & is ultimately borne by consumers of such goods or services.

Direct Tax
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Incidence and impact fall on the same personAssessee, himself bears such taxes. Thus, it pinches the taxpayer.Levied on incomeE.g. Income TaxProgressive in nature i.e., higher tax are levied on person earning higher income and vice versa.

Indirect Tax
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Incidence and impact fall on two different personsTax is recovered from the assessee, who passes such burden to another person. Thus, it does not pinch the taxpayer.Levied on goods and services. Thus, this type of tax leads to inflation and have wider base.E.g. GST, Customs Duty, etc.Regressive in nature i.e., all persons will bear equal wrath of tax on goods or service consumed by them irrespective of their ability.Useful tool to promote social welfare by checking the consumption of harmful goods or sin goods through higher rate of tax.

Direct tax: Progressive in nature

Indirect Tax: Regressive in nature

Basis	Direct Tax	Indirect Tax
Meaning	Direct tax is referred to as the tax, levied on person's income and wealth and is paid directly to the government	Indirect Tax is referred to as the tax, levied on a person who consumes the goods and services and is paid indirectly to the government.
Nature	Progressive in nature i.e., higher tax is levied on a person earning higher income and vice versa.	Regressive in nature i.e., all persons will bear equal wrath of tax on goods or service consumed by them irrespective of their ability.
Incidence and Impact	Falls on the same person. Assessee, himself bears such taxes. Thus, it pinches the taxpayer.	Falls on different person. Tax is recovered from the assessee, who passes such burden to another person. Thus, it does not pinch the taxpayer.
Example	Income Tax	GST, Custom Duty
Evasion	Tax evasion is possible	Tax evasion is hardly possible because it is included in the price of the goods and services.
Inflation	Direct tax helps in reducing the inflation.	Cost of goods and services increases due to levy of indirect tax thus indirect taxes promote inflation. However, sometimes it is useful tool to promote social welfare by checking the consumption of harmful goods or sin goods through higher rate of tax.
Imposition and collection	Imposed on and collected from the same person	Imposed on and collected from consumers of goods and services but paid and deposited by the assessee.
Burden	Cannot be shifted	Can be shifted

Background of Erstwhile Indirect Taxes

4.3

The Constitution of India is the supreme law of India. Any tax law, which is not in conformity with the Constitution, is called ultra vires the Constitution and held as illegal and void. Article 246 read with Schedule VII divides subject matter of law made by legislature into three categories :

List I	Union list (only Central Government has power of legislation on subject matters covered in the list)
List II	State list (only State Government has power of legislation on subject matters covered in the list)
List III	Concurrent list (both Central & State Government can pass legislation on subject matters).

Following major entries in the respective list enable the legislature to make law on the matter :

Union List (List I)	State List (List II)
Entry 82 - Taxes on income other than agricultural income i.e. Income-tax	Entry 54 - Taxes on the sale or purchase of goods other than newspapers, subject to the provisions of entry 92A of List I i.e., State Level VAT
Entry 83 - Duties of customs including export duties i.e., Customs Act	Entry 46 - Taxes on agricultural income.
Entry 84 - Duties of excise on tobacco and other goods manufactured or produced in India except: a. alcoholic liquors for human consumption. b. opium, Indian hemp and other narcotic drugs and narcotics, but including medicinal and toilet preparations containing alcohol / opium / Indian hemp / narcotic drugs / narcotics i.e., Central Excise Act	Entry 60 - Taxes on professions, trades, callings and employments i.e., Professional Tax
Entry 86 - Taxes on the capital value of the assets, exclusive of agricultural land, of individuals and companies; taxes on the capital of companies i.e., Wealth Tax	Entry 51 - Duties of excise on the following goods manufactured or produced in the State and countervailing duties at the same or lower rates on similar goods manufactured or produced elsewhere in India: a. alcoholic liquors for human consumption; b. opium, Indian hemp and other narcotic drugs and narcotics, but not including medicinal and toilet preparations containing alcohol/ opium/ Indian hemp/ narcotic drugs / narcotics
Entry 92A - Taxes on the sale or purchase of goods other than newspapers, where such sale or purchase takes place in the course of inter-State trade or commerce i.e., Central Sales Tax
Entry 92C - Tax on services
Entry 97 - Any other matter not enumerated in List II or List III including any tax not mentioned in either of those Lists.

- In pre-GST regime, Indian indirect tax was highly fragmented. Centre and States were separately taxing Goods and services. There were many taxes like excise duty, service tax, VAT, CST, purchase tax, entertainment tax, octroi.
- In addition, there was multiplicity of rates. Law and procedures. This caused heavy compliance burden.
- Imposition of tax on tax was another serious problem. For example, VAT was levied on a value that included excise duty.
- Input tax credit chain broke as goods moved from one state to another, resulting in hidden cost for the business.
- Further, pre-GST, there were tax nakas at every inter-state border, creating bottlenecks in inter-state transport of goods.
- As a result, logistics sector remained inefficient and it adversely impacted the businesses.
- Every state was effectively a distinct market for the industry as well as consumer.
- Industry's choice of locating factories or warehouses was heavily influenced by the prevailing tax regime rather than pure business consideration.
- This made our industry uncompetitive.

To curb all these, Goods and Services Tax (GST) was introduced in the system with the idea of One Nation One Tax. Various indirect tax levied by Central and State Government was subsumed into one tax called GST.

Cascading effect of tax (Tax on Tax)

In pre-GST regime, when a manufacturer "A" sold goods ₹ 1,00,000 to dealer "B" from Gujarat to Haryana, he is liable to collect pay Excise Duty and Central Sales Tax at the rate of 12% and 2% respectively, being an inter-state sale. Dealer "B" in turn sells it to Dealer "C" in Haryana after adding ₹ 10,000/- and charges VAT on such sale @ 12%.

The calculation were as follow :

Transaction	Particulars	Amount (₹)	Tax to Government (₹)
Transaction between "A" and "B"	Sale price of goods	1,00,000
	Add: Excise Duty @ 12%	12,000	12,000
		1,12,000
	Add: Central Sales Tax	2,240	2,240
	Total Invoice Value	1,14,240
Transaction between "B" and "C"	Sale price of goods [₹ 1,14,240 + ₹ 10,000]	1,24,240
	Add: VAT @ 12%	14,909	14,909
	Total Invoice Value	1,39,149
	Total		29,149

In this regime, following are the components of the VAT amount :

- On actual price	₹ 1,00,000 x 12%	=	₹ 12,000
- On Excise Duty	₹ 12,000 x 12%	=	₹ 1,440
- On CST	₹ 2,240 x 12%	=	₹ 269
- On value added by B	₹ 10,000 x 12%	=	₹ 1,200
Total VAT			₹ 14,909

Since credit for excise duty and CST was not available to dealer B, excise duty and CST were considered as a cost. Further, he is liable to pay VAT on tax components also. Such tax on tax is known as cascading effect of tax, which leads to inflation.

If the same transactions are executed under GST law and rate of GST is say 12% then calculation would be as under :

Transaction	Particulars	Amount (₹)	Tax to Government (₹)
Transaction between "A" and "B"	Sale price of goods	1,00,000
	Add: GST @ 12%	12,000	12,000
	Total Invoice Value	1,12,000
Transaction between "B" and "C"	Sale price of goods [₹ 1,00,000 + ₹ 10,000]	1,10,000
	Add: GST @ 12%	13,200
	Total Invoice Value	1,23,200
	Amount payable to the Government by "B"
	[₹ 13,200 – ₹ 12,000]		1,200
	Total		13,200

Since credit for GST paid by dealer B to dealer A is available to dealer B, hence the same is not considered as a cost. In this way, GST eliminates the cascading effect of tax and which results in lower prices.

However, fiscal powers between the Centre and the States are clearly demarcated in the Constitution with almost no overlap between the respective domains. The Centre has the powers to levy tax on the manufacture of goods (except alcoholic liquor for human consumption, opium, narcotics etc.) while the States have the powers to levy tax on sale of goods. In case of inter-State sales, the Centre has the power to levy a tax (the Central Sales Tax) but, the tax is collected and retained entirely by the originating States. As for services, it is the Centre alone that is empowered to levy service tax. Since the States are not empowered to levy any tax on the sale or purchase of goods in the course of their importation into or exportation from India, the Centre levies and collects this tax as additional duties of customs, which is in addition to the Basic Customs Duty. This additional duty of customs (commonly known as CVD and SAD) counter balances excise duties, sales tax, State VAT and other taxes levied on the like domestic product. Introduction of GST would require amendments in the Constitution so as to concurrently empower the Centre and the States to levy and collect the GST.

Introduction of the GST required amendments in the Constitution so as to simultaneously empower the Centre and the States to levy and collect this tax. The assignment of concurrent jurisdiction to the Centre and the States for the levy of GST would require a unique institutional mechanism that would ensure that decisions about the structure, design and operation of GST are taken jointly by the two. For it to be effective, such a mechanism also needs to have Constitutional force.

Constitutional Validity of GST

4.4.1 Constitution (One Hundred and First) Amendment Act, 2016

Earlier, fiscal powers between the Centre and the States are clearly demarcated in the Constitution with almost no overlap between the respective domains. The Centre has the powers to levy tax on the manufacture of goods (except alcoholic liquor for human consumption, opium, narcotics etc.) while the States have the powers to levy tax on sale of goods. In case of inter-State sales, the Centre has the power to levy a tax (the Central Sales Tax) but, the tax is collected and retained entirely by the originating States. As for services, it is the Centre alone that is empowered to levy service tax. Since the States are not empowered to levy any tax on the sale or purchase of goods in the course of their importation into or exportation from India, the Centre levies and collects this tax as additional duties of customs, which is in addition to the Basic Customs Duty. This additional duty of customs (commonly known as CVD and SAD) counter balances excise duties, sales tax, State VAT and other taxes levied on the like domestic product. Introduction of GST would require amendments in the Constitution so as to concurrently empower the Centre and the States to levy and collect the GST.

Introduction of the GST required amendments in the Constitution so as to simultaneously empower the Centre and the States to levy and collect this tax. The assignment of concurrent jurisdiction to the Centre and the States for the levy of GST would require a unique institutional mechanism that would ensure that decisions about the structure, design and operation of GST are taken jointly by the two. For it to be effective, such a mechanism also needs to have Constitutional force.

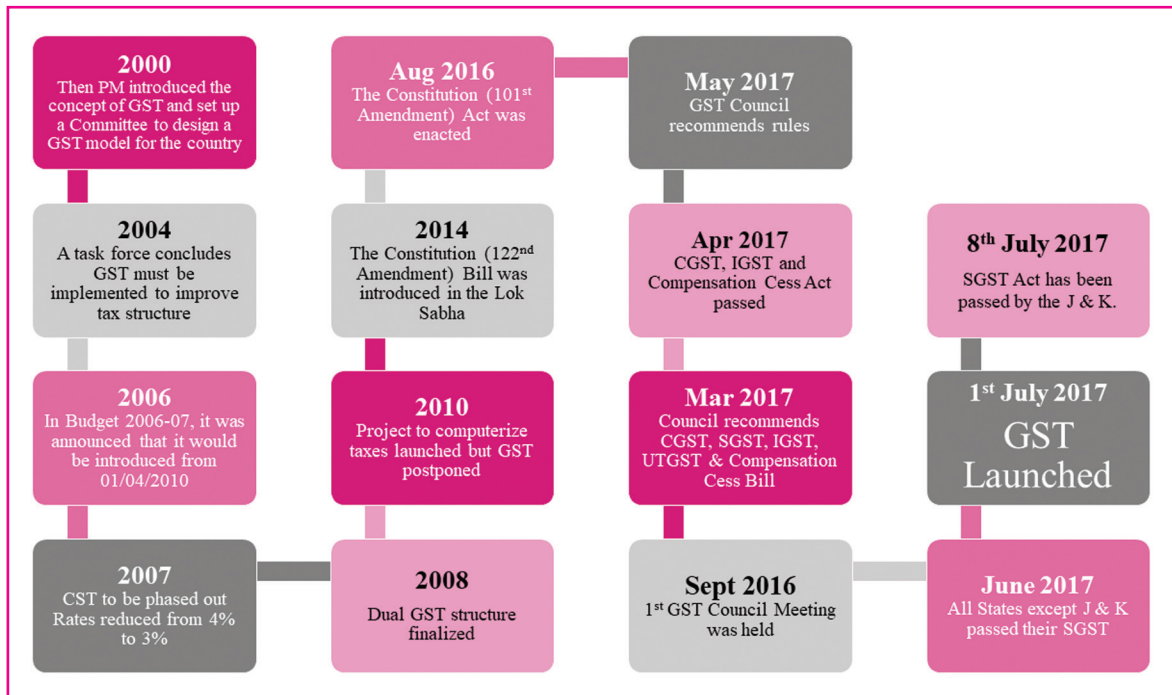

To address all these and other issues, the Constitution (122nd Amendment) Bill was introduced in the 16th Lok Sabha on 19.12.2014. The Bill provides for a levy of GST on supply of all goods or services except for Alcohol for human consumption. The tax shall be levied as Dual GST separately but concurrently by the Union (central tax - CGST) and the States (including Union Territories with legislatures) (State tax - SGST) / Union territories without legislatures (Union territory tax- UTGST). The Parliament would have exclusive power to levy GST (integrated tax - IGST) on inter-State trade or commerce (including imports) in goods or services. The Central Government will have the power to levy excise duty in addition to the GST on tobacco and tobacco products. The tax on supply of five specified petroleum products namely crude, high speed diesel, petrol, air turbine fuel and natural gas would be levied from a later date on the recommendation of GST Council.

A Goods and Services Tax Council (GSTC) shall be constituted comprising the Union Finance Minister, the Minister of State (Revenue) and the State Finance Ministers to recommend on the GST rate, exemption and thresholds, taxes to be subsumed and other features. This mechanism would ensure some degree of harmonization on different aspects of GST between the Centre and the States as well as across States. One half of the total number of members of GSTC would form quorum in meetings of GSTC. Decision in GSTC would be taken by a majority of not less than three-fourth of weighted votes cast. Centre and minimum of 20 States would be required for majority because Centre would have one-third weightage of the total votes cast and all the States taken together would have two-third of weightage of the total votes cast.

The Constitution Amendment Bill was passed by the Lok Sabha in May, 2015. The Bill was referred to the Select Committee of Rajya Sabha on 12.05.2015. The Select Committee had submitted its Report on the Bill on 22.07.2015. The Bill with certain amendments was finally passed in the Rajya Sabha and thereafter by Lok Sabha in August, 2016. Further the bill had been ratified by required number of States and received assent of the President on 8th September, 2016 and has since been enacted as Constitution (101st Amendment) Act, 2016 w.e.f. 16th September, 2016.

The journey is as under :

4.4.2 Major chronological events that have led to the introduction of GST

GST is being introduced in the country after a 13 year long journey since it was first discussed in the report of the Kelkar Task Force on indirect taxes. A brief chronology outlining the major milestones on the proposal for introduction of GST in India is as follows:

- a. In 2003, the Kelkar Task Force on indirect tax had suggested a comprehensive Goods and Services Tax (GST) based on VAT principle.
- b. A proposal to introduce a National level Goods and Services Tax (GST) by April 1, 2010 was first mooted in the Budget Speech for the financial year 2006-07.
- c. Since the proposal involved reform/ restructuring of not only indirect taxes levied by the Centre but also the States, the responsibility of preparing a Design and Road Map for the implementation of GST was assigned to the Empowered Committee of State Finance Ministers (EC).
- d. Based on inputs from Govt of India and States, the EC released its First Discussion Paper on Goods and Services Tax in India in November, 2009.
- e. In order to take the GST related work further, a Joint Working Group consisting of officers from Central as well as State Government was constituted in September, 2009.
- f. In order to amend the Constitution to enable introduction of GST, the Constitution (115th Amendment) Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha in March 2011. As per the prescribed procedure, the Bill was referred to the Standing Committee on Finance of the Parliament for examination and report.
- g. Meanwhile, in pursuance of the decision taken in a meeting between the Union Finance Minister and the Empowered Committee of State Finance Ministers on 8th November, 2012, a 'Committee on GST Design', consisting of the officials of the Government of India, State Governments and the Empowered Committee was constituted.
- h. This Committee did a detailed discussion on GST design including the Constitution (115th) Amendment Bill and submitted its report in January, 2013. Based on this Report, the EC recommended certain changes in the Constitution Amendment Bill in their meeting at Bhubaneswar in January 2013.
- i. The Empowered Committee in the Bhubaneswar meeting also decided to constitute three committees of officers to discuss and report on various aspects of GST as follows:-
 - Committee on Place of Supply Rules and Revenue Neutral Rates;
 - Committee on dual control, threshold and exemptions;
 - Committee on IGST and GST on imports.
- j. The Parliamentary Standing Committee submitted its Report in August, 2013 to the Lok Sabha. The recommendations of the Empowered Committee and the recommendations of the Parliamentary Standing Committee were examined in the Ministry in consultation with the Legislative Department. Most of the recommendations made by the Empowered Committee and the Parliamentary Standing Committee were accepted and the draft Amendment Bill was suitably revised.

- k. The final draft Constitutional Amendment Bill incorporating the above stated changes were sent to the Empowered Committee for consideration in September 2013.
- l. The EC once again made certain recommendations on the Bill after its meeting in Shillong in November 2013. Certain recommendations of the Empowered Committee were incorporated in the draft Constitution (115th Amendment) Bill. The revised draft was sent for consideration of the Empowered Committee in March, 2014.
- m. The 115th Constitutional (Amendment) Bill, 2011, for the introduction of GST introduced in the Lok Sabha in March 2011 lapsed with the dissolution of the 15th Lok Sabha.
- n. In June 2014, the draft Constitution Amendment Bill was sent to the Empowered Committee after approval of the new Government.
- o. Based on a broad consensus reached with the Empowered Committee on the contours of the Bill, the Cabinet on 17.12.2014 approved the proposal for introduction of a Bill in the Parliament for amending the Constitution of India to facilitate the introduction of Goods and Services Tax (GST) in the country. The Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha on 19.12.2014, and was passed by the Lok Sabha on 06.05.2015. It was then referred to the Select Committee of Rajya Sabha, which submitted its report on 22.07.2015.

Under the earlier taxation system for indirect taxes, number of indirect taxes were being levied and collected at multiple rates both by Central Government and State Governments on different activities undertaken. The international best tax practices in indirect taxes look for, easing out the complications and cumbersome confusing compliances and reduce interaction with different statutory authorities. Similar thought process was started in India to consolidate number of taxes in to one system of taxation uniformly across the country in late 1970s.

The idea of moving towards the GST was first mooted by the then Union Finance Minister in his Budget for 2006-07. Initially, it was proposed that GST would be introduced from 1st April, 2010. The Empowered Committee of State Finance Ministers (EC) which had formulated the design of State VAT was requested to come up with a roadmap and structure for the GST. Joint Working Groups of officials having representatives of the States as well as the Centre were set up to examine various aspects of the GST and draw up reports specifically on exemptions and thresholds, taxation of services and taxation of inter-State supplies. Based on discussions within and between it and the Central Government, then First Discussion Paper (FDP) was released on GST in November, 2009. This spell out the features of the proposed GST and has formed the basis for discussion between the Centre and the States so far.

The introduction of Goods and Services Tax (GST) would be a very significant step in the field of indirect tax reforms in India. By amalgamating a large number of Central and State taxes into a single tax, it would mitigate cascading or double taxation in a major way and pave the way for a common national market. From the consumer point of view, the biggest advantage would be in terms of a reduction in the overall tax burden on goods. Introduction of GST would also make Indian products competitive in the domestic and international markets.

5.1.3 GST Network (GSTN)

A common portal or platform is needed which could act as a clearing house and verify the claims and inform the respective government to transfer the funds. This is possible with the help of a strong IT infrastructure. Accordingly, Government has established common GST Electronic Portal (www.gst.gov.in), a website managed by Goods and Services Network (GSTN) for the tax payer and common IT infrastructure for Central and States. GSTN (a non-profit Government owned organisation) is a Special Purpose Vehicle. The functions of the GSTN would, inter alia, include:

- a. facilitating registration;
- b. forwarding the returns to Central and State authorities;
- c. computation and settlement of IGST;
- d. matching of tax payment details with banking network;
- e. providing various MIS reports to the Central and the State Governments based on the tax payer return information;

¹ This tax is termed as the Integrated Goods and Services Tax (IGST).

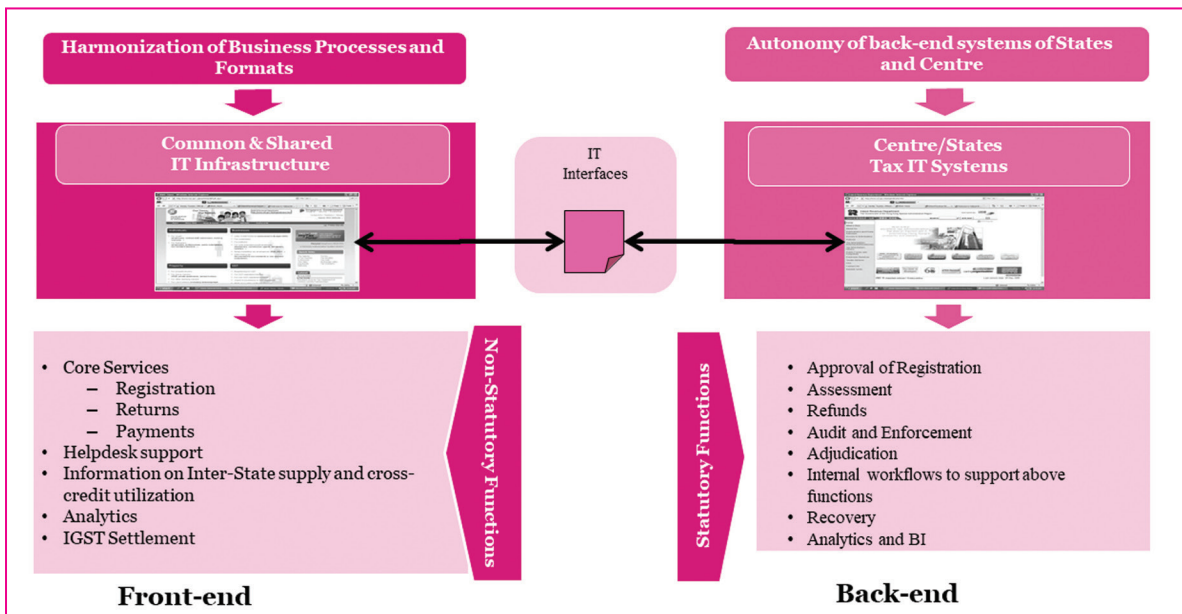

- f. providing analysis of tax payers' profile; and
- g. running the matching engine for matching, reversal and reclaim of input tax credit.

The GSTN is developing a common GST portal and applications for registration, payment, return, assessment and MIS/reports.

On registration on the common portal (www.gst.gov.in), each taxpayer will receive 15 alpha numeric PAN based unique Goods and Service Tax Identification Number (GSTIN).

Salient features of GSTN

- Incorporated in March 2013 as sec. 25 100% government owned company with paid up capital of ₹ 10 crore
- To function as a Common Pass-through portal for taxpayers
 - Submit registration application
 - File returns
 - Make tax payments
- To develop back-end modules for States
- Infosys Ltd. appointed as Managed Service Provider (MSP)
- Appointed more than 70 GST Suvidha Providers (GSPs)

5.1.4 Need for GST

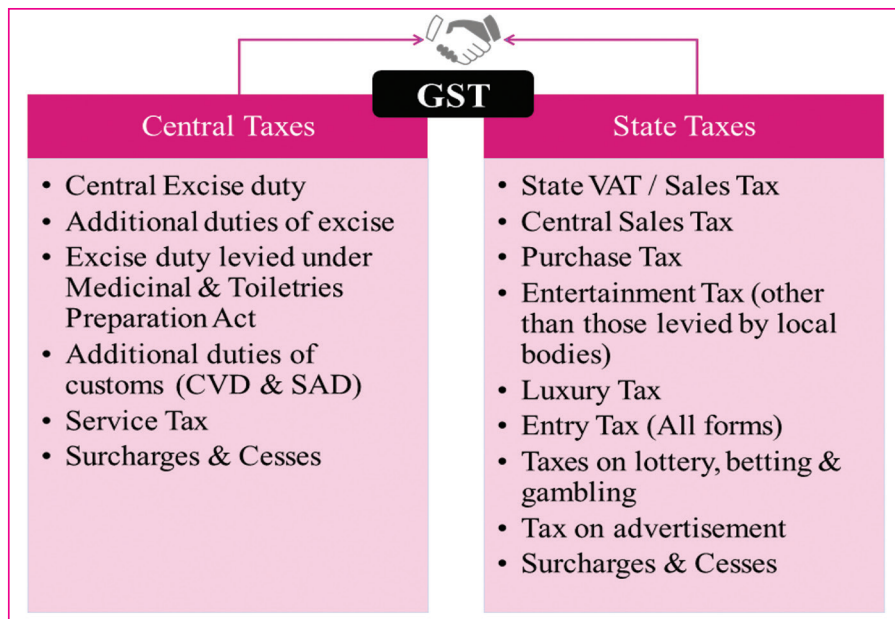

Under the pre-GST regime, there are various taxes that have to pay at every stage and differently collected by State and Central Government and rates differ from one state to another. Imposing several taxes on goods and services can lead to high cost and inefficient tax structure. Moreover :

- a. Tax levied by one Government was not available for set off against the tax levied by another Government. Even few taxes levied by the Government was not allowed to be set off with another type of tax levied by the same Government.

- Further, there was cascading effect of taxation (i.e., tax on tax), which leads to inflation. E.g., VAT is levied by the State Government on the excise duty levied by the Central Government.
- Rate of CST was lower than VAT rate which had been used by the business as tax arbitrage.
- Each State has separate VAT law which had divided the nation into various economic states.
- Due to levy of entry tax, octroi, etc. by various State Governments results into a hindrance in free flow of business.

GST removed the inefficiencies and complexities of the erstwhile archaic taxation system and helped in accelerating growth. GST has been enacted with effect from 01-07-2017 with the following benefits:

- Tax subsumed in the GST : Following taxes, levied by different Governments, were subsumed in the GST:

However, it is to be noted that following taxes are not subsumed into the GST:

Central Taxes	State Taxes
Basic Customs Duty	State Excise Duty
Research and Development Cess	Stamp Duty
Export Duty	Profession Tax
Anti-Dumping Duty	Motor Vehicle Tax
Safeguard Duty

- Seamless Flow of Credit : In the GST regime, the buyer (other than ultimate consumer) will take the credit of tax paid² by him at the time of purchase of goods and services, and he can utilize that credit in discharging his tax liability. GST eliminates the multiplicity and cascading of taxes which results into overall reduction in tax incidence.

² Subject to certain restrictions

3. Competitive prices : GST eliminates all other taxes of indirect nature, and this will effectively mean that the tax amount paid by end consumers will reduce. Lower the prices, more will be demand for that product, which will result in more consumption and will benefit the entities.
4. Increase in revenue : One reason behind the need for GST was also to boost the revenue from the indirect taxes in the nation. GST is easy to understand, and a simple tax structure will bring more taxpayers and in return, it will increase the revenue for the Government.
5. Easy and straightforward tax structure : Before GST, taxpayers needed to pay a lot of taxes, but with GST, a single tax system, only one tax needs to be paid, which is comparatively easy and convenient to understand. For accounting, business complexities will reduce and result in less paperwork, saving both money and time.
6. One Nation One Tax : With uniform tax on supplies of goods and services India turned into one market.

5.1.5 Benefits of GST

The benefits of GST can be summarized as under :

A. For business and industry

- Easy compliance : A robust and comprehensive IT system would be the foundation of the GST regime in India. Therefore, all tax-payer services such as registrations, returns, payments, etc. would be available to the taxpayers online, which would make compliance easy and transparent.
- Uniformity of tax rates and structures : GST will ensure that indirect tax rates and structures are common across the country, thereby increasing certainty and ease of doing business. In other words, GST would make doing business in the country tax neutral, irrespective of the choice of place of doing business.
- Removal of cascading : A system of seamless tax-credits throughout the value-chain, and across boundaries of States, would ensure that there is minimal cascading of taxes. This would reduce hidden costs of doing business.
- Improved competitiveness : Reduction in transaction costs of doing business would eventually lead to an improved competitiveness for the trade and industry.
- Gain to manufacturers and exporters : The subsuming of major Central and State taxes in GST, complete and comprehensive set-off of input goods and services and phasing out of Central Sales Tax (CST) would reduce the cost of locally manufactured goods and services. This will increase the competitiveness of Indian goods and services in the international market and give boost to Indian exports. The uniformity in tax rates and procedures across the country will also go a long way in reducing the compliance cost.

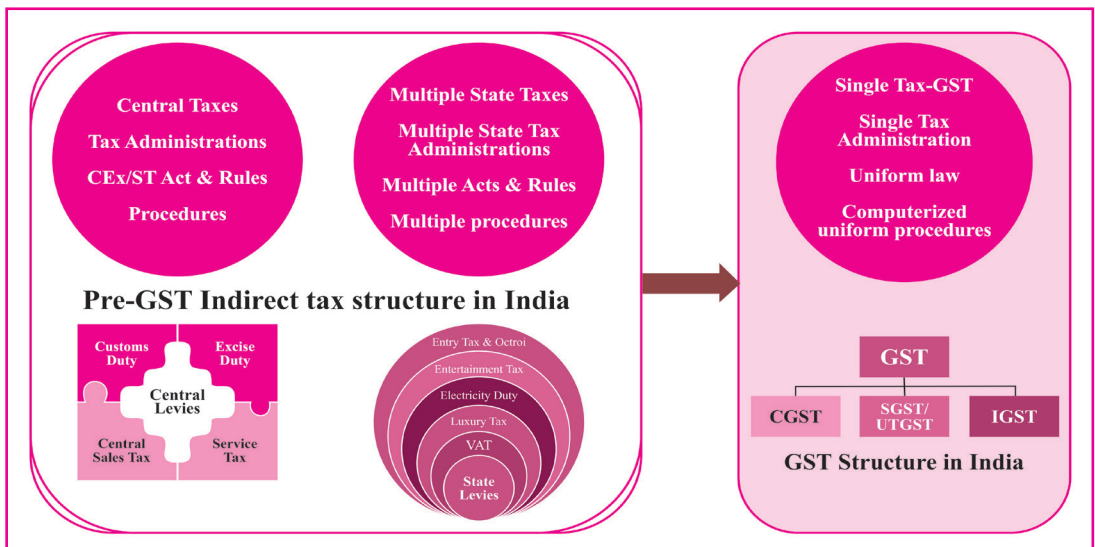

B. For Central and State Governments

- Simple and easy to administer : Multiple indirect taxes at the Central and State levels are being replaced by GST. Backed with a robust end-to-end IT system, GST would be simpler and easier to administer than all other indirect taxes of the Centre and State levied so far.
- Better controls on leakage : GST will result in better tax compliance due to a robust IT infrastructure. Due to the seamless transfer of input tax credit from one stage to another in the chain of value addition, there is an inbuilt mechanism in the design of GST that would incentivize tax compliance by traders.

- Higher revenue efficiency : GST is expected to decrease the cost of collection of tax revenues of the Government, and will therefore, lead to higher revenue efficiency.
- Boost to ‘Make in India’ initiative : GST will give major boost to the ‘Make in India’ initiative of government of India by making goods and services produced in India competitive in the national as well as international market.

C. For the consumer

- Single and transparent tax proportionate to the value of goods and services : Due to multiple indirect taxes being levied by the Centre and State, with incomplete or no input tax credits available at progressive stages of value addition, the cost of most goods and services in the country today are laden with many hidden taxes. Under GST, there would be only one tax from the manufacturer to the consumer, leading to transparency of taxes paid to the final consumer.
- Relief in overall tax burden : Because of efficiency gains and prevention of leakages, the overall tax burden on most commodities will come down, which will benefit consumers.

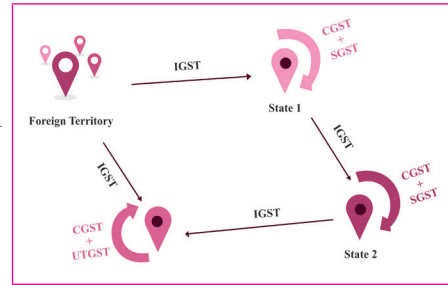

5.1.6 Salient Features of GST

- Destination Based Tax : GST is a value added destination-based tax on consumption of goods and services. It is levied at all stages right from manufacture up to final consumption with credit of taxes paid at previous stages available as setoff. In a nutshell, only value addition will be taxed and burden of tax is to be borne by the final consumer. Benefit of tax (STCG/ UTGST) will accrue to the consuming state which will benefit the poor states.
Example 1 : If A in Gujarat produces the goods and sells the goods to B in Rajasthan, then in such case the tax should be levied and collected and should accrue to the State of Rajasthan and not to the State of Gujarat³.
- One Nation One Tax : GST is levied on supply of goods and services across India (including Jammu and Kashmir). It is a single tax on the supply of goods and services, right from the manufacturer to the consumer.
- Dual GST Model : Centre and states will impose tax on goods and services simultaneously.

³ In pre-GST regime which was origin base taxation system, revenue will accrue to the State of Gujarat

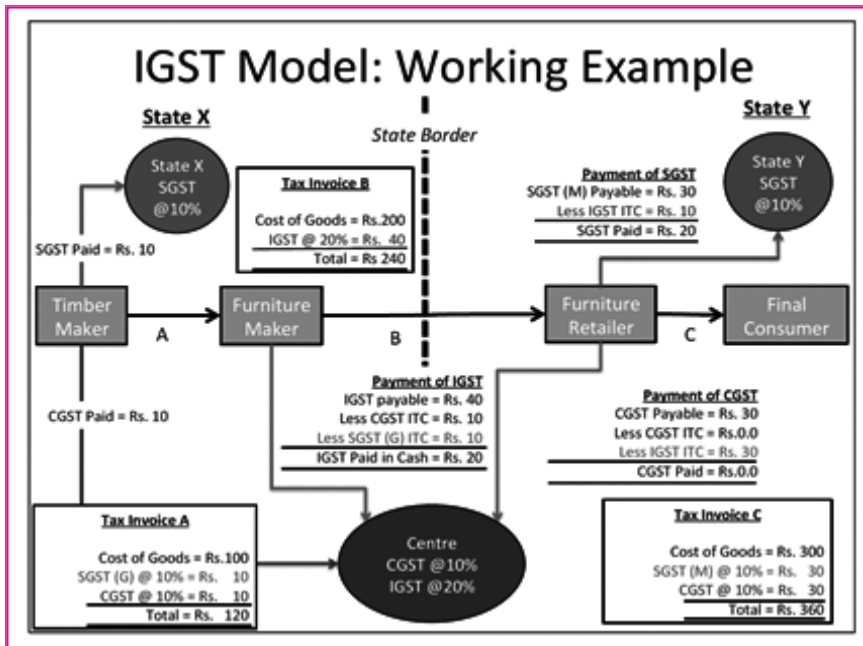

- a. Intra-State supply of goods and services
 - CGST: Payable to Central Government
 - SGST/ UTGST: Payable to State Government/ Union Territory (as applicable) where they are consumed
- b. Inter-States Supply of goods and services
 - IGST: Payable to Central Government

Centre will levy and administer CGST and IGST while respective States/ UTs will levy and administer SGST/UTGST

- ⊙ Import and Export : Import will be treated as inter-States supply and IGST will be chargeable along with basic Customs duty. However, in GST Export will be treated as Zero rated supplies and no IGST is payable.
- ⊙ Rates of GST : The rates of GST⁴ are 0.5%, 3%, 5%, 12%, 18% and 28%. In addition, compensation cess will be payable on pan masala, tobacco & tobacco product, coal, lignite, aerated water and motor-cars.
- ⊙ Tax on value of supply : GST will be calculated on value of supply of goods and services, which is transaction value. (subject to some exceptions)
- ⊙ Registration : Under GST, every suppliers who have made taxable supply (subject to certain threshold limits) shall required to get himself registered under GST Law.
- ⊙ Input Tax Credit : A registered person is entitled to take credit (deduction) of input tax paid from the output tax (if any) subject to following restriction:
 - a. Utilisation of IGST: First utilized for the payment of IGST then the balance, if any, shall be utilized towards payment of CGST and SGST/UTGST
 - b. Utilisation of CGST: First utilized for the payment of CGST then the balance, if any, may be utilized towards payment of IGST.
 - c. Utilisation of SGST/UTGST: First utilized for the payment of SGST/UTGST then the balance may be utilized towards payment of IGST.
- ⊙ Free flow of the credit : Under GST regime there is a seamless (without any obstruction) credit flow in case of inter-state supplies, which was not possible in pre-GST period. No credit was available for CST paid by the buyer. Under GST regime the seamless credit will flow as follows:
 - a. The inter-state supplier in exporting state is allowed to set off the available credit in IGST, CGST and SGST/UTGST against the IGST payable on inter-state supply made by him.
 - b. The buyer of importing state in inter-state supply can avail the credit of IGST paid on purchase from the output tax payable.
 - c. The exporting state transfers to the centre the credit of SGST/ UTGST utilised for the payment of IGST.
 - d. The Centre transfers to the importing state the credit of IGST used in payment of SGST/UTGST.

⁴ These are IGST rates, however where CGST and SGST/UTGST is applicable (i.e., in case of intra-State supply) rate of IGST shall be divided into 2 parts i.e., 50% of rate of IGST shall be treated as rate of CGST and balance 50% shall be treated as SGST/UTGST. E.g. where IGST rate of inter-State supply of goods is 18% then if such goods are supplied in the course of intra-State supply, applicable CGST rate would be 9% (i.e., 50% of 18%) and applicable SGST/UTGST rate would be 9% (i.e., 50% of 18%)

- Acts and Rules: For implementation of the GST, following Acts and major Rules are there :

Act	Rules
The Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 ⁵	Central Goods and Services Tax Rules, 2017
The Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017	Integrated Goods and Services Tax Rules, 2017
The Goods and Services Tax (Compensation to States) Act, 2017	Goods and Services Tax Compensation Cess Rules, 2017

Other features

- In specified situation, self-supply is also treated as taxable supply and hence liable for tax
- Even in few cases, supply without consideration is also liable for GST
- The law has also notified the list of exempted goods and services
- Alcoholic liquor for human consumption, petroleum crude, high speed diesel, motors spirits (commonly known as petrol), natural gas and aviation turbine fuel has been kept out of the purview of the GST
- Procedure for collection of GST is uniform across the States.
- Common return would serve the purpose of both Centre and State Government.

5.1.7 Goods and Services Tax Compensation Cess

- Goods and Services Tax (Compensation to States) Act, 2017 was enacted to levy Compensation cess for providing compensation to the States for the loss of revenue arising on account of implementation of the goods and services tax with effect from the date from which the provisions of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act is brought into force (01/07/2017), for a period of five years or for such period as may be prescribed on the recommendations of the GST Council⁶.

⁵ Similar law has been made by States and UT

⁶ Extended upto 31/03/2026

- Taxable persons selling notified goods are liable to collect and pay GST Cess. Notified goods are:
 - a. Pan masala,
 - b. Tobacco & tobacco product,
 - c. Cigarettes, cigar
 - d. Coal, lignite,
 - e. Aerated water; and
 - f. Motor-cars
- Cess shall be computed on the value of taxable supply. Cess is levied in addition to CGST + SGST/UTGST in case of intra-state sales and IGST in case of inter-state sales including import of goods.
- Taxpayer can use Input Tax Credit of Cess for payment of Cess liability on outward supply made by him. He cannot use Input Tax Credit of Cess for payment of output CGST, SGST or IGST
- Where a taxpayer is registered under composition levy, Cess is not applicable on outward supplies made by him
- Cess is not levied on export made from India. The exporter can claim a refund of the input tax credit of cess paid on purchases
- The amount of compensation to be distributed to each state shall be calculated as follows:

Step 1 : Base revenue = Tax revenue of the State in financial year 2015-16.

Step 2 : Assume growth rate as 14% and calculate projected revenue for each financial year.

The implication of projected revenue is that this would be the revenue that a state could have earned if GST were not implemented.

If the base year revenue for 2015-16 for a concerned State, calculated as per section 5 is one hundred rupees, then the projected revenue for financial year 2018-19 shall be:

Projected Revenue for 2018-19=100 (1+14/100)³

Step 3 : Calculate the Compensation payable for each FY as follows :

Projected Revenue for that particular financial year	xxx
(–) Actual Revenue earned by the State including share in IGST	xxx
Compensation payable to the State	xxx
- 50% of the amount remaining unutilised in the Fund at the end of the transition period shall be transferred to the Consolidated Fund of India as the share of Centre, and the balance 50% shall be distributed amongst the States in the ratio of their total revenues from the State tax or the Union territory goods and services tax, as the case may be, in the last year of the transition period.

FAQ by CBIC on 15-12-2018

Q 1. What is Goods and Services Tax (GST)?

Answer : It is a destination based tax on consumption of goods and services. It is proposed to be levied at all stages right from manufacture up to final consumption with credit of taxes paid at previous stages available as setoff. In a nutshell, only value addition will be taxed and burden of tax is to be borne by the final consumer.

Q 2. What exactly is the concept of destination based tax on consumption?

Answer : The tax would accrue to the taxing authority which has jurisdiction over the place of consumption which is also termed as place of supply.

Q 3. Which of the existing taxes are proposed to be subsumed under GST?

Answer : The GST would replace the following taxes:

- i. taxes currently levied and collected by the Centre:
 - a. Central Excise duty
 - b. Duties of Excise (Medicinal and Toilet Preparations)
 - c. Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance)
 - d. Additional Duties of Excise (Textiles and Textile Products)
 - e. Additional Duties of Customs (commonly known as CVD)
 - f. Special Additional Duty of Customs (SAD)
 - g. Service Tax
 - h. Central Surcharges and Cesses so far as they relate to supply of goods and services
- ii. State taxes that would be subsumed under the GST are:
 - a. State VAT
 - b. Central Sales Tax
 - c. Luxury Tax
 - d. Entry Tax (all forms)
 - e. Entertainment and Amusement Tax (except when levied by the local bodies)
 - f. Taxes on advertisements
 - g. Purchase Tax
 - h. Taxes on lotteries, betting and gambling
 - i. State Surcharges and Cesses so far as they relate to supply of goods and services

The GST Council shall make recommendations to the Union and States on the taxes, cesses and surcharges levied by the Centre, the States and the local bodies which may be subsumed in the GST.

Q 4. What principles were adopted for subsuming the above taxes under GST?

Answer : The various Central, State and Local levies were examined to identify their possibility of being subsumed under GST. While identifying, the following principles were kept in mind:

- a. Taxes or levies to be subsumed should be primarily in the nature of indirect taxes, either on the supply of goods or on the supply of services.
- b. Taxes or levies to be subsumed should be part of the transaction chain which commences with import/manufacture/ production of goods or provision of services at one end and the consumption of goods and services at the other.

- c. The subsumation should result in free flow of tax credit in intra and inter-State levels. The taxes, levies and fees that are not specifically related to supply of goods & services should not be subsumed under GST.
- d. Revenue fairness for both the Union and the States individually would need to be attempted.

Q 5. Which are the commodities which have been kept outside the purview of GST?

Answer : Article 366(12A) of the Constitution as amended by 101st Constitutional Amendment Act, 2016 defines the Goods and Services tax (GST) as a tax on supply of goods or services or both, except supply of alcoholic liquor for human consumption. So alcohol for human consumption is kept out of GST by way of definition of GST in constitution. Five petroleum products viz. petroleum crude, motor spirit (petrol), high speed diesel, natural gas and aviation turbine fuel have temporarily been kept out and GST Council shall decide the date from which they shall be included in GST.

Q 6. What is the status in respect of taxation of above commodities after introduction of GST?

Answer : The existing taxation system (VAT & Central Excise) will continue in respect of the above commodities.

Q 7. What is the status of Tobacco and Tobacco products under the GST regime?

Answer : Tobacco and tobacco products is leviable to GST. In addition, the Centre has the power to levy Central Excise duty on these products.

Q 8. What type of GST was implemented?

Answer : It would be a dual GST with the Centre and States simultaneously levying it on a common tax base. The GST to be levied by the Centre on intra-State supply of goods and / or services would be called the Central GST (CGST) and that to be levied by the States/ Union territory would be called the State GST (SGST)/ UTGST. Similarly, Integrated GST (IGST) will be levied and administered by Centre on every inter-state supply of goods and services.

Q 9. Why is Dual GST required?

Answer : India is a federal country where both the Centre and the States have been assigned the powers to levy and collect taxes through appropriate legislation. Both the levels of Government have distinct responsibilities to perform according to the division of powers prescribed in the Constitution for which they need to raise resources. A dual GST will, therefore, be in keeping with the Constitutional requirement of fiscal federalism.

Q 10. Which authority will levy and administer GST?

Answer : Centre will levy and administer CGST & IGST while respective states /UTs will levy and administer SGST/ UTGST.

Q 11. Why was the Constitution of India amended recently in the context of GST?

Answer : Currently, the fiscal powers between the Centre and the States are clearly demarcated in the Constitution with almost no overlap between the respective domains. The Centre has the powers to levy tax on the manufacture of goods (except alcoholic liquor for human consumption, opium, narcotics etc.) while the States have the powers to levy tax on the sale of goods. In the case of inter-State sales, the Centre has the power to levy a tax (the Central Sales Tax) but, the tax is collected and retained entirely by the States. As for services, it is the Centre alone that is empowered to levy service tax.

Introduction of the GST required amendments in the Constitution so as to simultaneously empower the Centre and the States to levy and collect this tax. The Constitution of India has been amended by the Constitution (one hundred and first amendment) Act, 2016 for this purpose. Article 246A of the Constitution empowers the Centre and the States to levy and collect the GST.

Q 12. How a particular transaction of goods and services would be taxed simultaneously under Central GST (CGST) and State GST (SGST)?

Answer : The Central GST and the State GST would be levied simultaneously on every transaction of supply of goods and services made by registered persons except the exempted goods and services, goods and services which are outside the purview of GST. Further, both would be levied on the same price or value unlike State VAT which is levied on the value of the goods inclusive of CENVAT. While the location of the supplier and the recipient within the country is immaterial for the purpose of CGST, SGST would be chargeable only when the supplier and the recipient are both located within the State.

Illustration 1 : Suppose hypothetically that the rate of CGST is 10% and that of SGST is 10%. When a wholesale dealer of steel in Uttar Pradesh supplies steel bars and rods to a construction company which is also located within the same State for, say ₹ 100, the dealer would charge CGST of ₹ 10 and SGST of ₹ 10 in addition to the basic price of the goods. He would be required to deposit the CGST component into a Central Government account while the SGST portion into the account of the concerned State Government. Of course, he need not actually pay ₹ 20 (₹ 10 + ₹ 10) in cash as he would be entitled to set-off this liability against the CGST or SGST paid on his purchases (say, inputs). But for paying CGST he would be allowed to use only the credit of CGST paid on his purchases while for SGST he can utilize the credit of SGST alone. In other words, CGST credit cannot, in general, be used for payment of SGST. Nor can SGST credit be used for payment of CGST.

Illustration 2 : Suppose, again hypothetically, that the rate of CGST is 10% and that of SGST is 10%. When an advertising company located in Mumbai supplies advertising services to a company manufacturing soap also located within the State of Maharashtra for, let us say ₹ 100, the ad company would charge CGST of ₹ 10 as well as SGST of ₹ 10 to the basic value of the service. He would be required to deposit the CGST component into a Central Government account while the SGST portion into the account of the concerned State Government. Of course, he need not again actually pay ₹ 20 (₹ 10 + ₹ 10) in cash as it would be entitled to set-off this liability against the CGST or SGST paid on his purchase (say, of inputs such as stationery, office equipment, services of an artist etc.). But for paying CGST he would be allowed to use only the credit of CGST paid on its purchase while for SGST he can utilise the credit of SGST alone. In other words, CGST credit cannot, in general, be used for payment of SGST. Nor can SGST credit be used for payment of CGST.

Q 13. What are the benefits which the Country will accrue from GST?

Answer : Introduction of GST would be a very significant step in the field of indirect tax reforms in India. By amalgamating a large number of Central and State taxes into a single tax and allowing set-off of prior-stage taxes, it would mitigate the ill effects of cascading and pave the way for a common national market. For the consumers, the biggest gain would be in terms of a reduction in the overall tax burden on goods, which is currently estimated at 25%-30%. Introduction of GST would also make our products competitive in the domestic and international markets. Studies show that this would instantly spur economic growth. There may also be revenue gain for the Centre and the States due to widening of the tax base, increase in trade volumes and improved tax compliance. Last but not the least, this tax, because of its transparent character, would be easier to administer.

Q 14. What is IGST?

Answer : Under the GST regime, an Integrated GST (IGST) would be levied and collected by the Centre on inter-State supply of goods and services. Under Article 269A of the Constitution, the GST on supplies in the course of inter- State trade or commerce shall be levied and collected by the Government of India and such tax shall be apportioned between the Union and the States in the manner as may be provided by Parliament by law on the recommendations of the Goods and Services Tax Council.

Q 15. Who will decide rates for levy of GST?

Answer : The CGST and SGST would be levied at rates to be jointly decided by the Centre and States. The rates would be notified on the recommendations of the GST Council.

Q 16. What would be the role of GST Council?

Answer : A GST Council would be constituted comprising the Union Finance Minister (who will be the Chairman of the Council), the Minister of State (Revenue) and the State Finance/Taxation Ministers to make recommendations to the Union and the States on

- a. the taxes, cesses and surcharges levied by the Centre, the States and the local bodies which may be subsumed under GST;
- b. the goods and services that may be subjected to or exempted from the GST;
- c. the date on which the GST shall be levied on petroleum crude, high speed diesel, motor spirit (commonly known as petrol), natural gas and aviation turbine fuel;
- d. model GST laws, principles of levy, apportionment of IGST and the principles that govern the place of supply;
- e. the threshold limit of turnover below which the goods and services may be exempted from GST;
- f. the rates including floor rates with bands of GST;
- g. any special rate or rates for a specified period to raise additional resources during any natural calamity or disaster;
- h. special provision with respect to the North- East States, J&K, Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand; and
- i. any other matter relating to the GST, as the Council may decide.

Q 17. What is the guiding principle of GST Council?

Answer : The mechanism of GST Council would ensure harmonization on different aspects of GST between the Centre and the States as well as among States. It has been provided in the Constitution (one hundred and first amendment) Act, 2016 that the GST Council, in its discharge of various functions, shall be guided by the need for a harmonized structure of GST and for the development of a harmonized national market for goods and services.

Q 18. How are decisions be taken by GST Council?

Answer : The Constitution (one hundred and first amendment) Act, 2016 provides that every decision of the GST Council shall be taken at a meeting by a majority of not less than 3/4th of the weighted votes of the Members present and voting. The vote of the Central Government shall have a weightage of 1/3rd of the votes cast and the votes of all the State Governments taken together shall have a weightage of 2/3rd of the total votes cast in that meeting. One half of the total number of members of the GST Council shall constitute the quorum at its meetings.

Levy and Collection of CGST and IGST

5.2.1 Application of CGST/ IGST Law

The introduction of Goods and Services Tax (GST) was a significant reform in the field of indirect taxes in our country. Multiple taxes levied and collected by the Centre and states has been replaced by one tax called Goods and Services Tax (GST). GST is a multi-stage value added tax on consumption of goods or services or both. A “dual GST” model has been adopted in view of the federal structure of our country.

A. Intra-State Supply

Centre and States will simultaneously levy GST on every supply of goods or services or both which takes place within a State or Union territory. Thus, there shall be two components of GST as under:

- a. Central tax (CGST): (levied & collected under the authority of CGST Act, 2017 passed by the Parliament)
- b. State tax (SGST) (levied & collected under the authority of SGST Act, 2017 passed by respective State)

B. Inter-State Supply

Centre will levy Integrated Goods and Services Tax (IGST) on every supply of goods or services or both. However, the levy shall be shared equally between Central and respective State Government.

$$\text{IGST rate} = \text{CGST rate} + \text{SGST rate}$$

In the GST, it is very important to determine the nature of supply – whether it is inter-state or intra state, as the kind of tax to be paid (IGST or CGST+SGST) depends on that. A brief note to determine nature of supply are as under :

Intra-State supply	Inter-State supply
1. Supply of goods within the state or union territory.	i. Supply of goods from one state or union territory to other state or union territory.
2. Supply of services within the state or union territory	ii. Supply of service from one state or union territory to other state or union territory.
	iii. Import of goods till they cross customs frontier.
	iv. Import of service.
	v. Export of goods or service.
	vi. Supply of goods/services to/by SEZ.
	vii. Any other supply in the taxable territory which is not intra state supply.

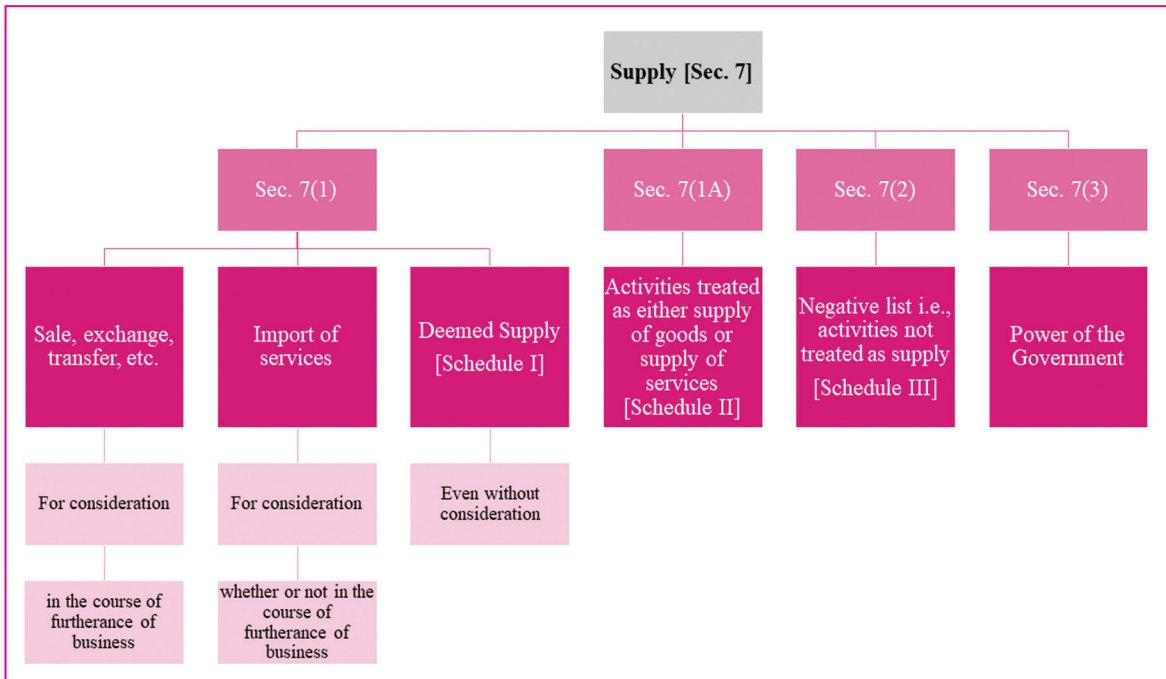

However, sec. 20 of the IGST Act provides that the provisions of Central Goods and Services Tax Act relating to:

- a. scope of supply;
- b. composite supply and mixed supply;
- c. time and value of supply;
- d. input tax credit;
- e. registration;
- f. tax invoice, credit and debit notes;
- g. accounts and records;
- h. returns, other than late fee;
- i. payment of tax;
- j. tax deduction at source;
- k. collection of tax at source;
- l. assessment;
- m. refunds;
- n. audit;
- o. inspection, search, seizure and arrest;
- p. demands and recovery;
- q. liability to pay in certain cases;
- r. advance ruling;
- s. appeals and revision;
- t. presumption as to documents;
- u. offences and penalties;
- v. job work;
- w. electronic commerce;
- x. transitional provisions; and
- y. miscellaneous provisions including the provisions relating to the imposition of interest and penalty, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply, so far as may be, in relation to integrated tax as they apply in relation to central tax as if they are enacted under this Act.

5.2.2 Concept of Supply including Composite and Mixed Supplies

The taxable event in GST is supply of goods or services or both. Various taxable events like manufacture, sale, rendering of service, purchase, entry into a territory of State etc. have been done away with in favour of just one taxable event i.e., supply. Thus, it is very important to understand the meaning of supply. The GST law provides an inclusive definition of “supply”.

Supply [Sec. 7(1)]

Supply includes :

- a. all forms of supply of goods or services or both such as sale, transfer, barter, exchange, licence, rental, lease or disposal made or agreed to be made for a consideration by a person in the course or furtherance of business.
 - aa. the activities or transactions, by a person, other than an individual, to its members or constituents or vice-versa, for cash, deferred payment or other valuable consideration.
 - Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or any judgment, decree or order of any Court, tribunal or authority, the person and its members or constituents shall be deemed to be two separate persons and the supply of activities or transactions inter se shall be deemed to take place from one such person to another;
- b. import of services for a consideration whether or not in the course or furtherance of business.
- c. the activities specified in Schedule I, made or agreed to be made without a consideration.

All forms of supply of goods or services or both for a consideration by a person in the course or furtherance of business [Sec. 7(1)(a)]

- ⊙ Supply should be of goods and services. If something else is supplied like money or securities, it is not covered.
- ⊙ Supply includes all forms of supply (goods and/ or services) and includes agreeing to supply when the supply is for a consideration and in the course or furtherance of business. It specifically provides for the inclusion of the following classes of transactions# :

a. Sale	Sale is a lawful, permanent and absolute transfer of ownership of property in goods for money consideration under a valid contract such that no rights are left behind with the transferor.
b. Transfer	Transfer is to lawfully convey property from one person to another. Consent of the transferor and capacity of transferee may not be present although all other ingredients of a lawful contract are involved.
c. Barter	Barter is where the consideration is in the form of goods or services (and not in money) for a sale or transfer. Barter will involve two supplies and not one.
d. Exchange	The act of giving or taking one thing in return for another.
e. License	To give permission to enter and use the property (movable or immovable) or permission to act.
f. Rental	An arrangement to rent something or the amount of money that you pay to rent something.
g. Lease	To make a legal agreement by which money is paid in order to use land, a building, a vehicle, or a piece of equipment for an agreed period of time.
h. Disposal	The act of getting rid of something, especially by throwing it away

These are illustrative form of supply.

- The supply includes supply of goods or services agreed to made in future. E.g., if Mr. X receives advance payment for providing specific service in future, the Mr. X is required to pay GST at the time of receipt of advance money as here he agrees to provide services in future.
- Supply should be made for a consideration (i.e., quid pro quo). Consideration may be money or something else. As per sec. 2(31), consideration in relation to the supply of goods or services or both includes:
 - a. any payment made or to be made, whether in money or otherwise, in respect of, in response to, or for the inducement of, the supply of goods or services or both, whether by the recipient or by any other person but shall not include any subsidy given by the Central Government or a State Government;
 - b. the monetary value of any act (doing something) or forbearance (not doing something), in respect of, in response to, or for the inducement of, the supply of goods or services or both, whether by the recipient or by any other person but shall not include any subsidy given by the Central Government or a State Government:

However, a deposit given in respect of the supply of goods or services or both shall not be considered as payment made for such supply unless the supplier applies such deposit as consideration for the said supply.

 - It may be monetary or non-monetary.
- For a transaction to qualify as ‘supply’, it is essential that the same is ‘in the course’ or ‘furtherance of business’. This implies that only such supplies of goods and/ or services by a business entity would be liable to tax, which are ‘in the course’ or in ‘furtherance of business’. Supplies that are not in the course of business or in furtherance of business will not qualify as ‘supply’ for the purpose of levy of tax.
- As per sec. 2(52), goods means every kind of movable property other than money and securities but includes actionable claim, growing crops, grass and things attached to or forming part of the land which are agreed to be severed before supply or under a contract of supply.

Taxpoint : Actionable Claim other than lottery, betting and gambling is not treated as supply.

- ◉ As per sec. 2(102), services means anything other than goods, money and securities but includes activities relating to the use of money or its conversion by cash or by any other mode, from one form, currency or denomination, to another form, currency or denomination for which a separate consideration is charged. It also includes facilitating or arranging transactions in securities;
- ◉ As per sec. 2(107) taxable person means a person who is registered or liable to be registered u/s 22 or sec. 24.

Supply should be made by a taxable person. However, recipient of the supply may or may not be a taxable person.

- ◉ As per sec. 2(84), person includes:
 - a. an individual;
 - b. a Hindu Undivided Family;
 - c. a company;
 - d. a firm;
 - e. a Limited Liability Partnership;
 - f. an association of persons or a body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, in India or outside India;
 - g. any corporation established by or under any Central Act, State Act or Provincial Act or a Government company as defined in sec. 2(45) of the Companies Act, 2013;
 - h. any body corporate incorporated by or under the laws of a country outside India;
 - i. a co-operative society registered under any law relating to co-operative societies;
 - j. a local authority;
 - k. Central Government or a State Government;
 - l. society as defined under the Societies Registration Act, 1860;
 - m. trust; and
 - n. every artificial juridical person, not falling within any of the above;
- ◉ As per sec. 2(109), taxable territory means the territory to which the provisions of this Act apply.
- ◉ As per sec. 2(108), taxable supply means a supply of goods or services or both which is leviable to tax under this Act;
- ◉ As per sec. 2(17), business includes:
 - a. any trade, commerce, manufacture, profession, vocation, adventure, wager or any other similar activity, whether or not it is for a pecuniary benefit;
 - b. any activity or transaction in connection with or incidental or ancillary to sub-clause (a);
 - c. any activity or transaction in the nature of sub-clause (a), whether or not there is volume, frequency, continuity or regularity of such transaction;

- d. supply or acquisition of goods including capital goods and services in connection with commencement or closure of business;
- e. provision by a club, association, society, or any such body (for a subscription or any other consideration) of the facilities or benefits to its members;
- f. admission, for a consideration, of persons to any premises;
- g. services supplied by a person as the holder of an office which has been accepted by him in the course or furtherance of his trade, profession or vocation;
- h. activities of a race club including by way of totalisator or a license to book maker or activities of a licensed book maker in such club; and
- i. any activity or transaction undertaken by the Central Government, a State Government or any local authority in which they are engaged as public authorities;

The meaning and scope of supply under GST can be understood in terms of following parameters, which can be adopted to characterize a transaction as supply:

- Supply of goods or services or both (Supply of anything other than goods or services does not attract GST).
- Supply should be made for a consideration (subject to certain exceptions).
- Supply should be made in the course or furtherance of business (subject to certain exceptions).
- Supply should be a taxable supply.
- Supply should be made in a taxable territory.
- Supply is made by as taxable person.

Import of service for consideration whether or not in the course or furtherance of business [Sec. 7(1)(b)]

The word ‘supply’ includes import of a service (not goods), made for a consideration and whether or not in the course or in furtherance of business. This implies that import of paid services even for personal consumption would qualify as ‘supply’ and, therefore, would be liable to tax.

Activities specified in Schedule I, made or agreed to be made without a consideration [Sec. 7(1)(c)]

As per schedule I, following activities are to be treated as supply even if made without consideration provided such activities are in course or furtherance of business:

1. Permanent transfer or disposal of business assets where input tax credit (ITC) has been availed on such asset shall be treated as supply.

Taxpoint :

Where ITC has not been availed at the time of acquisition of asset, disposal of such asset without consideration is not treated as supply.

Example 2 :

- Mr. Ramesh is engaged in the business of beauty products. Few of items on which he has already availed ITC, taken by him for personal use of his family members. Such transaction shall be treated as supply

2. Supply of goods or services or both between:

- related persons or
- distinct persons as specified in sec. 25, when made in the course or furtherance of business, shall be treated as supply (even though without consideration)

Exception :

Taxpoint :

- As per explanation to sec. 15(5), persons shall be deemed to be “related persons” if-
 - i. such persons are officers or directors of one another’s businesses;
 - ii. such persons are legally recognised partners in business;
 - iii. such persons are employer and employee;
 - iv. any person directly or indirectly owns, controls or holds 25% or more of the outstanding voting stock or shares of both of them;
 - v. one of them directly or indirectly controls the other;
 - vi. both of them are directly or indirectly controlled by a third person;
 - vii. together they directly or indirectly control a third person; or
 - viii. they are members of the same family ;
 - As per sec. 2(49), family means:
 - a. the spouse and children of the person, and
 - b. the parents, grand-parents, brothers and sisters of the person if they are wholly or mainly dependent on the said person.
- Though employer-employee are treated as related person but services provided by an employee to his employer in the course of employment is not treated as supply.
- Distinct person [Sec. 25(4)]: A person who has obtained or is required to obtain more than one registration, whether in one State or Union territory or more than one State or Union territory shall, in respect of each such registration, be treated as distinct persons

Example 3 :

X Ltd. has 3 branches. One at Kolkata, another at Chennai and third one at Mumbai. All these branches are separately registered with GST and treated as distinct persons. Any inter-State transfer (like stock transfer, etc.) among them shall be treated as supply even though there is no consideration.

3. Supply of goods*:

- a. by a principal to his agent where the agent undertakes to supply such goods on behalf of the principal; or
- b. by an agent to his principal where the agent undertakes to receive such goods on behalf of the principal.

* The clause is applicable in case of Pakka aarhatia (i.e., the agent selling or buying in this own name).

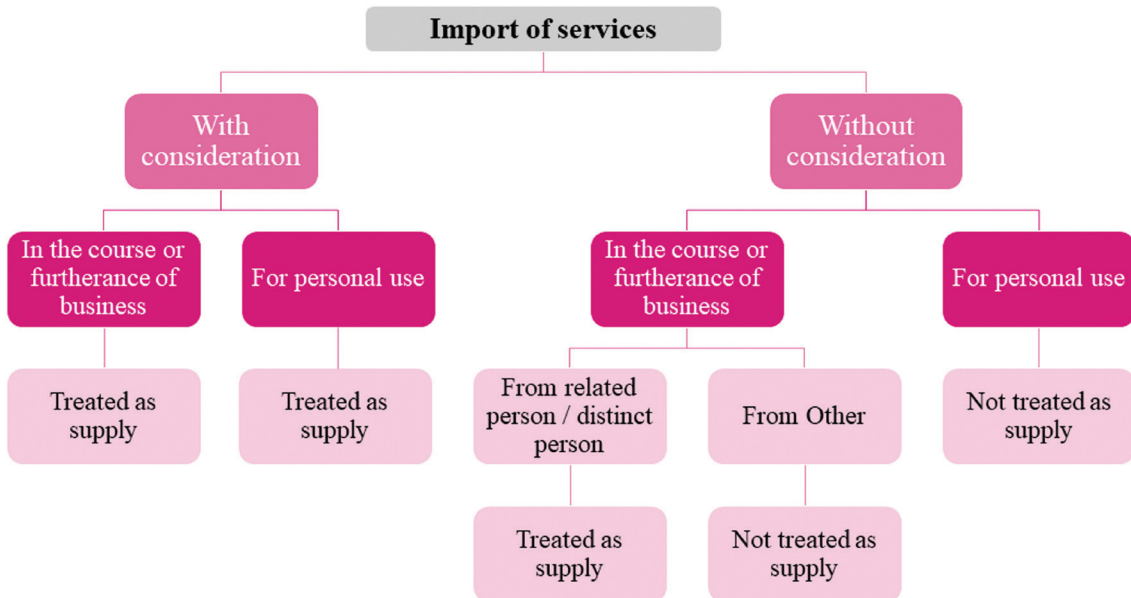

Taxpoint :

- This clause is applicable only
 - in case of supply of goods
 - between principal and agent
- Transfer of goods between principal and agent shall be treated as supply even though it is without any consideration.
- As per sec. 2(5), agent means a person, including a factor, broker, commission agent, arhatia, del credere agent, an auctioneer or any other mercantile agent, by whatever name called, who carries on the business of supply or receipt of goods or services or both on behalf of another.
- As per sec. 2(88), principal means a person on whose behalf an agent carries on the business of supply or receipt of goods or services or both.

Example 4 :

1. Mr. Prem, Kolkata, is an agent of Mr. Magan, Mumbai. Mr. Prem is acquiring goods on behalf of Mr. Magan and supply it to Mr. Magan. Here, transaction between Mr. Prem and Mr. Magan is treated as supply even though there is no consideration.
 2. Similarly, Mr. Ashok, Surat, is an agent of Mr. Magan, Mumbai. Mr. Magan is sending goods to Mr. Ashok for selling that in Surat. Here, transaction between Mr. Ashok and Mr. Magan is treated as supply even though there is no consideration.
4. Import of services by a person from a related person or from any of his other establishments outside India, in the course or furtherance of business.

Taxpoint: Import of services for a consideration whether or not in the course or furtherance of business is treated as supply u/s 7(1)(b). However, if services are imported by a person from a related person even though without consideration is treated as supply provided such import is in the course of business or furtherance of business.

Buy one get one free offer [Circular No. 92/11/2019-GST dated 07/03/2019]

Sometimes, companies announce offers like ‘Buy One, Get One free’. For example, “buy one soap and get one soap free” or “Get one tooth brush free along with the purchase of tooth paste”. As per sec. 7(1)(a), the goods or services which are supplied free of cost (without any consideration) shall not be treated as ‘supply’ under GST (except in case of activities mentioned in Schedule I). It may appear at first glance that in case of offers like ‘Buy One, Get One Free’, one item is being ‘supplied free of cost’ without any consideration. In fact, it is not an individual supply of free goods but a case of two or more individual supplies where a single price is being charged for the entire supply. It can at best be treated as supplying two goods for the price of one.

Activities or transactions to be treated as supply of goods or supply of services [Sec. 7(1A) with Schedule II]

In the earlier tax regime, activities like works contract was treated as both goods and services. Both VAT and service taxes were applicable on it. There were various rates, composition schemes available for works contractors with many complexities thus resulting in litigation. To settle the innumerable complexities and confusion regarding these types of activities, Schedule II is inserted in the GST laws which specifically mention the nature of supply involved in these activities.

Composite and Mixed Supply [Sec. 7(1)]

The taxable event under GST is “supply of goods or services or both”. GST will be payable on every supply of goods or services or both unless otherwise exempted. The rates at which GST is payable for individual goods or services or both is also separately-notified. Classification of any supply (whether as goods or services, the category of goods or services) is essential to determine the applicable rate of GST on the particular supply. The application of rates will pose no problem if the supply is of individual goods or services which is clearly identifiable and the goods or services are subject to a particular rate of tax.

But not all supplies will be such simple and clearly identifiable supplies. Some of the supplies will be a combination of goods or combination of services or combination of goods and services both. Each individual component in a given supply may attract different rate of tax. The determination of rate of tax to be levied on such supplies may pose a problem and would depend upon the classification of such supplies. It is for this reason, that the GST Law identifies composite supplies and mixed supplies and provides certainty in respect of tax treatment under GST for such supplies.

Tax liability on composite and mixed supplies [Sec. 8]

The tax liability on a composite or a mixed supply shall be determined in the following manner :

Case	Applicable GST
A composite supply comprising two or more supplies, one of which is a principal supply.	It is treated as a supply of such principal supply and rate of GST on such principal supply shall be applicable.
A mixed supply comprising two or more supplies.	It is treated as a supply of that particular supply which attracts the highest rate of tax.

Meaning of composite supply [Sec. 2(30)]

“Composite supply” means a supply made by a taxable person to a recipient consisting of two or more taxable supplies of goods or services or both, or any combination thereof, which are naturally bundled and supplied in conjunction with each other in the ordinary course of business, one of which is a principal supply.

“Principal supply” means the supply of goods or services which constitutes the predominant element of a composite supply and to which any other supply forming part of that composite supply is ancillary – Sec. 2(90)

Example 16 :

- ◉ Where goods are packed and transported with insurance, the supply of goods, packing materials, transport and insurance is a composite supply and supply of goods is a principal supply.
- ◉ When a consumer buys a laptop and he also gets warranty, pre-installed windows and microsoft office applications, this supply is a composite supply. Here, supply of laptop is the principal supply and others are ancillary to it.
- ◉ Food supplied to the in-patients as advised by the doctor/ nutritionist is a part of composite supply of health care and not separately taxable”. Further supplies of food by hospital to patients (not admitted) or their attendants or visitors are taxable.
- ◉ In the case of printing of books, pamphlets, brochures, annual reports, and the like, where only content is supplied by the publisher or the person who owns the usage rights to the intangible inputs while the physical inputs including paper used for printing belong to the printer, supply of printing of the content supplied by the recipient of supply is the principal supply.

Taxpoint :

A works contracts and restaurant services are classic examples of composite supplies, however the GST Act identifies both as supply of services and chargeable to specific rate of tax mentioned against each of such services (works contract or restaurant).

In respect of composite supplies (other than the two categories mentioned above), the need to determine the supply as a composite one, will arise, so as to determine the appropriate classification of such supply as a supply of goods or supply of services as also the appropriate rate of tax. It will be necessary to determine as to :

- a. what constitutes principal supply in such composite supplies; and
- b. whether a particular supply is naturally bundled⁹ in the ordinary course of business.

Example 17 :

- ⊙ A hotel provides a 4-D/3-N package with the facility of breakfast. This is a natural bundling of services in the ordinary course of business. The service of hotel accommodation gives the bundle the essential character and would, therefore, be treated as service of providing hotel accommodation.
- ⊙ A 5 star hotel is booked for a conference of 100 delegates on a lump sum package with the following facilities:
 - Accommodation for the delegates
 - Breakfast for the delegates,
 - Tea and coffee during conference
 - Access to fitness room for the delegates
 - Availability of conference room
 - Business centre

As evident a bouquet of services is being provided, many of them chargeable to different effective rates of tax. None of the individual constituents are able to provide the essential character of the service. However, if the service is described as convention service it is able to capture the entire essence of the package. Thus, the service may be judged as convention service and chargeable to full rate. However, it will be fully justifiable for the hotel to charge individually for the services as long as there is no attempt to offload the value of one service on to another service that is chargeable at a concessional rate.

Whether services are bundled in the ordinary course of business would depend upon the normal or frequent practices followed in the area of business to which services relate. Such normal and frequent practices adopted in a business can be ascertained from several indicators some of which are listed below.

- ⊙ The perception of the consumer or the service receiver. If large number of service receivers of such bundle of services reasonably expect such services to be provided as a package, then such a package could be treated as naturally bundled in the ordinary course of business.
- ⊙ Majority of service providers in a particular area of business provide similar bundle of services. For example, bundle of catering on board and transport by air is a bundle offered by a majority of airlines.
- ⊙ The nature of the various services in a bundle of services will also help in determining whether the services are bundled in the ordinary course of business. If the nature of services is such that one of the services is the main service and the other services combined with such service are in the nature of incidental or ancillary services which help in better enjoyment of a main service. For example, service of stay in a hotel is often combined with a service or laundering of 3-4 items of clothing free of cost per day. Such service is an ancillary service to the provision of hotel accommodation and the resultant package would be treated as services naturally bundled in the ordinary course of business.

- ◉ Other illustrative indicators, not determinative but indicative of bundling of services in ordinary course of business are -
 - There is a single price or the customer pays the same amount, no matter how much of the package they actually receive or use.
 - The elements are normally advertised as a package.
 - The different elements are not available separately.
 - The different elements are integral to one overall supply
 - if one or more is removed, the nature of the supply would be affected.

“No straight jacket formula can be laid down to determine whether a service is naturally bundled in the ordinary course of business. Each case must be individually examined in the backdrop of several factors some of which are outlined above.” The above principles explained in the light of what constitutes a naturally bundled service can be gainfully adopted to determine whether a particular supply constitutes a composite supply under GST and if so what constitutes the principal supply so as to determine the right classification and rate of tax of such composite supply.

Meaning of Mixed Supply [Sec. 2(74)]

“Mixed supply” means two or more individual supplies of goods or services, or any combination thereof, made in conjunction with each other by a taxable person for a single price where such supply does not constitute a composite supply.

Example 18 :

A supply of a package consisting of canned foods, sweets, chocolates, cakes, dry fruits, aerated drinks and fruit juices when supplied for a single price is a mixed supply. Each of these items can be supplied separately and is not dependent on any other. It shall not be a mixed supply if these items are supplied separately.

In order to identify if the particular supply is a Mixed Supply, the first requisite is to rule out that the supply is a composite supply. A supply can be a mixed supply only if it is not a composite supply. As a corollary it can be said that if the transaction consists of supplies not naturally bundled in the ordinary course of business then it would be a Mixed Supply. Once the amenability of the transaction as a composite supply is ruled out, it would be a mixed supply, classified in terms of a supply of goods or services attracting highest rate of tax.

The following illustration given in the Education Guide of CBIC referred to above can be a pointer towards a mixed supply of services: “A house is given on rent one floor of which is to be used as residence and the other for housing a printing press. Such renting for two different purposes is not naturally bundled in the ordinary course of business. Therefore, if a single rent deed is executed it will be treated as a service comprising entirely of such service which attracts highest liability of service tax. In this case renting for use as residence is a negative list service while renting for non-residence use is chargeable to tax. Since the latter category attracts highest liability of service tax amongst the two services bundled together, the entire bundle would be treated as renting of commercial property.”

While there are no infallible tests for such determination, the following guiding principles could be adopted to determine whether a supply would be a composite supply or a mixed supply. However, every supply should be independently analysed.

Description	Composite Supply	Mixed Supply
Naturally bundled	Yes	No
Each supply available for supply individually	No	Yes / No
One is predominant supply for recipient	Yes	Yes / No
Other supply(ies) is/ are ancillary or received because of predominant supply	Yes	No
Each supply priced separately	Yes / No	No
Supplied together	Yes	Yes
All supplies can be of goods	Yes	Yes
All supplies can be of services	Yes	Yes
A combination of one/ more goods and one/more services	Yes	Yes

Buy one get one free offer [Circular No. 92/11/2019-GST dated 07-03-2019]

- i. Sometimes, companies announce offers like ‘Buy One, Get One free’ For example, “buy one soap and get one soap free” or “Get one tooth-brush free along with the purchase of tooth paste”. As per sec. 7(1)(a), the goods or services which are supplied free of cost (without any consideration) shall not be treated as “supply” under GST (except in case of activities mentioned in Schedule I of the said Act). It may appear at first glance that in case of offers like “Buy One, Get One Free”, one item is being “supplied free of cost” without any consideration. In fact, it is not an individual supply of free goods but a case of two or more individual supplies where a single price is being charged for the entire supply. It can at best be treated as supplying two goods for the price of one.
- ii. Taxability of such supply will be dependent upon as to whether the supply is a composite supply or a mixed supply and the rate of tax shall be determined as per the provisions of sec. 8.
- iii. It is also clarified that ITC shall be available to the supplier for the inputs, input services and capital goods used in relation to supply of goods or services or both as part of such offers.

FAQ by CBIC on 15-12-2018

Q 1. What are composite supply and mixed supply? How are these two different from each other?

Ans. Composite supply is a supply consisting of two or more taxable supplies of goods or services or both or any combination thereof, which are bundled in natural course and are supplied in conjunction with each other in the ordinary course of business and where one of which is a principal supply. For example, when a consumer buys a television set and he also gets warranty and a maintenance contract with the TV, this supply is a composite supply. In this example, supply of TV is the principal supply, warranty and maintenance service are ancillary.

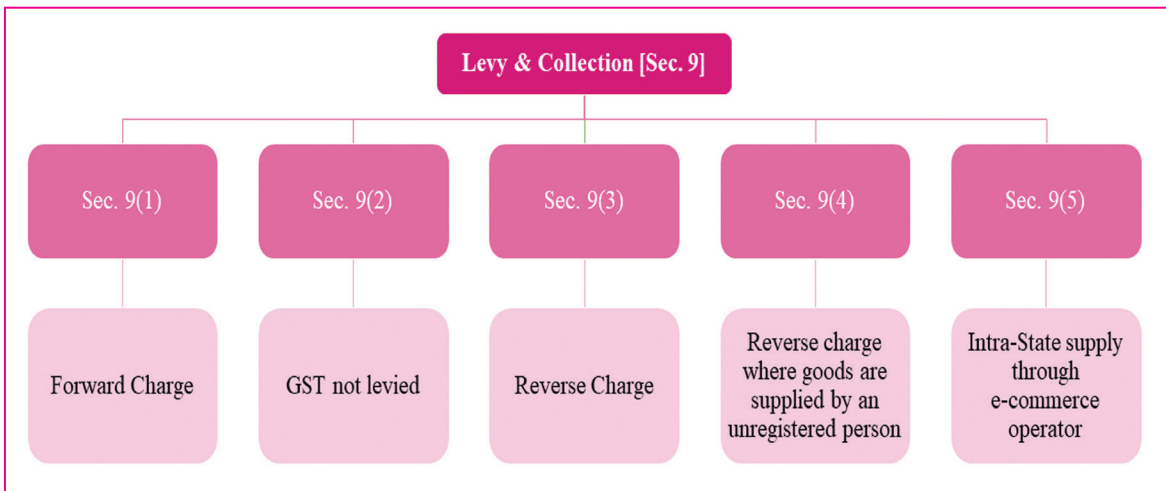

Mixed supply is combination of more than one individual supplies of goods or services or any combination thereof made in conjunction with each other for a single price, which can ordinarily be supplied separately. For example, a shopkeeper selling storage water bottles along with refrigerator. Bottles and the refrigerator can easily be priced and sold separately.

Q 2. What is the treatment of composite supply and mixed supply under GST?

Ans. Composite supply shall be treated as supply of the principal supply. Mixed supply would be treated as supply of that particular goods or services which attracts the highest rate of tax.

5.2.3 Charge of Tax including Reverse Charge

Article 265 of the Constitution of India mandates that no tax shall be levied or collected except by the authority of law. The charging section is a must in any tax law for levy and collection of tax. Before imposing any tax, it must be shown that the transaction falls within the ambit of the taxable event and that the person on whom the tax is so imposed also gets covered within the scope and ambit of the charging section. The scope of the taxable event being ‘supply’ has been discussed in the earlier Chapter. This chapter will provide an insight into the chargeability of tax on a supply. Sec.9¹⁰ is the charging provision of the CGST Act. It provides the maximum rate of tax that can be levied on supplies leviable to tax under this law, the manner of collection of tax and the person responsible for paying such tax. There are four aspects of levy viz taxable event, tax rate, collection or levy, and the person liable to pay. Sec. 9 of the CGST Act covers all these aspects.

Tax payable on Forward Charge Basis [Sec. 9(1) and 9(2)]

A tax called the central goods and services tax shall be levied.

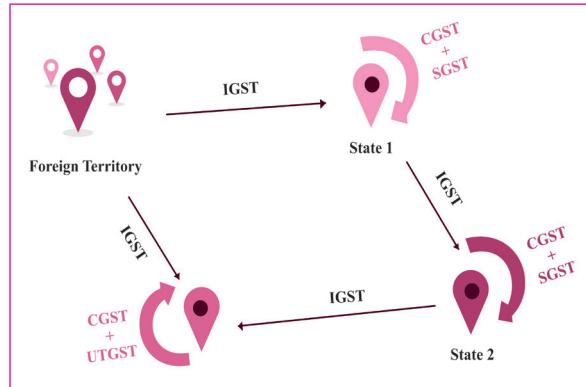

- on all intra-State supplies of goods or services or both,
- except on the supply of alcoholic liquor for human consumption,
- on the value determined u/s 15; and
- at such rates, not exceeding 20%, as may be notified by the Government on the recommendations of the Council; and
- collected in such manner as may be prescribed; and
- shall be paid by the taxable person.

	Alcohol for human consumption	Power to tax remains with the State
	Five petroleum products – crude oil , diesel, petrol, natural gas and ATF	GST Council to decide the date from which GST will be applicable
	Tobacco	Part of GST but power to levy additional excise duty with Central Government
	Entertainment tax levied by local bodies	Power to tax remains with the State

¹⁰ Sec. 5 in case of IGST Act

Taxpoint :

- As per sec. 5 of the IGST Act, IGST shall be levied on all inter-State supplies and on goods imported into India. In case of IGST, maximum rate of tax would be 40% (20% for CGST + 20% for SGST/UTGST)
- SGST / UTGST shall also be levied on all inter-State supplies
- The central tax on the supply of
 - a. petroleum crude,
 - b. high speed diesel,
 - c. motor spirit (commonly known as petrol),
 - d. natural gas and
 - e. aviation turbine fuel

shall be levied with effect from such date as may be notified by the Government on the recommendations of the Council. That means, GST is not leviable on aforesaid items. As per sec. 2(78), non-taxable supply means a supply of goods or services or both which is not leviable to tax under this Act or under the Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act;

- As per sec. 2(107), taxable person means a person who is registered or liable to be registered u/s 22 or sec. 24.
- As per sec. 2(105), supplier in relation to any goods or services or both, shall mean the person supplying the said goods or services or both and shall include an agent acting as such on behalf of such supplier in relation to the goods or services or both supplied;
- As per sec. 2(108), taxable supply means a supply of goods or services or both which is leviable to tax under this Act;
- GST Act extends to the whole of India. As per sec. 2(56), “India” means.
 - the territory of India as referred to in article 1 of the Constitution,
 - its territorial waters¹¹, seabed and sub-soil underlying such waters, continental shelf, exclusive economic zone or any other maritime zone as referred to in the Territorial Waters, Continental Shelf, Exclusive Economic Zone and other Maritime Zones Act, 1976, and
 - the air space above its territory and territorial waters ;

Tax payable on Reverse Charge Basis [Sec. 9(3)]

Generally, the supplier of goods or services is liable to pay GST. However, in specified cases like imports and other notified supplies, the liability may be cast on the recipient under the reverse charge mechanism. Reverse Charge means the liability to pay tax is on the recipient of supply of goods or services instead of the supplier of such goods or services in respect of notified categories of supply.

As per sec. 2(98), reverse charge means the liability to pay tax by the recipient of supply of goods or services or both instead of the supplier of such goods or services or both u/s 9(3) or 9(4), or u/s 5(3) or 5(4) of the Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act.

The Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, by notification, specify categories of supply of goods or services or both, the tax on which shall be paid on reverse charge basis by the recipient of such goods or services or both and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to such recipient as if he is the person liable for paying the tax in relation to the supply of such goods or services or both.

FAQ by CBIC on 15-12-2018

Q 1. Does the GST Law empower the Government to exempt supplies from the levy of GST? [FAQ 9]

Ans. Yes. In the public interest, the Central or the State Government can exempt either wholly or partly, on the recommendations of the GST council, the supplies of goods or services or both from the levy of GST either absolutely or subject to conditions. Further the Government can exempt, under circumstances of an exceptional nature, by special order any goods or services or both. It has also been provided in the SGST Act and UTGST Act that any exemption granted under CGST Act shall be deemed to be exemption under the said Act.

Q 2. When exemption from whole of tax on goods or services or both has been granted absolutely, can a person pay tax? [FAQ 10]

Ans. No. Furthermore, if the goods are partly exempted, the person supplying exempted goods or services or both shall not collect the tax in excess of the effective rate.

5.2.5 Composition Levy

The composition levy is an alternative method of levy of tax designed for small taxpayers whose turnover is up to prescribed limit. The objective of composition scheme is to bring simplicity, ease compliance burden and reduce cost of compliance for the small taxpayers. The scheme is optional. It essentially provides for a turnover tax regime for such tax-payers, with facility of less compliance.

An eligible person opting to pay tax under the composition scheme shall, instead of paying tax on every invoice at the specified rate, pay tax at a prescribed percentage of his turnover.

Advantages of Composition Scheme :

The following are the advantages of registering under composition scheme:

- Lesser compliance (returns, maintaining books of record, issuance of invoices)
- Limited tax liability
- High liquidity as taxes are levied at a lower rate

Disadvantages of Composition Scheme :

The disadvantages of registering under GST composition scheme are as under:

- A limited territory of business. The dealer is barred from carrying out inter-state transactions
- No Input Tax Credit available to composition dealers
- The taxpayer will not be eligible to supply non-taxable goods under GST such as alcohol and goods through an e-commerce portal.
- No ITC to the buyer of goods from the supplier under composition scheme, which will lead to increase in cost.

Basic Concepts of Time and Value of Supply

5.3.1 Time of Supply

Introduction

In order to calculate and discharge tax liability it is important to know the date when the tax liability arises i.e. the date on which the charging event has occurred. In GST law, it is known as Time of Supply. Time of supply means the point of time when goods/services are considered as supplied. If the seller knows the time of supply, then it will help him to recognize the due date for the payment of taxes.

GST law has provided separate provisions to determine the time of supply of goods and time of supply of services. The schema of the provisions is enumerated here in below:

Time of Supply of Goods – Forward Charge [Sec. 12(2)]

The time of supply of goods shall be the earlier of the following dates :

- a. the date of issue of invoice by the supplier; or
- b. the last date on which he is required to issue the invoice with respect to the supply u/s 31; or
- c. the date on which the supplier receives the payment with respect to the supply [Not relevant]

Taxpoint :

- The registered person who did not opt for the composition levy u/s 10 shall pay the Central tax on the outward supply of goods at the time of supply as specified in section 12(2)(a) (i.e. the date of issue of invoice by the supplier or the last date on which he is required, u/s 31(1), to issue the invoice with respect to the supply). Therefore, no GST is payable on advances received against supply of goods. (Notification No. 66/2017-CT dated 15/11/2017). However, benefit of this notification is not available in case of supply of service.
- Where the supplier of taxable goods receives an amount up to ₹ 1,000 in excess of the amount indicated in the tax invoice, the time of supply to the extent of such excess amount shall, at the option of the said supplier, be the date of issue of invoice in respect of such excess amount. However, this provision is also subject to aforesaid notification.
- “The date on which the supplier receives the payment” shall be the date on which the payment is entered in his books of account or the date on which the payment is credited to his bank account, whichever is earlier.
- Supply shall be deemed to have been made to the extent it is covered by the invoice or, as the case may be, the payment.

Tax Invoice [Sec. 31]

- 1. A registered person supplying taxable goods shall issue a tax invoice, before or at the time of :

Where the supply involves movement of goods	Removal of goods for supply to the recipient
Where the supply does not involve movement of goods	Delivery of goods or making available thereof to the recipient

- 2. In case of continuous supply of goods, where successive statements of accounts or successive payments are involved, the invoice shall be issued before or at the time each such statement is issued or, as the case may be, each such payment is received [Sec. 31(4)]
- 3. Where the goods being sent or taken on approval for sale or return are removed before the supply takes place, the invoice shall be issued before or at the time of supply or 6 months from the date of removal, whichever is earlier [Sec. 31(7)]

In nutshell, in case of supply of goods, time of supply is as under :

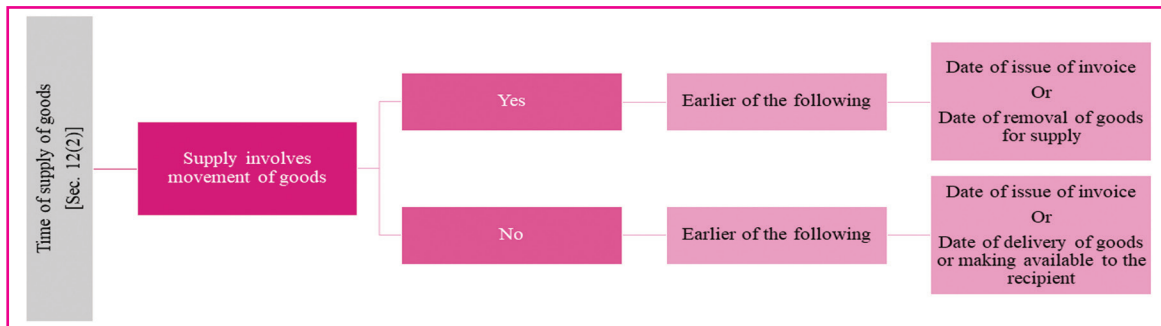

Illustration 12 :

Determine the time of supply in following cases :

Case	Invoice Issued on	Removal of goods for supply on	Goods made available on	Payment received on	Time of Supply
1.	15/04/2022	20/04/2022	20/04/2022	19/04/2022	15/04/2022
2.	15/05/2022	20/04/2022	20/04/2022	19/04/2022	20/04/2022
3.	15/04/2022	NA	20/04/2022	27/04/2022	15/04/2022
4.	15/05/2022	NA	20/04/2022	30/05/2022	20/04/2022
5.	15/06/2022	20/06/2022	20/04/2022	19/03/2022	15/04/2022

Illustration 13 :

Ramesh issues an invoice of ₹ 54,200 for supply of goods as on 10/04/2022 and received ₹ 55,000 in his bank account through NEFT on the same date which was credited into his books of account on 11/04/2022. Determine the time of supply of goods and the time of supply of excess receipt. How shall your answer differ, if he received ₹ 75,000 instead of ₹ 55,000?

Solution:

- Time of supply in case of supply of goods shall be 10/04/2022. Date of receipt of payment is not relevant for determining time of supply in view of the Notification No. 66/2017-CT dated 15/11/2017.
- Ramesh has received ₹ 800 in excess. He will adjust the excess amount against the next supply. The time of supply of such excess amount shall be the date of issuance of next invoice.
- In alternate situation, he has received ₹ 20,800 in excess. Even in this situation, the time of supply of such excess amount shall be the date of issuance of next invoice assuming that this excess will be adjusted in the said invoice.

Illustration 14 :

Certain goods are sent by Mr. X on sale on approval or return basis to Mr. Y on 22nd April 2022. The supply gets confirmed and invoice is issued on :

Case 1: 20th August 2022

Case 2: 22nd November 2022

Payment in each of the cases is made on 23rd November 2022.

Determine time of supply.

Solution:

Date of receipt of payment is immaterial for the purpose of calculating time of supply u/s 12 of the CGST Act 2017. Therefore, 23rd November 2022 should be ignored altogether. The time of supply should be earlier of the date of issuance of invoice or the last date of issuance of invoice. The last date of issuance of invoice will be the earlier of the confirmation of supply or 6 months from the date of removal.

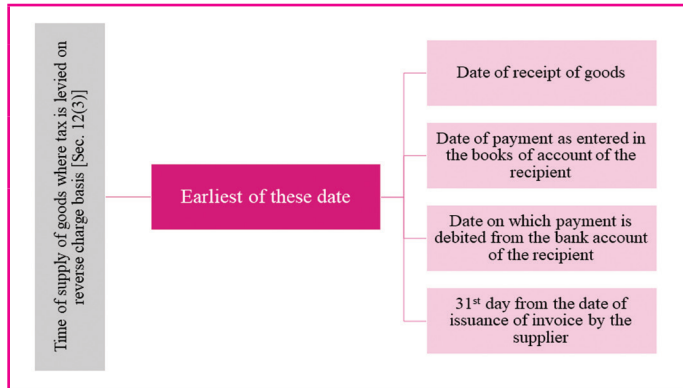

In case 1, the confirmation of supply occurred before 6 months from the date of removal. Thus, the last date of issuance of invoice was 20th August 2022. On this date, the invoice was issued. Hence, the time of supply will be 20th August 2022.

In case 2, the confirmation of supply happened after 6 months from the date of removal. The period of 6 months expired on 21st October 2022. Hence, the invoice was required to be issued by this date. Since the invoice was issued on 22nd November 2022, the actual date of issue of invoice will be considered as falling after the last date of issuance of invoice. The time of supply will be the last date of issuance of invoice i.e., 21st October 2022.

Time of Supply of Goods in case of reverse charge [Sec. 12(3)]

In case of supplies in respect of which tax is paid or liable to be paid on reverse charge basis, the time of supply shall be the earliest of the following dates:

- a. the date of the receipt of goods; or
- b. the date of payment as entered in the books of account of the recipient; or
- c. the date on which the payment is debited in his bank account; or
- d. the date immediately following 30 days from the date of issue of invoice or any other document, by whatever name called, in lieu thereof by the supplier.

Taxpoint :

- ◉ Where it is not possible to determine the time of supply as per aforesaid rule, the time of supply shall be the date of entry in the books of account of the recipient of supply.
- ◉ Please note that in case of reverse charge, benefit of notification no. 66/2017-CT dated 15/11/2017 is not available.

Illustration 15 :

Mr. Amar supplies goods (liable under reverse charge) to Mr. Nath. You are required to determine time of supply considering following details :

01.04.2022	Mr. Nath approaches Mr. Amar and places an order
10.04.2022	Mr. Nath receives the goods
15.04.2022	Mr. Amar issues an invoice
20.04.2022	Mr. Nath makes a payment by cheque and accordingly records it in his books of accounts
25.04.2022	The payment gets debited from Mr. Nath’s bank account

How shall your answer differ if the goods were received by Mr. Nath on 30.04.2022 instead of 10.04.2022

Solution:

The time of supply shall be the earlier of the following dates:

- a. the date of receipt of goods i.e. 10.04.2022
- b. the date of payment as recorded in the books of Mr. Nath i.e. 20.04.2022
- c. the date when the payment gets debited from the bank of Mr. Nath i.e. 25.04.2022

- d. the date immediately following 30 days from the date of issue of invoice by Mr. Amar, i.e. 15.04.2022 + 30 days + 1 day = 16.05.2022

Therefore, the time of supply will be 10.04.2022.

Alternate case :

The time of supply shall be the earlier of the following dates:

- a. the date of receipt of goods i.e. 30.04.2022
- b. the date of payment as recorded in the books of Mr. Nath i.e. 20.04.2022
- c. the date when the payment gets debited from the bank of Mr. Nath i.e. 25.04.2022
- d. the date immediately following 30 days from the date of issue of invoice by Mr. Amar, i.e. 15.04.2022 + 30 days + 1 day = 16.05.2022

Therefore, the time of supply will be 20.04.2022.

Time of Supply in case of Voucher [Sec. 12(4)]

In case of supply of vouchers by a supplier, the time of supply shall be :

If the supply is identifiable at the point at which voucher is issued	The date of issue of voucher
In all other cases	The date of redemption of voucher

Taxpoint :

- ⦿ As per sec. 2(118), “voucher” means an instrument where there is an obligation to accept it as consideration or part consideration for a supply of goods or services or both and where the goods or services or both to be supplied or the identities of their potential suppliers are either indicated on the instrument itself or in related documentation, including the terms and conditions of use of such instrument.
- ⦿ A shopkeeper may issue vouchers for a specific supply i.e. supply which is identifiable at the time of issuance of voucher. In trade parlance, these are known as single purpose vouchers. E.g., vouchers for pressure cookers or television or for spa or haircut. Similarly, a voucher can be a general purpose voucher which can be used for multiple purposes. E.g., a ₹ 1,000/- voucher issued by Shoppers Stop store can be used for buying any product or service at any Shoppers Stop store. The time of supply is different in case of single purpose voucher and in the case of general purpose voucher. Time of supply in the case of single purpose voucher i.e. case where supply is identifiable at the time of issuance of voucher is the date of issue of voucher. However, in all other cases of supply of vouchers, the time of supply is the date of redemption of voucher.

Time of Supply of goods in residual cases [Sec. 12(5)]

Where it is not possible to determine the time of supply under any of the aforesaid provisions, the time of supply shall be :

Where a periodical return has to be filed	The date on which such return is to be filed
In any other case	The date on which the tax is paid.

Time of Supply in case of enhancement in value on account of interest, late fee, etc. [Sec. 12(6)]

The time of supply to the extent it relates to an addition in the value of supply by way of interest, late fee or penalty for delayed payment of any consideration shall be the date on which the supplier receives such addition in value.

Illustration 16 :

Mr. Viswa enters into a contract for supply of goods worth ₹ 10, 00,000 with Mr. Nath on 10th April 2022. Such goods are removed with an invoice dated 12th April 2022 on 13th April 2022 for delivery to Mr. Nath. The terms of the contract demanded the payment against such supply to be made within 60 days beyond which a late payment charge of ₹ 20,000 will have to be paid by Mr. Nath. Mr. Nath makes the payment of ₹ 10,00,000 along with the late payment charges on 15th July 2022. What will be the time of supply in respect of the entire amount?

Solution:

In sec. 12(2), the time of supply in respect of ₹ 10, 00,000 will be the date of issuance of invoice or last date of issuance of invoice. Last date of issuance of invoice will be the date of removal where supply involves movement of goods.

- ⊙ Date of issuance of invoice: 12th April 2022
- ⊙ Last date of issuance of invoice: 13th April 2022 (date of removal)
- ⊙ The date of payment is immaterial as per Notification no. 66/2017-CT dated 15th November 2017.

So, the time of supply will be 12th April, 2022 in respect of ₹ 10, 00,000.

However, in respect of the time of supply for the amount of ₹ 20,000 paid as late payment charges, time of supply as per sec. 12(6) has been stated to be the date on which the supplier receives the addition in value. Here, the additional amount of ₹ 10,000 is received on 15th July 2022. Hence, the time of supply for this amount will also arise on 15th July 2022.

Time of Supply of Services – Forward Charge [Sec. 13(2)]

The time of supply of services shall be the earliest of the following dates, namely :

Situation	Time of Supply
If the invoice is issued within the period prescribed u/s 31	a. The date of issue of invoice by the supplier; b. The date of receipt of payment – whichever is earlier
If the invoice is not issued within the period prescribed u/s 31	a. The date of provision of service; b. The date of receipt of payment – whichever is earlier
In any other case	The date on which the recipient shows the receipt of services in his books of account.

Taxpoint :

- ⊙ “The date of receipt of payment” shall be the date on which the payment is entered in the books of account of the supplier or the date on which the payment is credited to his bank account, whichever is earlier.
- ⊙ The supply shall be deemed to have been made to the extent it is covered by the invoice or, as the case may be, the payment.

- Where the supplier of taxable service receives an amount up to ₹ 1,000 in excess of the amount indicated in the tax invoice, the time of supply to the extent of such excess amount shall, at the option of the said supplier, be the date of issue of invoice relating to such excess amount.

Example 20 :

A telephone company receives ₹ 4,000 on 27th July 2022 against an invoice of ₹ 3,800 on 23rd July 2022 in respect of the services provided. The excess amount of ₹ 200 can be adjusted against the invoice to be issued in the next month. Time of supply will arise only for ₹ 3,800 on 23rd July 2022. For the balance amount of ₹ 200, the time of supply may not arise on 27th July 2022 at the option of the supplier and may be adjusted against the next month's invoice.

If the payment received was ₹ 5000 instead of ₹ 4000

Since, the amount exceeds ₹ 1000 in terms of the excess payment received, there is no option with the supplier. Here, the supply will be deemed to have been made to the extent of the invoice of ₹ 3,800 on 23rd July 2022 and the balance amount of ₹ 1,200 will be liable to tax on 27th July 2022.

- Time limit for issuance of invoice u/s 31 r.w. r. 47 :

Situation	Time limit for issuance of invoice
General cases	Within 30 days from the date of the supply of service (45 days in case of insurance/banking company or a financial institution, including NBFC).
In a case where the supply of services ceases before the completion of the supply	At the time when the supply ceases. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Such invoice shall be issued to the extent of the supply made before such cessation
In case of continuous supply of services
➤ Where the due date of payment is ascertainable from the contract	On or before the due date of payment;
➤ Where the due date of payment is not ascertainable from the contract	Before or at the time when the supplier of service receives the payment;
➤ Where the payment is linked to the completion of an event	On or before the date of completion of that event
In case of an insurance / banking company or a financial institution (including NBFC), or a telecom operator, or any other class of notified supplier of services, making taxable supplies of services between distinct persons as specified in sec. 25	Before or at the time such supplier records the same in his books of account or before the expiry of the quarter during which the supply was made.
➤ A person who has obtained or is required to obtain more than one registration, whether in one State or Union territory or more than one State or Union territory shall, in respect of each such registration, be treated as distinct persons [Sec. 25(4)]

Illustration 18 :

Mr. Kedar provides consultancy services to Mr. Nath worth ₹ 50,000.

08.04.2022	An advance of ₹ 10,000 is received from Mr. Nath
10.04.2022	The consultancy services are provided
16.05.2022	Mr. Kedar receives balance payment of ₹ 40,000 and records it in his books.

What will be the time of supply assuming Mr. Kedar issues the invoice on:

Situation 1 - 15.04.2022

Situation 2 – 15.05.2022

Solution:

Situation 1

In the given case,

Date of issue of invoice (which is within 30 days of the supply of service)	15.04.2022
Date of payment
– ₹ 10,000	08.04.2022
– ₹ 40,000	16.05.2022

If the invoice is issued within the prescribed time period, the time of supply will be the date of receipt of payment or date of issue of invoice whichever is earlier. Hence, for ₹ 10,000, the time of supply will be 08.04.2022 which is the date of receipt of advance payment. For the balance amount, the time of supply will be 15.04.2022 which is earlier of 15.04.2022 (date of invoice) and 16.05.2022 (date of receipt of payment).

Situation 2

If invoice is not issued within the prescribed time period, the time of supply will be the earlier of the date of completion of service and the date of receipt of payment. Here, invoice is issued on 15.05.2022 which is after the prescribed time period. So, for ₹ 10,000, the time of supply will be 08.04.2022 which is the date of receipt of advance payment. For the balance amount, the time of supply will be 10.04.2022 which is earlier of 10.04.2022 (date of completion of service) and 16.05.2022 (date of receipt of payment).

Illustration 19 :

During investigation, it was found that Mr. X had provided catering services of ₹ 1,00,000 to Mr. Y during his business convention. The payment for these services was made in cash. Mr. X had neither issued any invoice nor recognised the payment in his books of accounts. Mr. Y recorded the payment of ₹ 1,00,000 in cash in his books on 28th April 2022. What will be the time of supply in this case?

Solution:

Since, the date of receipt of payment or the date of invoice is not available in case of Mr. X, the date when the payment is recorded in the books of the recipient becomes relevant. Since, Mr. Y recorded this on 28th April, the time of supply for such supply will also be considered as 28th April 2022.

Illustration 20:

A contract for supply of professional services was entered for ₹ 10,00,000 for the period of 3 months on 20th July 2022. However, on 16th August 2022, the recipient informed the supplier that he is not willing to receive any more services under the contract. Both of them mutually agree that the services provided till date can be valued at ₹ 3,50,000. The invoice for this was issued on 20th August 2022 and the payment was made by the recipient on 25th August 2022.

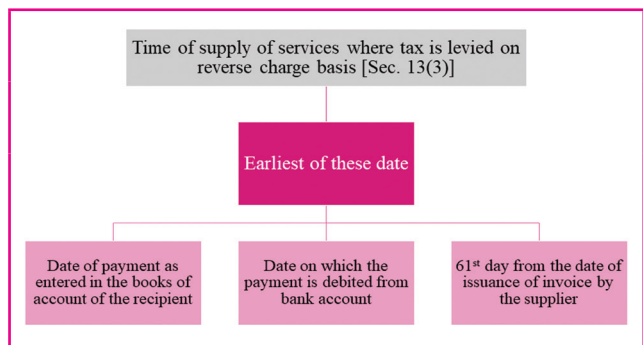

Solution:

In the instant case, the cessation of supply of services occurs on 16th August 2022. The date by which the invoice should have been raised was also 16th August 2022. However, the invoice was issued on 20th August 2022 which is after the prescribed time period. Therefore, the time of supply will be the earlier of the date of completion of service (16th August 2022) and the date of payment (25th August 2022) which will be 16th August 2022.

Time of Supply of Services – Reverse Charge [Sec. 13(3)]

The date immediately following 60 days from the date of issue of invoice (12.04.2022 + 60 days + 1 day)	12.06.2022

Change in rate of tax in respect of supply of goods or services [Sec. 14]

The time of supply, where there is a change in the rate of tax in respect of goods or services or both, shall be determined in the following manner:

1. In case the goods or services or both have been supplied before the change in rate of tax:
 - a. where the invoice for the same has been issued and the payment is also received after the change in rate of tax, the time of supply shall be the date of receipt of payment or the date of issue of invoice, whichever is earlier; or
 - b. where the invoice has been issued prior to the change in rate of tax but payment is received after the change in rate of tax, the time of supply shall be the date of issue of invoice; or

Q 1. What is time of supply?

Ans. The time of supply fixes the point when the liability to charge GST arises. It also indicates when a supply is deemed to have been made. The CGST/SGST Act provides separate time of supply for goods and services.

Ans. There is a residual entry in Section 12(5) as well as 13 (5) which says that if periodical return has to be filed, then the due date of filing of such periodical return shall be the time of supply. In other cases, it will be the date on which the CGST/SGST/IGST is actually paid.

Determination of Value :

Value of taxable supply = Transaction Value + Certain Inclusions – Certain Exclusions

Particulars	Amount	Amount
The price actually paid or payable for the said supply of goods or services or both		xxx
Add: Inclusions as per sec. 15(2)	xxx
Any taxes, duties, cesses, fees and charges levied under any law (excluding GST), if charged separately by the supplier Taxpoint : TCS under the Income-tax Act shall not be considered as it is an interim levy and not the final tax.
Any amount that the supplier is liable to pay in relation to such supply but which has been incurred by the recipient of the supply and not included in the price actually paid or payable for the goods or services or both.	xxx
Incidental expenses, including commission and packing, charged by the supplier to the recipient of a supply and any amount charged for anything done by the supplier in respect of the supply of goods or services or both at the time of, or before delivery of goods or supply of services.	xxx

Interest or late fee or penalty for delayed payment of any consideration for any supply	xxx

Taxpoint : The amount of subsidy shall be included in the value of supply of the supplier who receives the subsidy.
		xxx
Less: Exclusions as per sec. 15(3)
Any discount which is given:		xxx
a. before or at the time of the supply if such discount has been duly recorded in the invoice issued in respect of such supply; and

i. such discount is established in terms of an agreement entered into at or before the time of such supply and specifically linked to relevant invoices; and
ii. input tax credit as is attributable to the discount on the basis of document issued by the supplier has been reversed by the recipient of the supply
Value of Taxable Supply		xxx

Taxpoint : No GST on interest free refundable deposits received by the supplier

Example 21 :

- If the value inclusive of tax is ₹ 100/- and applicable GST tax rate is 18% then Tax amount = $(100 \times 18) / (100 + 18) = 1800 / 118 = ₹ 15.25$
- Mr. X is selling a product for ₹ 1,000 to Mr. B. In this example value of supply will be consideration charged i.e. ₹ 1,000 provided Mr. X and Mr. B are not related and price is the sole consideration.
- The supplier supplies goods worth ₹ 5,00,000 to the recipient. Against this supply, ₹ 3,00,000 is paid by the recipient directly and balance ₹ 2,00,000 is paid by the recipient's debtor. Both the payments will be included in the price for the purpose of valuation under GST.
- Mr. A is sold goods to Mr. B for ₹ 20,000. Mr. A is charging packing charges of ₹ 1,000. Mr. A is also paying freight of ₹ 3,000 from Mr. A's premises to Mr. B's premises. In this case, taxable value shall be ₹ 24,000 i.e., taxable value shall include packing charges and freight.
- A cafeteria in X Ltd (a corporate office) provides lunch at ₹ 120 per plate to the employees of the company. However, the vendor in the cafeteria receives an amount of ₹ 70 per plate in the form of subsidy from X Ltd for providing the food at a lower rate. Here, value of ₹ 70 will be added to the taxable value of ₹ 120 for the purpose of charging GST. Had this subsidy been provided by the Government to the company against mid-day meals, such amount of ₹ 70 would not have been includible in the taxable value.
- Mr. X enters into a contract for supply of goods worth ₹ 2,00,000 on 15th March 2022. As per the said contract, the payment of the said amount was required to be made within 2 months of the sale. If the complete payment is not made within this time period, a late penalty of ₹ 10,000 will be chargeable. Let us assume that the payment is not made within the said period. In this situation, ₹ 10,000 will be includible in the taxable value. If GST is not separately charged on this interest amount then, ₹ 10,000 shall be treated as inclusive of GST and accordingly value shall be computed.

7. M/s Nanda Bakery sells a special type of fruit cake for New Year with MRP ₹ 200/- per pound. The customer being offered a discount @ 10% per cake. In the month of Dec. 2022, M/s Nanda Bakery sold 600 nos cakes to that customer. In this case, value of supply would be ₹ 1,08,000/- i.e., 90% of (₹ 200 x 600)
8. Mr. Ram sold goods to Mr. Lakshman for ₹ 2,50,000. As per the contract of sale, Mr. Ram is required to deliver the goods in the premises of Mr. Lakshman. Mr. Ram hires transporter for transportation for delivery of goods. However, the freight paid by Mr. Lakshman to transporter. Freight paid ₹ 2,500. In this case, value of taxable supply is ₹ 2,52,500 as obligation of the seller is discharged by the buyer.

Example 22 :

RG Pvt. Ltd. provides the following particulars relating to goods sold by it to GK Pvt. Ltd.:

Particulars	Amount in (₹)

RG Pvt. Ltd. received ₹ 40,000 as a subsidy from a NGO on sale of such goods. The price of ₹ 10,00,000 of the goods is after considering such subsidy. RG Ltd. offers 2% discount on the list price of the goods which is recorded in the invoice for the goods.

Determine the value of the taxable supply made by RG Pvt. Ltd.

Solution:

Value of taxable supply		11,40,000

Clarification on issues related to treatment of sales promotion schemes under GST [Circular No. 92/11/2019 dated 07.03.2019]

Discounts including ‘Buy more, save more’ offers :

- a. Sometimes, the supplier offers staggered discount to his customers (increase in discount rate with increase in purchase volume). For example - Get 10 % discount for purchases above ₹ 5,000/-, 20% discount for purchases above ₹ 10,000/- and 30% discount for purchases above ₹ 20,000/-. Such discounts are shown on the invoice itself.

- b. Some suppliers also offer periodic / year ending discounts to their stockists, etc. For example - Get additional discount of 1% if you purchase 10000 pieces in a year, get additional discount of 2% if you purchase 15000 pieces in a year. Such discounts are established in terms of an agreement entered into at or before the time of supply though not shown on the invoice as the actual quantum of such discounts gets determined after the supply has been effected and generally at the year end. In commercial parlance, such discounts are colloquially referred to as “volume discounts”. Such discounts are passed on by the supplier through credit notes.
- c. It is clarified that discounts offered by the suppliers to customers (including staggered discount under “Buy more, save more” scheme and post supply / volume discounts established before or at the time of supply) shall be excluded to determine the value of supply provided they satisfy the parameters laid down in sec. 15(3), including the reversal of ITC by the recipient of the supply as is attributable to the discount on the basis of document (s) issued by the supplier.
- d. It is further clarified that the supplier shall be entitled to avail the ITC for such inputs, input services and capital goods used in relation to the supply of goods or services or both on such discounts.

Secondary Discounts :

- i. These are the discounts which are not known at the time of supply or are offered after the supply is already over. For example, M/s A supplies 10000 packets of biscuits to M/s B at ₹ 10/- per packet. Afterwards M/s A re-values it at ₹ 9/- per packet. Subsequently, M/s A issues credit note to M/s B for ₹ 1/- per packet.
- ii. The provisions of sec. 34(1) provides as under:

“Where one or more tax invoices have been issued for supply of any goods or services or both and the taxable value or tax charged in that tax invoice is found to exceed the taxable value or tax payable in respect of such supply, or where the goods supplied are returned by the recipient, or where goods or services or both supplied are found to be deficient, the registered person, who has supplied such goods or services or both, may issue to the recipient one or more credit notes for supplies made in a financial year containing such particulars as may be prescribed.”
- iii. Representations have been received from the trade and industry that whether credit notes(s) u/s 34(1) can be issued in such cases even if the conditions laid down in sec. 15(3)(b) are not satisfied. It is hereby clarified that financial / commercial credit note(s) can be issued by the supplier even if the conditions mentioned in sec. 15(3)(b) are not satisfied. In other words, credit note(s) can be issued as a commercial transaction between the two contracting parties.
- iv. It is further clarified that such secondary discounts shall not be excluded while determining the value of supply as such discounts are not known at the time of supply and the conditions laid down in sec. 15(3)(b) are not satisfied.
- v. In other words, value of supply shall not include any discount by way of issuance of credit note(s) as explained above or by any other means, except in cases where the provisions contained in sec. 15(3)(b) are satisfied.
- vi. There is no impact on availability or otherwise of ITC in the hands of supplier in this case

Value of supply of goods or services where the consideration is not wholly in money [Rule 27]

Where the supply of goods or services is for a consideration not wholly in money, the value of the supply shall:

Case	Value of supply
a. Where the open market value of the supply is available.	Open market value Taxpoint : “Open market value” of a supply of goods or services or both means the full value in money, excluding the integrated tax, central tax, State tax, Union territory tax and the cess payable by a person in a transaction, where the supplier and the recipient of the supply are not related and price is the sole consideration, to obtain such supply at the same time when the supply being valued is made.
b. Where the open market value of the supply is not available.	The sum total of consideration in money + any such further amount in money as is equivalent to the consideration not in money, if such amount is known at the time of supply.
c. Where the value is not determined under (a) or (b) above	The value of supply of goods or services or both of like kind and quality Taxpoint : “Supply of goods or services or both of like kind and quality” means any other supply of goods or services or both made under similar circumstances that, in respect of the characteristics, quality, quantity, functional components, materials, and reputation of the goods or services or both first mentioned, is the same as, or closely or substantially resembles, that supply of goods or services or both.
d. Where the value is not determinable under (a) or (b) or (c),	The sum total of consideration in money and such further amount in money that is equivalent to consideration not in money as determined by the application of rule 30 or rule 31 in that order.

Example 23 :

- ◉ Where a new phone is supplied for ₹ 20,000 along with the exchange of an old phone and if the price of the new phone without exchange is ₹ 24,000, the open market value of the new phone is ₹ 24,000.
- ◉ Where a laptop is supplied for ₹ 40,000 along with the barter of a printer that is manufactured by the recipient and the value of the printer known at the time of supply is ₹ 4,000 but the open market value of the laptop is not known, the value of the supply of the laptop is ₹ 44,000.
- ◉ Jaya purchases a Samsung television set costing ₹ 85,000 from an electronic shop, in exchange of her existing TV set. After an hour of bargaining, the shop manager agrees to accept ₹ 78,000 instead of his quote of ₹ 81,000, as he would still be in a profitable position (the old TV can be sold for ₹ 8,000). In this case, where the price is not the sole consideration for the supply, the ‘open market value’ would be the value of the supply. Therefore, ₹ 85,000 would be the value of the supply.

Value of taxable supply – other cases [Sec. 15(3)]

Where the value of the supply of goods or services or both cannot be determined u/s 15(1), the same shall be determined in such manner as may be prescribed.

Where the open market value of the supply is not available and
Where the goods are not intended for further supply as such by the recipient.	The value of supply of goods or services or both of like kind and quality.

Example 25:

- b. The price as notified by official gazette: ₹ 600.

Compute value of supply

Further, how shall your answer differ if the price mentioned in (b) is ₹ 1,050 instead of ₹ 600

Solution:

Particulars	When notified price is ₹ 600	When notified price is ₹ 1,050
100/128 of face value of ticket i.e., ₹ 1,000 x 100 / 128	781.25	781.25
100/128 of notified price i.e.,
- ₹ 600 x 100 / 128	468.75

The value of supply of services in relation to the purchase or sale of foreign currency, including money changing, shall be determined by the supplier of services in the following manner, namely :

Option 1
Where one of the currency exchanged is INR
Value of supply =	(Difference between buying rate or the selling rate and RBI reference rate for that currency at that time) x Total units of currency
	However, where the RBI reference rate for a currency is not available, the value shall be 1% of the gross amount of Indian Rupees provided or received by the person changing the money
	Example 26:
	1. US$ 100 are sold by a customer at the rate of ₹ 78 per US$. RBI reference rate for US$ is Rs.77 for that day. The taxable value shall be ₹ 100 i.e., (₹ 78 – ₹ 77) x 100
	2. INR 90,000 is changed into Great Britain Pound (GBP) and the exchange rate offered is ₹ 90, thereby giving GBP 1,000. RBI reference rate for that day for GBP is ₹ 89. The taxable value shall be ₹ 1,000. However, if RBI reference rate is not available then, taxable value is ₹ 900 i.e., 1% of ₹ 90,000.
Where none of the currency exchanged is INR
Value of supply =	1% of the lesser of the two amounts the person changing the money would have received by converting any of the two currencies into Indian Rupee on that day at RBI reference rate.

Option 2
Value of supply =	Amount Exchanged	Value of supply
	Gross amount of currency exchanged up to ₹ 1,00,000	a. 1% of the gross amount of currency exchanged; or b. ₹ 250 - whichever is higher
	Gross amount of currency exchanged exceeds ₹ 1,00,000 but does not exceed ₹ 10,00,000/-	₹ 1,000 + 0.5% of the gross amount of currency exchanged in excess of ₹ 1,00,000.
	Gross amount of currency exchanged exceeds ₹ 10,00,000	a. ₹ 5,500 + 0.1% of the gross amount of currency exchanged in excess of ₹ 10,00,000 b. ₹ 60,000 - whichever is lower
Example 27 : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> USD 100 is sold to a customer at the rate ₹ 65 per USD. The gross amount of currency exchanged is ₹ 6,500/- Taxable value of supply = ₹ 250 being higher of ₹ 250 and 1% of ₹ 6,500/- USD 1000 is sold to a customer at the rate ₹ 65 per USD. The gross amount of currency exchanged is ₹ 65,000/- Taxable value of supply = ₹ 650 i.e., [₹ 65,000 x 1%] USD 3000 is sold to a customer at the rate ₹ 65 per USD. The gross amount of currency exchanged is ₹ 1,95,000/- Taxable value of supply = ₹ 1,000 + [(1,95,000 - 1,00,000) x 0.5%] = ₹ 1,475/- USD 20000 is sold to a customer at the rate ₹ 65 per USD. The gross amount of currency exchanged is ₹ 13,00,000/- Taxable value of supply = ₹ 5,500 + [(13,00,000 - 10,00,000) x 0.1%] = ₹ 5,800/- Taxpoint : A person supplying the services may exercise the option to ascertain the value in terms of this clause for a financial year and such option shall not be withdrawn during the remaining part of that financial year.

Taxpoint : “Basic fare” means that part of the air fare on which commission is normally paid to the air travel agent by the airlines.

Example 28 :

Value of supply in buying and selling of second hand goods [Rule 32(5)]

Where a taxable supply is provided by a person dealing in buying and selling

- of second hand goods i.e., used goods as such or after such minor processing which does not change the nature of the goods; and
- where no input tax credit has been availed on the purchase of such goods, then,

the value of supply shall be the difference between the selling price and the purchase price and where the value of such supply is negative, it shall be ignored:

Taxpoint : The purchase value of goods repossessed from a defaulting borrower, who is not registered, for the purpose of recovery of a loan or debt shall be deemed to be the purchase price of such goods by the defaulting borrower reduced by 5% for every quarter or part thereof, between the date of purchase and the date of disposal by the person making such repossession.

Example 30 :

M/s Hariharan is dealer of old car and engaged in purchase and sale of old cars in Bihar, furnishes the details of following transactions for the month of August 2022.

1. Purchased old car for ₹ 80,000/- and sold for ₹ 1,20,000/- in Bihar
2. Purchased old car for ₹ 75,000/- and sold for ₹ 65,000/- in Bihar
3. Purchased old car for ₹ 90,000/- but unable to sell during the month of August' 22
4. Purchased old car for ₹ 1,00,000/- and sold for ₹ 1,30,000/- in Orissa

Determine the value of taxable supply

Solution:

Computation of taxable value of supply :

Sl. No.	Particulars		Profit
	Purchase	Sale
1.	80,000	1,20,000	40,000
2.	75,000	65,000	Note (i)
3.	90,000	-	Note (ii)
4.	1,00,000	1,30,000	30,000
Taxable value of supply			70,000

Notes :

- (i) As per Rule 32(5), no GST is payable in negative margin
- (ii) No GST is payable on unsold goods
- (iii) In case of sale of car in Orissa, IGST is applicable.

Example 31 :

Mr. X took a car loan of ₹ 3,00,000 from ABC Bank Ltd. on 1st September 2022 which was entirely used for the purchase of car worth the same amount. Mr. X defaults on the loan balance and thereby his car is repossessed by the bank on 1st Jan. 2023. This car is sold on 30th March 2023 by the bank for ₹ 2,50,000. Determine the valuation under GST.

How shall your answer differ if the car is sold for ₹ 2,70,000/-

Solution:

The purchase value to be taken will be the purchase price in the hands of the borrower – 5% per quarter or part thereof (September – March) i.e., $3,00,000 - (5\% \times 3 \times 300,000) = ₹ 2,55,000$.

As the sale value of the car is below ₹ 2,55,000, the margin will be ignored for the charging of GST.

In the alternate solution, ₹ 15,000 i.e., ₹ 2,70,000 – ₹ 2,55,000, shall be treated as taxable value of supply.

Value of a token, or a voucher, or a coupon, or a stamp (other than postage stamp) which is redeemable against a supply of goods or services or both [Rule 32(6)]

The value of a token, or a voucher, or a coupon, or a stamp (other than postage stamp) which is redeemable against a supply of goods or services or both shall be equal to the money value of the goods or services or both redeemable against such token, voucher, coupon, or stamp.

Example 32 : Mr. X had purchased a voucher for ₹ 200 which was redeemable against purchase of a wallet worth ₹ 500 from Shopping Stop. Here, the valuation that should be taken is the redemption value of ₹ 500 in respect of the voucher and not the purchase value of ₹ 200.

Value of taxable services provided by notified class of service providers [Rule 32(7)]

The value of taxable services provided by notified class of service providers, as referred to in paragraph 2 of Schedule I between distinct persons as referred to in section 25, where input tax credit is available, shall be deemed to be NIL.

Value of supply of services in case of pure agent [Rule 33]

Notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions of this Chapter, the expenditure or costs incurred by a supplier as a pure agent of the recipient of supply shall be excluded from the value of supply, if all the following conditions are satisfied:

- a. the supplier acts as a pure agent of the recipient of the supply, when he makes the payment to the third party on authorisation by such recipient;
- b. the payment made by the pure agent on behalf of the recipient of supply has been separately indicated in the invoice issued by the pure agent to the recipient of service; and
- c. the supplies procured by the pure agent from the third party as a pure agent of the recipient of supply are in addition to the services he supplies on his own account.

Taxpoint :

“Pure agent” means a person who-

- a. enters into a contractual agreement with the recipient of supply to act as his pure agent to incur expenditure or costs in the course of supply of goods or services or both;
- b. neither intends to hold nor holds any title to the goods or services or both so procured or supplied as pure agent of the recipient of supply;
- c. does not use for his own interest such goods or services so procured; and
- d. receives only the actual amount incurred to procure such goods or services in addition to the amount received for supply he provides on his own account.

Example 33 :

Corporate services firm A is engaged to handle the legal work pertaining to the incorporation of Company B. Other than its service fees, A also recovers from B, registration fee and approval fee for the name of the company paid to the Registrar of Companies. The fees charged by the Registrar of Companies for the registration and approval of the name are compulsorily levied on B. A is merely acting as a pure agent in the payment of those fees. Therefore, A's recovery of such expenses is a disbursement and not part of the value of supply made by A to B.

Rate of exchange of currency, other than Indian rupees, for determination of value [Rule 34]

1. The rate of exchange for determination of value of taxable goods shall be the applicable rate of exchange as notified by the Board u/s 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 for the date of time of supply of such goods in terms of sec. 12 of the Act.
2. The rate of exchange for determination of value of taxable services shall be the applicable rate of exchange determined as per the generally accepted accounting principles for the date of time of supply of such services in terms of sec. 13 of the Act.

(i)	Municipal taxes chargeable on the machine	55,000
(ii)	Outward freight charges (Contract was to deliver machine at A Ltd.'s factory i.e. F.O.R. contract)	75,000

- b. S Ltd. received ₹ 50,000 as subsidy, from one non-government organization (NGO) on sale of such machine. This subsidy was not linked to the price of machine and also not considered in list price of ₹ 8,50,000.
- c. A Ltd. deducted discount of ₹ 15,000 at the time of final payment, which was not as per agreement.
- d. S Ltd. collected ₹ 8,500 as TCS (tax collected at source) under the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Compute the value of taxable supply as per the provision of GST laws, considering that the price is the sole consideration for the supply and both parties are unrelated to each other.

Solution:

Computation of taxable value of supply :

Particulars	₹
List Price (exclusive of tax and discount)	8,50,000
Municipal taxes chargeable on the machine [Only GST is required to be excluded]	55,000
Outward freight charges (Contract was to deliver machine at A Ltd.'s factory i.e. F.O.R. contract)	75,000

Discount [as it is post supply discount]	-
TCS [as it is an interim levy not having the characteristics of tax]	-

FAQ by CBIC on 15-12-2018

Q 1. What is the value of taxable supply to be adopted for the levy of GST?

Ans. The value of taxable supply of goods and services shall ordinarily be ‘the transaction value’ which is the price paid or payable, when the parties are not related and price is the sole consideration. Sec. 15 of the CGST/SGST Act further elaborates various inclusions and exclusions from the ambit of transaction value. For example, the transaction value shall not include refundable deposit, discount allowed subject to certain conditions before or at the time of supply.

Q 2. What is transaction value?

Ans. Transaction value refers to the price actually paid or payable for the supply of goods and or services where the supplier and the recipient are not related and price is the sole consideration for the supply. It includes any amount which the supplier is liable to pay but which has been incurred by the recipient of the supply.

Q 3. Are there separate valuation provisions for CGST, SGST and IGST and for Goods and Services?

Ans. No, section 15 is common for all three taxes and also common for goods and services.

Q 4. Is contract price not sufficient to determine valuation of supply?

Ans. Contract price is more specifically referred to as ‘transaction value’ and that is the basis for computing tax. However, when the price is influenced by factors like relationship of parties or where certain transactions are deemed to be supply, which do not have a price, the value has to be determined in accordance with the GST Valuation Rules.

Q 5. Is reference to GST Valuation Rules required in all cases?

Ans. No. Reference to GST Valuation Rules is required only in cases where value cannot be determined u/s 15(1).

Q 6. Can the transaction value declared under section 15(1) be accepted?

Ans. Yes, if all the conditions specified therein have been fulfilled.

Q 7. Whether post-supply discounts or incentives are to be included in the transaction value?

Ans. Yes. However, where the post-supply discount is established as per the agreement which is known at or before the time of supply and where such discount specifically linked to the relevant invoice and the recipient has reversed input tax credit attributable to such discount, the discount is allowed as admissible deduction u/s 15 of the CGST Act.

Q 8. Whether pre-supply discounts allowed before or at the time of supply are includible in the transaction value?

Ans. No, provided it is allowed in the course of normal trade practice and has been duly recorded in the invoice.

Q 9. When are the provisions of the Valuation Rules applicable?

Ans. Valuation Rules are applicable when (i) consideration either wholly or in part not in money terms; (ii) parties are related or supply by any specified category of supplier; and (iii) transaction value declared is not reliable.

Q 10. When will open market value become relevant under GST? [FAQ No. 18]

Ans. Open market value will be relevant in cases where consideration for the supply is not wholly in money. The open market value will be particularly relevant in cases where supply is between related persons, or between distinct persons (entities having same PAN but different GSTIN) and between principal and agent.

Q 11. What is a del-credere agent? [FAQ No. 28]

Ans. A del-credere agent is a selling agent who is engaged by a principal to assist in supply of goods or services by contacting potential buyers on behalf of the principal. The factor that differentiates a DCA from other agents is that the DCA guarantees the payment to the supplier.

In such scenarios where the buyer fails to make payment to the principal by the due date, DCA makes the payment to the principal on behalf of the buyer (effectively providing an insurance against default by the buyer), and for this reason the commission paid to the DCA may be relatively higher than that paid to a normal agent. In order to guarantee timely payment to the supplier, the DCA can resort to various methods including extending short-term transaction-based loans to the buyer or paying the supplier himself and recovering the amount from the buyer with some interest at a later date.

Input Tax Credit

Uninterrupted and seamless chain of input tax credit (hereinafter referred to as, “ITC”) is one of the key features of Goods and Services Tax. ITC is a mechanism to avoid cascading of taxes. Cascading of taxes, in simple language, is ‘tax on tax’. Under the earlier system of taxation, credit of taxes being levied by Central Government is not available as set-off for payment of taxes levied by State Governments, and vice versa. One of the most important features of the GST system is that the entire supply chain would be subject to GST to be levied by Central and State Government concurrently. As the tax charged by the Central or the State Governments would be part of the same tax regime, the credit of tax paid at every stage would be available as set-off for payment of tax at every subsequent stage.

 - b. Goods or services or both are supplied to him are used or intended to be used in the course or furtherance of his business
 - c. He satisfies prescribed conditions
 - d. He claims for ITC in the manner prescribed u/s 49

Conditions to be satisfied [Sec. 16(2)]

No registered person shall be entitled to the credit of any input tax in respect of any supply of goods or services or both to him unless :

(a)	he is in possession of a tax invoice or debit note issued by a supplier registered under this Act, or such other tax paying documents as may be prescribed;
(aa)	the details of the invoice or debit note referred to in clause (a) has been furnished by the supplier in the statement of outward supplies [i.e., GSTR 1] and such details have been communicated to the recipient of such invoice or debit note in the manner specified u/s 37;
(b)	he has received the goods or services or both
Taxpoint : Goods received in installment: Where the goods against an invoice are received in lots or instalments, the registered person shall be entitled to take credit upon receipt of the last lot or instalment.

Example 34 :

A consignment of coal is to be dispatched from Kolkata to Mumbai using 5 trucks. An invoice was issued to the recipient on March 30, 2022. Four trucks reached the claimant by March 30, 2022 but the truck carrying the final lot of the consignment reached the recipient only on April 2, 2022. In this case, input tax credit for the entire consignment can be availed only in the month of April 2022.

Such cases are termed as bill to ship to cases wherein the supplier sends the invoice to the buyer and the goods to the recipient on the direction of the buyer. Even though the goods are not received by the buyer, it is presumed that he has received the goods and he is able to take the input tax credit. The buyer may further issue his invoice to the actual recipient of goods. Thus, it is a tripartite arrangement wherein there are usually three parties and two transactions.

Example 35 :

H Traders, a dealer in furniture, located in Maharashtra, receives an order from R Traders, also located in Maharashtra. The order is for the supply of 50 tables, with an instruction to ship the tables to P Hardwares, located in Kolkata. P Hardwares is a customer of R Traders. There are two parts to this transaction:

- First part of the transaction – between H Traders and R Traders:

H Traders is the supplier of tables, and R Traders is the buyer. Accordingly, H Traders bills the transaction to R Traders, and as per the instruction, ships the goods to P Hardwares in Kolkata. ITC is available to the R Traders though goods were not received by it.

- The second part of the transaction – between R Traders and P Hardwares:

R Traders is the supplier, and P Hardwares is the buyer. R Traders bills the transaction to P Hardwares.

(c)	subject to the provisions of sec. 41, the tax charged in respect of such supply has been actually paid to the Government, either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - in cash or - through utilisation of input tax credit admissible in respect of the said supply Example 36 : Mr. Vikram acquired a laptop of ₹ 1,00,000 + GST @ 18% [i.e., 9% CGST and 9% SGST] for his professional use from X Ltd. ITC of ₹ 9,000 each in CGST and SGST is not available to Vikram if X Ltd fails to pay GST to the Government. (d)	he has furnished the return u/s 39 [GSTR 3B]

Taxpoint :

- ⊙ No ITC if depreciation is claimed: Where the registered person has claimed depreciation on the tax component of the cost of capital goods and plant and machinery under the Income tax Act, 1961, the input tax credit on the said tax component shall not be allowed.

Example 37 :

However, the aforesaid time limit is not applicable in case of re-availment of the ITC, which had been reversed due to non-payment to the supplier within 180 days from the date of issue of the invoice.

Clarification on issues related to treatment of sales promotion schemes under GST [Circular No. 92/11/2019 dated 07.03.2019]

Buy one get one free offer

- i. Sometimes, companies announce offers like ‘Buy One, Get One free’ For example, “buy one soap and get one soap free” or “Get one tooth brush free along with the purchase of tooth paste”. As per sec. 7(1)(a), the goods or services which are supplied free of cost (without any consideration) shall not be treated as ‘supply’ under GST (except in case of activities mentioned in Schedule I). It may appear at first glance that in case of offers like ‘Buy One, Get One Free’, one item is being ‘supplied free of cost’ without any consideration. In fact, it is not an individual supply of free goods but a case of two or more individual supplies where a single price is being charged for the entire supply. It can at best be treated as supplying two goods for the price of one.
- ii. It is also clarified that ITC shall be available to the supplier for the inputs, input services and capital goods used in relation to supply of goods or services or both as part of such offers

Discounts including ‘Buy more, save more’ offers

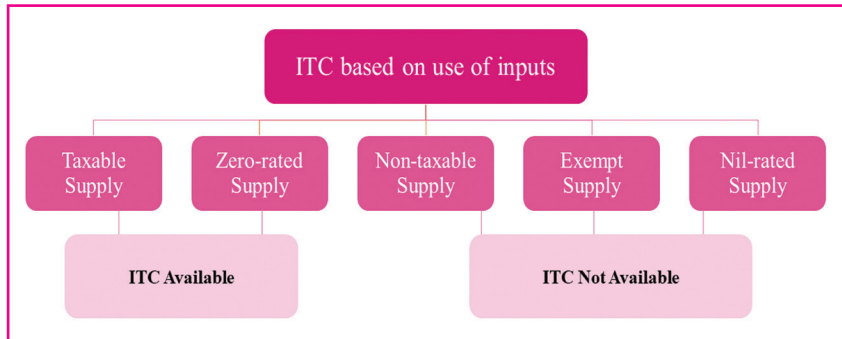

- a. Sometimes, the supplier offers staggered discount to his customers (increase in discount rate with increase in purchase volume). For example - Get 10 % discount for purchases above ₹ 5,000/-, 20% discount for purchases above ₹ 10,000/- and 30% discount for purchases above ₹ 20,000/-. Such discounts are shown on the invoice itself.
- b. Some suppliers also offer periodic / year ending discounts to their stockists, etc. For example - Get additional discount of 1% if you purchase 10000 pieces in a year, get additional discount of 2% if you purchase 15000 pieces in a year. Such discounts are established in terms of an agreement entered into at or before the time of supply though not shown on the invoice as the actual quantum of such discounts gets determined after the supply has been effected and generally at the year end. In commercial parlance, such discounts are colloquially referred to as “volume discounts”. Such discounts are passed on by the supplier through credit notes.
- c. It is clarified that discounts offered by the suppliers to customers (including staggered discount under “Buy more, save more” scheme and post supply / volume discounts established before or at the time of supply) shall be excluded to determine the value of supply provided they satisfy the parameters laid down in sec.

15(3), including the reversal of ITC by the recipient of the supply as is attributable to the discount on the basis of document (s) issued by the supplier.

- d. It is further clarified that the supplier shall be entitled to avail the ITC for such inputs, input services and capital goods used in relation to the supply of goods or services or both on such discounts.

Apportionment of Credit [Sec. 17(1) / (2) / (3)]

Goods or services are used partly for business purpose and partly for other purpose: Where the goods or services or both are used by the registered person partly for the purpose of any business and partly for other purposes, the amount of credit shall be restricted to so much of the input tax as is attributable to the purposes of his business.
2. Goods or services are used partly for effecting taxable supply and partly for effecting exempted supply: Where the goods or services or both are used by the registered person partly for effecting taxable supplies (including zero-rated supplies) and partly for effecting exempt supplies, the amount of credit shall be restricted to so much of the input tax as is attributable to the said taxable supplies (including zero-rated supplies).

Input Service Distributor

Input Service Distributor (ISD) means an office of the supplier of goods or services or both which receives tax invoices towards receipt of input services and issues a prescribed document for the purposes of distributing the credit of central tax (CGST), State tax (SGST)/ Union territory tax (UTGST) or integrated tax (IGST) paid on the said services to a supplier of taxable goods or services or both having same PAN as that of the ISD.

It is important to note that the ISD mechanism is meant only for distributing the credit on common invoices pertaining to input services only and not goods (inputs or capital goods). Companies may have their head office at one place and units at other places which may be registered separately. The Head Office would be procuring certain services which would be for common utilization of all units across the country. The bills for such expenses would be raised on the Head Office. But the Head Office itself would not be providing any output supply so as to utilize the credit which gets accumulated on account of such input services.

Since the common expenditure is meant for the business of all units, it is but natural that the credit of input services in respect of such common invoices should be apportioned between all the consuming units. ISD mechanism enables such proportionate distribution of credit of input services amongst all the consuming units.

Let's take an example to understand this concept. The corporate office of ABC Ltd., is at Bangalore, with its business locations of selling and servicing of goods at Bangalore, Chennai, Mumbai and Kolkata. Software license and maintenance is used at all the locations, but invoice for these services (indicating CGST and SGST) are received at Corporate Office. Since the software is used at all the four locations, the input tax credit of entire services cannot be claimed at Bangalore. The same has to be distributed to all the four locations. For that reason, the Bangalore Corporate office has to act as ISD to distribute the credit. If the corporate office of ABC Ltd, an ISD situated in Bangalore receives invoices indicating ₹ 4 lakh of Central tax, ₹ 4 lakhs of State tax and ₹ 7 lakh of integrated tax, it can distribute central tax, State tax as well as integrated tax of ₹ 15 lakh as credit of integrated tax amongst its locations at Bangalore, Chennai, Mumbai and Kolkata through an ISD invoice containing the amount of credit distributed.

The credit has to be distributed only to the unit to which the supply is directly attributable to. If input services are attributable to more than one recipient of credit, the distribution shall be in the pro-rata basis of turnover in the State/Union Territory.

For example, if an ISD has 4 units across the country. However, if a particular input service pertains exclusively to only one unit and the bill is raised in the name of ISD, the ISD can distribute the credit only to that unit and not to other units. If the input services are common for all units, then it will be distributed according to the ratio of turnover of all the units.

Manner of distribution of credit by Input Service Distributor [Sec. 20]

- ◉ The Input Service Distributor shall distribute the credit of central tax as central tax or integrated tax and integrated tax as integrated tax or central tax, by way of issue of a document containing the amount of input tax credit being distributed in such manner as may be prescribed.
- ◉ The Input Service Distributor may distribute the credit subject to the following conditions:
 - the credit can be distributed to the recipients of credit against a document containing such details as may be prescribed;
 - the amount of the credit distributed shall not exceed the amount of credit available for distribution;
 - the credit of tax paid on input services attributable to a recipient of credit shall be distributed only to that recipient;
 - the credit of tax paid on input services attributable to more than one recipient of credit shall be distributed amongst such recipients to whom the input service is attributable and such distribution shall be pro rata on the basis of the turnover in a State or turnover in a Union territory of such recipient, during the relevant period, to the aggregate of the turnover of all such recipients to whom such input service is attributable and which are operational in the current year, during the said relevant period;
 - the credit of tax paid on input services attributable to all recipients of credit shall be distributed amongst such recipients and such distribution shall be pro rata on the basis of the turnover in a State or turnover in a Union territory of such recipient, during the relevant period, to the aggregate of the turnover of all recipients and which are operational in the current year, during the said relevant period.

For the purposes of this section,-

- ◉ The “relevant period” shall be:
 - i. if the recipients of credit have turnover in their States or Union territories in the financial year preceding the year during which credit is to be distributed, the said financial year; or

- ii. if some or all recipients of the credit do not have any turnover in their States or Union territories in the financial year preceding the year during which the credit is to be distributed, the last quarter for which details of such turnover of all the recipients are available, previous to the month during which credit is to be distributed;
- The expression “recipient of credit” means the supplier of goods or services or both having the same Permanent Account Number as that of the Input Service Distributor;
- The term “turnover”, in relation to any registered person engaged in the supply of taxable goods as well as goods not taxable under this Act, means the value of turnover, reduced by the amount of any duty or tax levied under entries 84 and 92A of List I of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution and entries 51 and 54 of List II of the said Schedule.

Example 44 :

SGST	100	50 (a) 50 (c)	0	0	50 (c)	50

From the above Illustration, we can conclude that Option – 1 does not result in any cash flow issue. On the contrary, In Option 2 the registered person pays the SGST liability in cash and accumulates the ITC under the head CGST. This is because the registered person had not carried out the adjustment as per rule 88A i.e., ITC left after setting off the IGST liability can be utilized in any order.

- b. Details of GST paid on inward supplies are available in GSTR-2B except for item (i) i.e. Raw Material A, for which supplier has not filed its GSTR-1 for the month of January 2023, hence corresponding input tax credit (ITC) is not reflecting in GSTR-2B of Kunal Ltd. in January, 2023.

Compute the following :

- a. Amount of eligible input tax credit (ITC) available for the month of January, 2023.
 b. Minimum net GST payable in cash, for the month of January, 2023 after using available input tax credit.

Solution:

Computation of eligible ITC :

GST payable in cash	35,000	35,000	15,30,000

Registration

In any tax system registration is the most fundamental requirement for identification of tax payers ensuring tax compliance in the economy. Registration of any business entity under the GST Law implies obtaining a unique number from the concerned tax authorities for the purpose of collecting tax on behalf of the government and to avail Input tax credit for the taxes on his inward supplies. Without registration, a person can neither collect tax from his customers nor claim any input tax credit of tax paid by him.

Need and advantages of registration

Registration will confer the following advantages to a taxpayer:

- He is legally recognized as supplier of goods or services.
- He is legally authorized to collect tax from his customers and pass on the credit of the taxes paid on the goods or services supplied to the purchasers / recipients.
- He can claim input tax credit of taxes paid and can utilize the same for payment of taxes due on supply of goods or services.
- Seamless flow of Input Tax Credit from suppliers to recipients at the national level.

Nature of Registration

The registration in GST is PAN based and State / UT specific. Supplier has to register in each of such State or Union territory from where he effects supply. In GST registration, the supplier is allotted a 15-digit GST identification number called “GSTIN” and a certificate of registration incorporating therein this GSTIN is made available to the applicant on the GSTN common portal.

- First 2 digits of the GSTIN is the State code,
- Next 10 digits are the PAN of the legal entity,
- Next 2 digits are for entity code, and
- Last digit is checksum number.

Example of GSTIN: 19AAICM1234K1Z2 or 06AAICM1234K1ZT

19	AAICM1234K	1	Z	2
State Code	Income tax PAN	Entity number of the same PAN holder in the state	By default	Checksum digit

Registration under GST is not tax specific which means that there is single registration for all the taxes i.e. CGST, SGST/UTGST, IGST and cesses.

Generally, a given PAN based legal entity would have one GSTIN per State, that means a business entity having its branches in multiple States will have to take separate State wise registration for the branches in different States. But within a State an entity with different branches would have single registration wherein it can declare one place as principal place of business and other branches as additional place of business. A supplier is not liable to obtain registration in those State from where he makes an exempt or non-taxable supply.

Ratul Pvt. Ltd. of West Bengal exclusively manufactures and sells product 'R' which is exempt from GST vide notifications issued under relevant GST legislations. The company sells 'R' only within West Bengal and is not registered under GST laws. The turnover of the company in the previous year 2021-22 was ₹ 50 lakh. The company expects the sales to grow by 10% in the current year 2022-23.

However, effective 01.01.2023, exemption available on 'R' was withdrawn by the Central Government and GST @ 5% was imposed thereon. The turnover of the company for the nine months ended on 31.12.2022 was ₹ 42 lakh.

Ratul Pvt. Ltd. is of the opinion that it is not required to get registered under GST for current financial year 2022-23. Advise it.

Solution:

When a supplier exclusively engaged in intra-State supply of goods, the threshold limit of turnover to obtain registration in the State of West Bengal is ₹ 40 lakh. However, a person exclusively engaged in the business of supplying goods and/or services that are not liable to tax or are wholly exempt from tax is not liable to registration [however, voluntary registration is allowed].

However, w.e.f. 01.01.2023, the supply of goods become taxable and the turnover of the company is more than ₹ 40 lakh. It is to be noted that for the purpose of computing threshold limit, exempt supply shall also be considered. Since the aggregate turnover limit of ₹ 40 lakh includes exempt turnover also, turnover of 'R' till 31.12.2022 will be considered for determining the threshold limit even though the same was exempt from GST. Therefore, the company needs to register within 30 days from 01.01.2023.

Illustration 39 :

Explain the registration requirements under GST law in the following independent cases:

- Mr. Khan of West Bengal engaged in the business of supplying tobacco based Pan Masala with an aggregate turnover of ₹ 24 lacs.
- Mr. Tipati of Mizoram is engaged in the supply of papers with an aggregate turnover of ₹ 13 lacs.

Will your answer be different if Mr. Tipati is located in Meghalaya?

Solution:

- In case of supply of pan masala, tobacco and manufactured tobacco substitutes, etc., the threshold limit for registration is ₹ 20 lakhs (i.e., the enhanced limit of ₹ 40 lakhs is not applicable). Hence, he is liable for registration mandatorily
- In case of Mizoram, the threshold limit for registration is ₹ 10 lakhs, hence he is liable for registration.

However, if he is located in the State of Meghalaya where the threshold limit for registration is ₹ 20 lakhs, hence he is not liable for registration

Illustration 40 :

Determine the effective date of registration in the following instances :

- The aggregate turnover of M Ltd., engaged in taxable supply of services in the state of Karnataka, exceeded ₹20 lakh on 25th August, 2022. It applies for registration on 15th September, 2022 and is granted registration certificate on 30th September, 2022.

- b. What will be your answer, if in the above scenario, M Ltd. submits the application for registration on 28th September, 2022 and is granted registration on 6th October, 2022?

Solution:

Where the application for registration is submitted within the 30 days from the date of becoming liable for registration, the effective date of registration is the date on which the person becomes liable to registration; otherwise it is the date of grant of registration.

- a. In this case, application for registration has been made within 30 days as mentioned above, hence effective date of registration shall be 25-08-2022
- b. In this case, application for registration has not been made within 30 days as mentioned above, hence effective date of registration shall be 06-10-2022

Illustration 41 :

Mr. Vishnu, who has started a business for supply of goods and services in Tamil Nadu, furnishes the following information pertaining to the period commencing on 01-04-2021 and ended on 31-03-2022 :

Sl. No.	Particulars	₹
(i)	Sale of diesel on which Sale Tax (VAT) is levied by Tamil Nadu Government	7,00,000
(ii)	Supply of goods, after completion of job work, from the place of Mr. Vishnu, directly by his principal under whom he is registered as job worker	4,20,000
(iii)	Export supply to Dubai	6,00,000
(iv)	Supply to its own additional place of business in Tamil Nadu, under same registration	5,00,000
(v)	Supply of goods exempt from GST	8,20,000

You are required to help him in deciding whether he has to go for registration under CGST law.

Solution:

Computation of aggregate turnover for CGST registration :

Sl. No.	Particulars	₹
(i)	Sale of diesel on which Sale Tax (VAT) is levied by Tamil Nadu Government (As per sec. 2(47), non-taxable supply of goods like diesel, to be also included	7,00,000
(ii)	Supply of goods, after completion of job work, from the place of Vishnu, directly by his principal (This will be treated as the supply of goods by the principal in terms of explanation (ii) to sec. 22)	Nil
(iii)	Export supply to Dubai (Specifically includible in the aggregate turnover in terms of sec. 2(6))	6,00,000
(iv)	Supply to its own additional place of business in Tamil Nadu (Supply made without consideration to units within the same State (under same registration) is a not a supply and hence not includible in aggregate turnover)	Nil
(v)	Supply of goods exempt from GST (As per sec. 2(47), supply of exempt goods shall also be included)	8,20,000
	Aggregate turnover for CGST registration purposes	21,20,000

Since the aggregate turnover exceeds Rs.20 lakh, Vishnu has to get himself registered. He should be advised accordingly.

Note: as Mr. Vishnu makes export supply, he is a person making interstate taxable supply and is liable for compulsory registration u/s 24, irrespective of whether his turnover exceeds the threshold limit of ₹ 20 lakhs or not

Tax Invoice – Electronic Way Bill

5.7

Generally speaking, an invoice is a commercial instrument issued by a seller to a buyer. It identifies both the trading parties and lists, describes, and quantifies the items sold, shows the date of shipment and mode of transport, prices and discounts, if any, and delivery and payment terms. In certain cases, (especially when it is signed by the seller or seller's agent), an invoice serves as a demand for payment and becomes a document of title when paid in full. An invoice does not bring into existence an agreement but merely records the terms of a pre-existing agreement (oral or written). An invoice can be understood as a document that is meant to serve a particular purpose.

Under GST a tax invoice is an important document.

- It not only evidences supply of goods or services, but is also an essential document for the recipient to avail Input Tax Credit (ITC). A registered person cannot avail input tax credit unless he is in possession of a tax invoice or a debit note.
- GST is chargeable at the time of supply. Invoice is an important indicator of the time of supply. Broadly speaking, the time of supply of goods or services is the date of issuance of invoice or receipt of payment whichever is earlier. However, a special procedure for payment of tax has been prescribed for registered persons (other than composition dealers) supplying goods. Such category of persons (suppliers of goods other than composition dealers) need to pay GST only at the time of issue of invoice irrespective of when they receive payment.

Suffice it to say, the tax invoice is the primary document evidencing the supply and vital for availing input tax credit.

The GST Law requires that an invoice – tax invoice or bill of supply – is issued on the occurrence of certain event, being a supply, within the prescribed timelines. Therefore, an invoice, among other documents is required to be issued for every form of supply such as sale, transfer, barter, exchange, license, rental, lease or disposal. This chapter provides an understanding of the various documents required to be issued under the GST law, timelines to issue such document and the contents of every such document. It is to be noted that GST Law does not prescribe any specific format of invoice but mandates that certain field or information should be incorporated in the invoice.

As per sec. 68, the person in charge of a conveyance carrying any consignment of goods of value exceeding such amount as may be specified to carry with him such documents and such devices as may be prescribed.

Where such conveyance is intercepted by the proper officer at any place, he may require the person in charge of the said conveyance to produce the documents prescribed and devices for verification, and the said person shall be liable to produce the documents and devices and also allow the inspection of goods.

Rules 138 to 138E of the CGST Rules lay down, in detail, the provisions relating to e-way bills.

E-way bill (Form GST EWB-01) is an electronic document (available to consignor (i.e. supplier) / consignee (i.e. recipient) / transporter) generated on the common portal evidencing movement of goods of consignment value more than ₹ 50,000/-.

It has two Components –

- (i) Part A comprising of details of GSTIN of supplier and - recipient, place of despatch (indicated by PIN code), place of delivery (indicating PIN Code also), document (Tax invoice, Bill of Supply, Delivery Challan or Bill of Entry) number and date, value of goods, HSN code, and reasons for transportation; and
- (ii) Part B –comprising of transport details - transport document number (Goods Receipt Number or Railway Receipt Number or Airway Bill Number or Bill of Lading Number) and Vehicle number for road.

A waybill is a receipt or a document issued by a carrier giving details and instructions relating to the shipment of a consignment of goods and the details include name of consignor, consignee, the point of origin of the consignment, its destination, and route. Electronic Way Bill (E-Way Bill) is basically a compliance mechanism wherein by way of a digital interface the person causing the movement of goods uploads the relevant information prior to the commencement of movement of goods and generates e-way bill on the GST portal. Rule 138 of the CGST Rules, 2017 provides for the e-way bill mechanism and in this context it is important to note that “information is to be furnished prior to the commencement of movement of goods” and “is to be issued whether the movement is in relation to a supply or for reasons other than supply”.

Benefits of e-way bill

Following benefits are expected from e-way bill mechanism

- a. Physical interface to pave way for digital interface resulting in elimination of state boundary check-posts.
- b. It will facilitate faster movement of goods.
- c. It will improve the turnaround time of trucks and help the logistics industry by increasing the average distances travelled, reducing the travel time as well as costs.
- d. The consignor needs to give details of consignee also. This would ensure more transparency among all stakeholders of the system.

When should e-way Bill be generated?

e-Way bill will be generated when there is a movement of goods in a vehicle / conveyance of value more than ₹ 50,000 (either each Invoice or in aggregate of all invoices in a vehicle / conveyance) :

- In relation to a ‘supply’
- For reasons other than a ‘supply’ (say a return)
- Due to inward ‘supply’ from an unregistered person

For this purpose, a supply may be either of the following :

- a. A supply made for a consideration (payment) in the course of business
- b. A supply made for a consideration (payment) which may not be in the course of business
- c. A supply without consideration (without payment)

In simpler terms, the term ‘supply’ usually means

- Sale – sale of goods and payment made
- Transfer – branch transfers for instance
- Barter/Exchange – where the payment is by goods instead of in money

Therefore, e-way bills must be generated on the common portal for all these types of movements. For following goods, the e-way bill needs to be generated mandatorily even if the value of the consignment of Goods is less than ₹ 50,000 :

- a. Inter-State movement of goods by the Principal to the Job-worker by Principal / registered job-worker
- b. Inter-State transport of Handicraft goods by a dealer exempted from GST registration

Who should Generate an e-way Bill?

Returns and Payment of Taxes

5.8

The basic features of the return mechanism in GST includes electronic filing of returns, uploading of invoice level information, auto-population of information relating to input tax credit from returns of supplier to that of recipient, invoice level information matching and auto-reversal of input tax credit in case of mismatch. The returns mechanism is designed to assist the taxpayer to file returns and avail ITC.

A return is required to be filed for the following purposes :

- a. Mode for transfer of information to tax administration;
- b. Compliance verification program of tax administration;
- c. Finalization of the tax liabilities of the taxpayer within stipulated period of limitation; to declare tax liability for a given period;
- d. Providing necessary inputs for taking policy decision;
- e. Management of audit and anti-evasion programs of tax administration.

Under GST, a regular taxpayer needs to furnish monthly returns and one annual return. There are separate returns for a taxpayer registered under the composition scheme, non-resident taxpayer, taxpayer registered as an Input Service Distributor, a person liable to deduct or collect the tax (TDS/TCS), a person granted Unique Identification Number. It is important to note that a taxpayer is not required to file all the types of returns. In fact, taxpayers are required to file returns depending on the activities they undertake. The GST Council has however recommended to ease the compliance requirements for small tax payers by allowing taxpayers to file details of outward supplies in Form GSTR-1 on a quarterly basis. All the returns are to be filed online. Returns can be filed using any of the following methods :

1. GSTN portal (www.gst.gov.in)
2. Offline utilities provided by GSTN
3. GST Suvidha Providers (GSPs).

5.8.13 Quarterly Return, Monthly Payment of Taxes (QRMP) Scheme

Quarterly Return, Monthly Payment of Taxes (QRMP) Scheme is a scheme to simplify compliance for small taxpayers. Under this scheme, taxpayers having an aggregate turnover at PAN level up to ₹ 5 crore in the preceding financial year can opt for quarterly GSTR-1 (however, for first two months he can file IFF by 13th of the next month) and GSTR-3B filing. Payment can be made in the first 2 months by a simple challan in Form GST PMT-06. For the ease of taxpayers, system has assigned quarterly frequency to small taxpayers automatically.

Taxpoint :

- ⦿ In case the aggregate turnover exceeds ₹ 5 crores during any quarter in the current financial year, the registered person shall not be eligible for the Scheme from the next quarter.
- ⦿ The option to avail the QRMP Scheme is GSTIN wise. Therefore, some GSTINs for a PAN might be eligible for the QRMP Scheme, and the remaining GSTINs might not be able to opt for the Scheme.

Eligibility of QRMP Scheme

In Case of New Registration :

A newly registered taxpayer whose aggregate turnover is up to ₹ 5 crores can opt for the QRMP scheme based on the following conditions :

- ⦿ If the registration is granted on any date during the first month of a quarter, the registered person will be able to opt for the QRMP scheme from the beginning itself.
- ⦿ If the registration is granted on any of the dates during the latter two months of a quarter, then the registered person will be able to opt for the QRMP scheme only from the next quarter onwards.

In Case of Other :

A registered person can opt-in for any quarter from the first day of the second month of the preceding quarter to the last day of the first month of the quarter. However, there is no requirement to opt for the Scheme each quarter separately. Once the Scheme is exercised, it would be valid for future tax periods also.

Details of Outward Supply to be furnished through Invoice Furnishing Facility (IFF)

- ⦿ The registered persons opting for the Scheme would be required to furnish the details of an outward supply in Form GSTR-1 every quarter. However, the supplier has been given an option to furnish the details monthly. For this, the Invoice furnishing facility ('IFF'), which is optional in nature, has been introduced for furnishing the details of invoices of supply made to registered persons for the first two months of the quarter.
- ⦿ It is to be noted that the taxpayer can upload a maximum of ₹ 50 lakhs invoices in each of the two months of the quarter. The invoices may be uploaded at once or continuously in IFF from the 1st day of the month till the 13th day of the succeeding month.
- ⦿ The details uploaded in the IFF shall be duly reflected in the Form GSTR-2A and Form GSTR-2B of the concerned recipient.

Quarterly Filing of Form GSTR-3B

The registered persons opting for the QRMP Scheme would be required to furnish Form GSTR-3B, for each quarter, on or before the 22nd or 24th day of the month succeeding such a quarter for the category 1 States and the category 2 States respectively or such notified date. Any excess payment may either be claimed as a refund after filing Form GSTR-3B of that quarter or may be used for any other purpose in subsequent quarters.

Monthly Payment of Tax

The registered person under the QRMP Scheme would be required to pay the tax due in each of the first 2 months of the quarter by depositing the due amount in Form GST PMT-06. The amount shall be deposited by the 25th day of next month.

The amount deposited by the registered person in the first two months shall be utilized for offsetting the liability furnished in that quarter's Form GSTR-3B.

Discharge of liability in first two months of the quarter

In first two months of the quarter, payment of liability can be made by either of the following two methods :

- a. Fixed Sum Method: Portal will generate a pre-filled challan in Form GST PMT-06. The system generated pre-filled challan in this case is commonly also known as 35% challan.
- b. Self-Assessment Method: The actual tax due is to be paid through challan, in Form GST PMT-06, by considering the tax liability on inward and outward supplies and the input tax credit available for the period as per law.

FAQ by CBIC on 15-12-2018

Q 1. What type of outward supply details are to be filed in the return? [FAQ 3]

Ans. A normal registered taxpayer has to file the outward supply details in GSTR-1 in relation to various types of supplies made in a month, namely outward supplies to registered persons, outward supplies to unregistered persons (consumers), details of Credit/Debit Notes, zero rated, exempted and non-GST supplies, exports, and advances received in relation to future supply.

Q 2. Is the scanned copy of invoices to be uploaded along with GSTR-1? [FAQ 5]

Ans. No scanned copy of invoices is to be uploaded. Only certain prescribed fields of information from invoices need to be uploaded.

Q 3. Whether all invoices have to be uploaded in the returns? [FAQ 6]

Ans. No. It depends on whether the invoice is B2B or B2C plus whether Intra-state or Inter-state supplies.

For B2B supplies, all invoices, whether Intra-state or Inter- state supplies, will have to be uploaded. Why So? Because ITC will be taken by the recipients.

In B2C supplies, uploading in general may not be required as the buyer will not be taking ITC. However still in order to implement the destination based principle, invoices of value more than Rs.2.5 lacs in inter-state B2C supplies will have to be uploaded. For inter-state invoices below Rs. 2.5 lacs and all intra-state invoices, state wise summary will be sufficient.

Q 4. Whether description of each item in the invoice will have to be uploaded? [FAQ 7]

Ans. No. In fact, description will not have to be uploaded. Only HSN code in respect of supply of goods and classification code in respect of supply of services will have to be fed. The minimum number of digits that the filer will have to upload would depend on his turnover in the previous year.

Q 5. Whether value for each transaction has to be fed in GSTR-1? What if no consideration? [FAQ 8]

Ans. Yes. Not only value but taxable value has to be fed. In some cases, both may be different.

In case there is no consideration, but it is supply by virtue of schedule 1, the taxable value will have to be worked out as prescribed and uploaded.

Q 6. What is the consequence of not filing the return within the prescribed date? [FAQ 15]

Ans. A registered person who files return beyond the prescribed date will have to pay late fees of rupees one hundred for every day of delay subject to a maximum of rupees five thousand.

Q 7. What is GSTR-3B? [FAQ 17]

Ans. GSTR-3B is a simplified monthly return that all taxpayers need to file on monthly basis. It is a summarized return form which every taxpayer is required to file on self-declaration basis. The same needs to be filed by 20th day of subsequent month.

Q 8. Is there any late fees for late filing of GSTR-3B? [FAQ 18]

Ans. The amount of late fee payable by a taxpayer whose tax liability for that month was 'NIL' will be ₹ 20/- per day (₹ 10/- per day each under CGST & SGST Acts) and will be ₹ 50/- per day (₹ 25/- per day each under CGST & SGST Acts) for all other taxpayers.

Q 9. What is final return? What is the need for it? [FAQ 23]

Ans. Every registered person whose registration is cancelled needs to file a final return in GSTR-10 within 3 months of the date of cancellation or date of order of cancellation, whichever is later. The purpose of the final return is to ensure that the taxpayer discharges any liability that he/she may have incurred u/s 29(5) of the CGST Act.

As per sec. 29(5) of the CGST Act, read with rule 20 of the CGST Rules a taxpayer seeking cancellation of registration has to pay, by way of debiting either the electronic credit or cash ledger, the input tax contained in the stock of inputs, semi-finished goods, finished goods and capital goods or the output tax payable on such goods, whichever is higher. This requirement to debit the electronic credit and/or cash ledger by suitable amounts should not be a prerequisite for applying for cancellation of registration. This can also be done at the time of submission of final return in Form GSTR-10.

The cancellation of registration does not, in any way, affect the liability of the taxpayer to pay any dues under the GST law, irrespective of whether such dues have been determined before or after the date of cancellation (Section 45 read with rule 81)

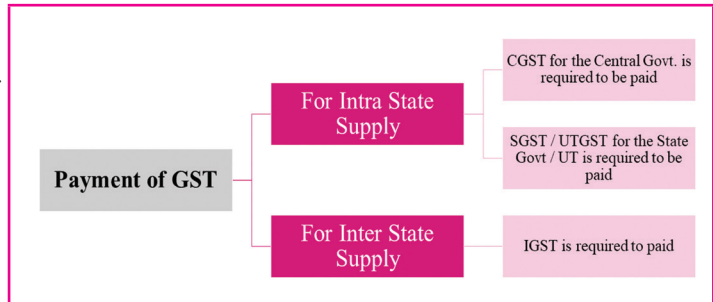

Q 10. What if the final return is not filed within 90 days of cancellation of registration? [FAQ 24]

Ans. In case the final return in FORM GSTR-10 is not filed within the stipulated date, then notice in Form GSTR-3A has to be issued to the taxpayer. If the taxpayer still fails to file the final return within 15 days of the receipt of notice in Form GSTR-3A, then an assessment order (Best Judgment Basis) in Form GST ASMT-13 u/s 62 of the CGST Act read with rule 100 of the CGST Rules shall have to be issued to determine the liability of the taxpayer u/s 29(5) on the basis of information available with the proper officer

If the taxpayer files the final return within 30 days of the date of service of the order in Form GST ASMT-13, then the said order shall be deemed to have been withdrawn. However, the liability for payment of interest and late fee shall continue.

Payment of Tax

In the GST regime, for any intra-state supply, taxes to be paid are the Central GST (CGST), going into the account of the Central Government) and the State/UT GST (SGST, going into the account of the concerned State Government). For any inter-state supply, tax to be paid is Integrated GST (IGST) which will have components of both CGST and SGST.

In addition, certain categories of registered persons will be required to pay to the government account Tax Deducted at Source (TDS) and Tax Collected at Source (TCS). Further, Interest, Penalty, Fees and any other payment will also be required to be made.

Person liable to pay

Following persons are liable to pay GST to the Government:

- ◉ The supplier of goods or services is liable to pay GST.
- ◉ In specified cases like imports and other notified supplies, the liability may be cast on the recipient under the reverse charge mechanism.
- ◉ In some notified cases of intra-state supply of services, the liability to pay GST may be cast on e-commerce operators through which such services are supplied.
- ◉ Government Departments making payments to vendors above a specified limit [₹ 2.5 lakh under one contract as per sec. 51(1)(d)] are required to deduct tax (TDS) and
- ◉ E-commerce operators are required to collect tax (TCS) on the net value [i.e. aggregate value of taxable supplies of goods and/or services but excluding such value of services on which the operator is made liable to pay GST u/s 9(5)] of supplies made through them and deposit it with the Government.

When does liability arise?

Liability to pay arises at the time of supply of Goods as explained in sec. 12 and at the time of supply of services as explained in sec. 13.

The time is generally the earliest of one of the three events, namely receiving payment, issuance of invoice or completion of supply. Different situations envisaged and different tax points have been explained in the aforesaid sections.

e-Ledger and Register

On the common portal (i.e. gst.gov.in) each registered taxpayer has:

- one electronic register called the Electronic liability register; and
- two electronic ledgers namely Electronic Cash Ledger and Electronic Credit Ledger.

These register and ledgers reflect the liability of the taxpayer and the cash and input tax credit balance available to settle such liability. This is a handy tool provided in the GST system wherein the registered taxpayer can have information about his liabilities, cash and credits at a single location which can be viewed by him from any place by simply logging into the common portal. In case of any discrepancy in his electronic liability ledger, electronic cash ledger or electronic credit ledger the registered person has to communicate the same to the jurisdictional officer, through the common portal in FORM GST PMT-04.

Taxpoint : Each ledger or register have separate sub ledgers for:

- (a) CGST (b) SGST (c) UTGST (d) IGST (e) Cess

Electronic cash ledger

Every deposit made by a person by internet banking or by using credit or debit cards or National Electronic Fund Transfer (NEFT) or Real Time Gross Settlement (RTGS) or by over the counter deposit on account of tax, interest, penalty, fee or any other amount is credited to the respective electronic cash ledger. The amount available in the electronic cash ledger may be used for making any payment towards tax, interest, penalty, fees or any other amount payable.

The electronic cash ledger is maintained in Form GST PMT-05 for each registered person, liable to pay tax, interest, penalty, late fee or any other amount, on the common portal for crediting the amount deposited and debiting the payment therefrom towards tax, interest, penalty, fee or any other amount. The payment required to be made by an unregistered person, can be made on the basis of a temporary identification number generated through the common portal.

A challan³¹ in Form GST PMT-06 can be generated on the common portal in which the details of the amount to be deposited towards tax, interest, penalty, fees or any other amount is to be entered. This challan is valid for a period of 15 days.

The deposit can be made through any of the following modes, namely :

- a Internet Banking through authorised banks;
- b Credit card or Debit card through the authorised bank;
- c NEFT or RTGS from any bank; or
- d Over the Counter payment through authorised banks for deposits up to ₹ 10,000/- per challan per tax period, by cash, cheque or demand draft.

When the payment is made by way of NEFT or RTGS mode from any bank, the mandate form is generated along with the challan on the common portal and the same has to be submitted to the bank from where the payment is to be made. The mandate form remains valid for a period of 15 days from the date of generation of challan.

On successful credit of the amount to the concerned government account maintained in the authorised bank, a Challan Identification Number (CIN) is generated by the collecting bank and the same is indicated in the challan. On receipt of the CIN from the collecting bank, the said amount gets credited to the electronic cash ledger of the registered person on whose behalf the deposit has been made and the common portal makes available a receipt to this effect.

In case the bank account is debited but CIN has not been generated or generated but not communicated to the common portal, then the said person has to represent electronically in Form GST PMT-07 through the common portal to the bank or electronic gateway through which the deposit was initiated.

³¹ There is a single challan prescribed for all tax, fees, penalty, interest and other payments to be made under GST. Further, manual challan is not allowed. It is mandatory to generate challan on GST portal

The amount deducted u/s 51 or collected u/s 52, as the case may be shall be credited to the electronic cash ledger of the registered person from whom the said amount was deducted or, as the case may be, collected.

The amount available in the electronic cash ledger may be used for making any payment towards tax, interest, penalty, fees or any other amount payable under the provisions of CGST/SGST/UTGST/ IGST Act(s).

Refund from cash ledger can only be claimed only when all the return related liabilities for that tax period have been discharged. A registered person, claiming refund of any balance in the electronic cash ledger can claim such refund u/s 54.

Electronic credit ledger

The electronic credit ledger is maintained in Form GST PMT-02 for each registered person on the common portal and every claim of input tax credit is to be credited to this ledger. The input tax credit as self-assessed in the return by a registered person is credited to his electronic credit ledger. The only way the electronic credit ledger can be credited is through filing of returns. The amount available in the electronic credit ledger can be used for making any payment towards output tax (only tax) under the CGST/SGTS/UTGST/IGST/Cess Acts.

In case a registered person has claimed refund of any unutilized amount from the electronic credit ledger in accordance with the provisions of sec. 54, the amount to the extent of the claim is debited in the said ledger.

If there's any discrepancy in electronic liability ledger, electronic cash ledger or electronic credit ledger, the registered person can communicate the same to the officer exercising jurisdiction in the matter, through the common portal in Form GST PMT-04.

If the refund so filed is rejected, either fully or partly, the amount debited to the extent of rejection, is re-credited to the electronic credit ledger by the proper officer by an order made in Form GST PMT-03.

FAQ by CBIC on 15-12-2018

Q 1. What happens if the taxable person files the return but does not make payment of tax? [FAQ 8]

Ans. In such cases, the return is not considered as a valid return. Sec. 2(117) defines a valid return to mean a return furnished u/s 39(1) on which self-assessed tax has been paid in full. It is only the valid return that would be used for allowing input tax credit (ITC) to the recipient. In other words, unless the supplier has paid the entire self-assessed tax and filed his return and the recipient has filed his return, the ITC of the recipient would not be confirmed.

Q 7. What is the linkage between GSTN and the authorized Banks? [FAQ 14]

Ans. There will be real time two-way linkage between the GSTN and the Core Banking Solution (CBS) of the Bank. CPIN is automatically routed to the Bank via electronic string for verification and receiving payment and a challan identification number (CIN) is automatically sent by the Bank to the Common Portal confirming payment receipt. No manual intervention will be involved in the process by any one including bank cashier or teller or the tax payer.

Q 8. Can a tax payer generate challan in multiple sittings? [FAQ 15]

Ans. Yes, a taxpayer can partially fill in the challan form and temporarily “save” the challan for completion at a later stage. A saved challan can be “edited” before finalization. After the tax payer has finalized the challan, he will generate the challan, for use of payment of taxes. The remitter will have option of printing the challan for his record.

Q 9. Can a challan generated online be modified? [FAQ 16]

Ans. No. After logging into GSTN portal for generation of challan, payment particulars have to be fed in by the tax payer or his authorized person. He can save the challan midway for future updation. However once the challan is finalized and CPIN generated, no further changes can be made to it by the taxpayer.

Q 10. Is there a validity period of challan? [FAQ 17]

Ans. CPIN stands for Common Portal Identification Number (CPIN) given at the time of generation of challan. It is a 14-digit unique number to identify the challan. As stated above, the CPIN remains valid for a period of 15 days.

Q 12. What is a CIN and what is its relevance? [FAQ 19]

CIN is generated by the authorized banks/ Reserve Bank of India (RBI) when payment is actually received by such authorized banks or RBI and credited in the relevant government account held with them. It is an indication that the payment has been realized and credited to the appropriate government account. CIN is communicated by the authorized bank to taxpayer as well as to GSTN.

Q 13. What is the sequence of payment of tax where that taxpayer has liabilities for previous months also? [FAQ 20]

Ans. Sec. 49(8) prescribes an order of payment where the taxpayer has tax liability beyond the current return period. Total 38 accounts (one each for CGST, IGST and one each for SGST for each State/UT Govt.) will have to be opened. Any amount received by such E-FPB towards GST will be credited to the appropriate account held by such E-FPB.

For NEFT/RTGS Transactions, RBI will act as E-FPB.

Q 16. Is the pre-registration of credit card necessary in the GSTN portal for the GST payment? [FAQ 28]

Ans. Yes. The taxpayer would be required to pre-register his credit card, from which the tax payment is intended, with the Common Portal maintained on GSTN. GSTN may also attempt to put in a system with banks in getting the credit card verified by taking a confirmation from the credit card service provider. The payments using credit cards can therefore be allowed without any monetary limit to facilitate ease of doing business.

Customs, as a major source of revenue, plays a very important role in the economy of our country.

The terms ‘customs’ derives its colour and essence from the term ‘custom’, which means a habitual practice or course of action that characteristically repeated in like circumstances. The collection of revenue through Customs is known in India, from the time immemorial. Laws for collection of revenue and punishments for violation thereof are indicated as early as in Kautilya’s “Arthashastra”. The modern system of taxation is, however, a British legacy. It was in England, during the days of King John, in the 13th Century, the ‘customary dues’ that were till then collected by local sheriffs and chieftains as protection money for the police service rendered to foreign traders came to be collected as revenue to the state . The other major forms of revenue viz. the Excise and Income Tax came to be conceived much later during the 17th Century.

In India, the “Customs” in the modern form was introduced soon after the consolidation of British rule. The trade in this country was then mainly by sea and with England and other European countries and an enactment known as Sea Customs Act, 1878, was brought forth for collection of revenue and control on the movement of goods. This was followed about 50 years later by an act known as Land Customs Act, 1924, to cover the goods coming by land routes. The Indian Aircraft Act, 1934, covered the export/import by air, which, by then, had made a beginning. The laws then, had however been designed with an eye to protect the British interests only, but independent India allowed these statutes to continue in force, till 1963, when the Customs Act, 1962, repealing all the earlier enactment was passed.

Customs Act – Basic Concepts and Definitions

Entry No. 83 of the List I to the Schedule VII of the Constitution empowers the Union Government to legislate and collect duties on imports and exports. Accordingly, the Customs Act, 1962, effective from 1-2-1963 provides vide its section 12 for the levy of duties on goods imported into or exported from India. The items and the rates of duties leviable thereon are specified in two Schedules to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975. The First Schedule specifies the various import items in systematic and well considered categories, in accordance with an international scheme of classification of internationally traded goods known as ‘Harmonized System of Commodity Classification’ and specifies the rates of import duties thereon, as prescribed by the legislature. The duties on imported items are usually levied either on specific or ad-valorem basis, but in few cases specific-cum-ad valorem duties are also levied. The Second Schedule incorporates items that are subject to exports duties and the rates of duties thereof.

Levy of duties on ad-valorem (i.e., with reference to value) basis is the predominant mode of levy. For this purpose the value of the imported goods is required to be determined as per provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with the Customs Valuation (Determination of Prices of Imported Goods) Rules, 2007. These provisions are essentially the adoption of GATT based valuation system (now termed WTO Valuation Agreement) that is followed internationally. Likewise, in respect of export of the goods, the value is to be determined as per provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007.

6.1.5 Customs Duty not leviable in certain cases

In following cases, duty is not leviable or leviable at reduced amount:

No Duty on pilfered goods [Sec. 13]

Conditions :

- Imported goods are pilfered

- The pilfered goods are not re-stored

Treatment :

The importer shall not be liable to pay the duty leviable on such pilfered goods⁴.

Taxpoint :

- ⦿ Pilfer means to steal something, typically of small value or in small quantities; petty theft. It does not mean total destruction or complete loss.
- ⦿ If such goods are re-stored to the importer after pilferage, the importer becomes liable to pay duty.
- ⦿ The principle governed this provision is that “when the goods are not in the control of the importer; he is not liable to pay duty thereon”.
- ⦿ Sec. 13 does not deal in the situation
 - a. where goods are lost or destroyed.
 - b. Where goods are pilfered before unloading thereof
 - c. Where goods are pilfered after the order for clearance for home consumption or deposit in a warehouse, sec. 13 is not applicable.

Treatment :

The duty to be charged on the goods shall bear the same proportion to the duty chargeable on the goods before the damage or deterioration, which the value of the damaged or deteriorated goods bears to the value before the damage or deterioration.

Mathematically,

$$\text{Duty on damaged goods} = \frac{\text{Value of damage / deteriorated goods} * \text{Duty on goods before damage}}{\text{Value of goods before damage / deterioration}}$$

Note :

The value of damaged or deteriorated goods may be ascertained by either of the following methods at the option of the owner -

⁴ in case any imported goods which are pilfered while in custody, the custodian is required to pay duty on such goods.

- “Deterioration” denotes reduction in the quality of goods due to natural cause.

Example 1:

- The remission of duty is permissible only when there is total loss or loss is forever and beyond recovery. E.g., imported goods is destroyed before clearance for home consumption destroyed due to fire in the warehouse.
- In case of pilferage, sec. 13 is applicable.

Distinction between sec. 13 and sec. 23(1)

In Hindustan Petroleum Corporation –vs.– CC 1984 (18) ELT 358 (Tri Mumbai), following essential difference between the situations contemplated u/s 13 & 23(1) are stated:

Point of difference	Pilferage of goods u/s 13	Loss or destruction of goods u/s 23(1)
Meaning	Pilferage denotes stealing in small quantities i.e., petty theft	Lost or destruction denotes total loss or loss is forever and beyond recovery
Duty liability	The importer is not made liable to pay the duty on pilfered imported goods. However, if goods are restored, importer is liable to pay the duty.	The duty paid on the goods shall be remitted to the importer.
Time of occurrence	The imported goods must have been pilfered after the unloading, but before the proper officer has made an order for clearance for home consumption	Imported goods have been lost or destroyed at any time before physical clearance of the goods for home consumption
Warehoused goods	Sec. 13 is not applicable where goods are pilfered after warehousing	The provision is applicable on warehoused goods also

Point of difference	Pilferage of goods u/s 13	Loss or destruction of goods u/s 23(1)
Burden to prove	No such burden is cast on the importer u/s 13	U/s 23(1) the burden is cast on the importer to satisfy the Assistant / Deputy Commissioner that imported goods have been lost or destroyed at any time before physical clearance of the goods for home consumption

Remission of duty on relinquishment of title to the goods [Sec. 23(2)]

The owner of any imported goods may, before an order for clearance of the goods for home consumption or an order for permitting the deposit of goods in a warehouse, relinquish his title to the goods and thereupon he shall not be liable to pay the duty thereon.

Taxpoint

- Relinquish literally means ‘to withdraw from’ or ‘to abandon’ or ‘to give up any thing or any right’ or ‘to cease to hold’ or ‘to surrender’ or ‘to give over the possession or control of, to leave off’.
- Such relinquishment should be unconditional
- It is open to the importer to exercise the above option at any time before the passing of the order for clearance for home consumption or before order permitting the deposit of goods in a warehouse.
- However, the owner of any such imported goods shall not be allowed to relinquish his title to such goods regarding which an offence appears to have been committed under this Act or any other law.
- Few situations where importer is unwilling or unable to take delivery of imported goods:
 - a. The imported goods are not according to the specifications
 - b. The goods is so damaged during voyage and as such may not be useful to the importer
 - c. There may be breach of contract

6.1.6 Power to make rules for denaturing or mutilation of goods [Sec. 24]

The Central Government may make rules for permitting at the request of the owner the denaturing or mutilation of imported goods which are ordinarily used for more than one purpose so as to render them unfit for one or more of such purposes; and where any goods are so denatured or mutilated they shall be chargeable to duty at such rate as would be applicable if the goods had been imported in the denatured or mutilated form.

6.1.7 Exemption from Customs Duty

Power to grant exemption from duty [Sec. 25]

If the Central Government is satisfied that it is necessary in the public interest so to do -

- a. It may by notification in the Official Gazette exempt generally (either absolutely or subject to certain conditions), goods of any specified description from the whole (or any part) of duty.
- b. It may by special order exempt from the payment of duty under circumstances of an exceptional nature (being stated in such order) any goods on which duty is leviable.

Notes

- a. An exemption from duty in respect of any goods may be granted by providing for the levy of the duty at a rate expressed in a form or method different from the form or method in which duty is leviable. Such duty shall in no case exceed the original duty.

Form or method means the basis, namely, valuation, weight, number, length, area, volume or other measure with reference to which the duty is leviable.

- b. Duty shall not be collected where the amount of duty leviable does not exceed ₹ 100.

6.1.8 Classification of imported / export goods

Import and export of goods are required to be assessed to duty which may include an assessment of nil duty. For this purpose, it is necessary to determine the classification of the goods, which basically means the categorization of the goods in a specific heading or sub-heading of the Schedules to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975.

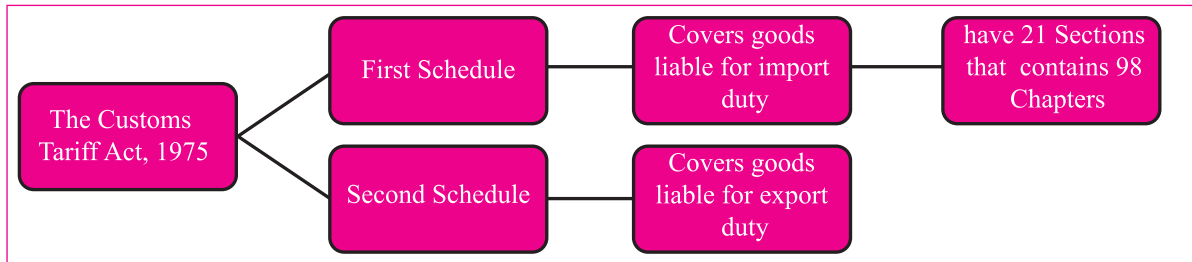

Why Classification

Following is the importance of correct classification:

- i. For determining rate of duty;
- ii. For determining the eligibility of exemption notification, which are with reference to the tariff heading or sub headings. Wrong classification would either cause loss of revenue to the Central Government or impose unjustifiable loss to assessee.
- iii. For applicability of other duties on goods like anti-dumping duty, safeguard duty, etc.
- iv. For applicability of any restriction and control on import or export of goods

Scheme of Classification

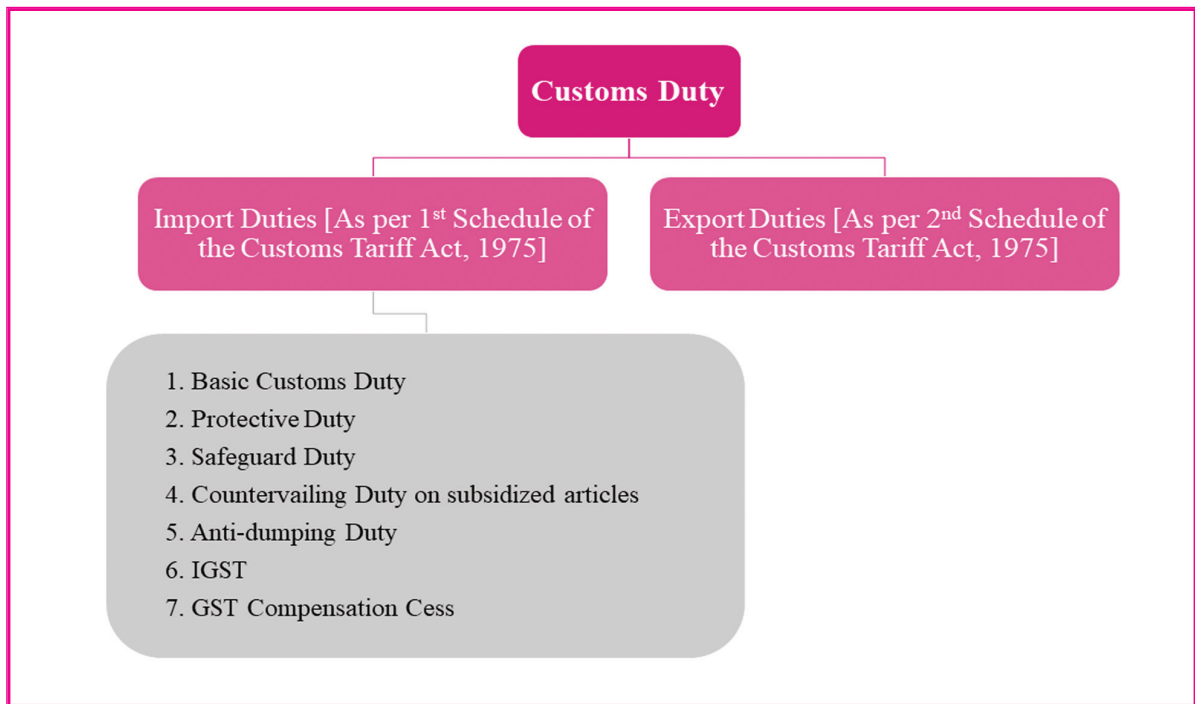

In the Tariff Schedule, commodities/products are arranged in a fixed pattern with the duty rates specified against each of them. It contains 2 Schedules:

- ⦿ First Schedule: The First Schedule contains description of goods chargeable to import duty. It specifies the nomenclature that is based on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System generally referred to as “Harmonized System of Nomenclature” or simply “HSN”, developed by the World Customs Organization (WCO) which is applied uniformly by more than 137 countries the world over. The First Schedule has 21 Sections and 98 Chapters. A Section is a group consisting of a number of Chapters which codify a particular class of goods. The Section notes explain the scope of chapters / headings, etc. The Chapters consist of chapter notes, brief description of commodities arranged at four digit, six digit and eight digit levels. Every four-digit code is called a ‘heading’ and every six digit code is called a ‘subheading’ and 8-digit code is called a ‘Tariff Item’.
- ⦿ Second Schedule: The Second Schedule contains description of goods chargeable to export duty.

Types of Duties

Taxpoint :

- ◉ Apart from that, Social Welfare Surcharge (SWS) @ 10%⁵ of total customs duties (excluding few) is also applicable on imported goods. Such surcharge is not levied on export.

Example 2: Goods of ₹ 1,00,000 has been imported and the applicable rate of basic customs duty is 10%. Then customs duty shall be:

Assessable Value	₹ 1,00,000
Basic Customs Duty @ 10%	₹ 10,000
Add: Social Welfare Surcharge @ 10% of aforesaid	₹ 1,000
Total duty payable	₹ 11,000

⁵ 3% in case of goods being gold, silver including that plated with platinum unwrought or in semi-manufactured form or in powder form

- ⊙ However, for the purpose of computing SWS following are not to be considered:
 - Safeguard Duty
 - Countervailing duty on subsidized article
 - Anti-dumping duty
 - IGST
 - Compensation cess
- ⊙ Similarly, Government imposes certain surcharge or cess on specific goods from time to time. Example, Road and Infrastructure cess on motor spirit and high speed diesel, Health cess on medical equipment, etc.

Basic Customs Duty (BCD) [Sec. 12 of the Customs Act r.w.s. 2 of the Customs Tariff Act]

Duty is levied as per sec. 12 of the Customs Act. Sec. 2 of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 provides the rate at which duties of customs shall be charged. First schedule to Customs Tariff Act enlists the goods liable to duty on importation whereas second schedule enlists the goods liable to duty on exportation. The duty charged by this system may be specific duty (i.e. duty based on measures like quintal, meters, etc.) or ad valorem (i.e. duty based on certain percentage of assessable value⁶). Further, Customs Tariff Act provides two types of basic rate -

- a. Standard rate of duty: Generally, all goods are liable to duty at this rate. This rate is higher than preferential rate of duty. This rate is mentioned in fourth column of the schedule.
- b. Preferential rate of duty: Where goods are imported from notified preferential area, then preferential rate of duty is applicable. It is a concessional rate (given in column 5 of the schedule) for importation from preferential area. Importer should make a specific claim for this concessional rate and satisfy specified conditions. If importer fails to satisfy those conditions, then goods shall be liable to standard rate even if such goods are imported from preferential area.

Integrated Goods and Services Tax (IGST) [Sec. 3(7) of Customs Tariff Act, 1975]

- ⊙ Any article which is imported into India shall, in addition, be liable to integrated tax.
- ⊙ IGST shall be levied at such rate as leviable u/s 5 of the Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 on a like article on its supply in India.
- ⊙ For the purpose of levying IGST, value of the imported article shall be determined as under:
 - The value of the imported article determined u/s 14(1) of the Customs Act, 1962 or the tariff value of such article fixed u/s 14(2), as the case may be;
 - Any duty of customs chargeable on that article u/s 12 of the Customs Act, 1962;
 - Any sum chargeable on that article under any law for the time being in force as an addition to, and in the same manner as, a duty of customs like anti-dumping duty, safeguard duty, etc.;
 - but does not include this IGST and the Compensation cess;

Example 3:

Goods of ₹ 1,00,000 has been imported and the applicable rate of basic customs duty is 10%. On such goods applicable rate of IGST is 18%. Then computation of duty shall be as under:

⁶ Assessable value is transaction value u/s 14(1) / tariff value determined u/s 14(2)

Assessable Value [A]	₹ 1,00,000
Basic Customs Duty [B = 10% of A]	₹ 10,000
Add: Social Welfare Surcharge [C = 10% of B]	₹ 1,000
Value for computing IGST [D = A + B + C]	₹ 1,11,000
Add: IGST [E = D x 18%]	₹ 19,980
Total Duty payable [B + C + E]	₹ 30,980

For aforesaid payment of IGST, ITC under GST law is available.

Taxpoint

Where the goods deposited in a warehouse under the provisions of the Customs Act, 1962 are sold to any person before clearance for home consumption or export under the said Act, the value of such goods for the purpose of calculating the integrated tax shall be,-

Where the whole of the goods are sold	the value determined as per aforesaid provision or the transaction value of such goods, whichever is higher
Where any part of the goods is sold	the proportionate value of such goods as per aforesaid provision or the transaction value of such goods, whichever is higher.
However, where the whole of the warehoused goods or any part thereof are sold more than once before such clearance for home consumption or export, the transaction value of the last such transaction shall be the transaction value for the aforesaid purposes

GST Compensation Cess [Sec. 3(9) of Customs Tariff Act, 1975]

Under GST regime, Compensation Cess will be charged on luxury products like high-end cars and demerit commodities like pan masala, tobacco and aerated drinks for the period of 5 years in order to compensate states for loss of revenue

Any article which is imported into India shall, in addition, be liable to the goods and services tax compensation cess at such rate, as is leviable u/s 8 of the Goods and Services Tax (Compensation to States) Cess Act, 2017 on a like article on its supply in India.

Where such cess is leviable at any percentage of its value, the value of the imported article shall be the aggregate of the following:

- ⦿ the value of the imported article determined u/s 14(1) of the Customs Act, 1962 or the tariff value of such article fixed u/s 14(2), as the case may be;
- ⦿ any duty of customs chargeable on that article u/s 12 of the Customs Act, 1962;
- ⦿ any sum chargeable on that article under any law for the time being in force as an addition to, and in the same manner as, a duty of customs like anti-dumping duty, safeguard duty, etc.;
- ⦿ but does not include the IGST or this cess

Taxpoint: In respect of warehoused goods, similar provision is applicable as applicable in case of levying IGST.

Example 4:

Goods of ₹ 1,00,000 has been imported and the applicable rate of basic customs duty is 10%. On such goods applicable rate of IGST is 18% and GST Compensation cess is 28%. Then computation of duty shall be as under:

Assessable Value [A]	₹ 1,00,000
Basic Customs Duty [B = 10% of A]	₹ 10,000
Add: Social Welfare Surcharge [C = 10% of B]	₹ 1,000
Value for computing IGST [D = A + B + C]	₹ 1,11,000
Add: IGST [E = D x 18%]	₹ 19,980
Add: Compensation Cess [F = D x 28%]	₹ 31,080
Total Duty payable [B + C + E + F]	₹ 62,060

For aforesaid payment of IGST and compensation cess, ITC under GST law is available.

Other Customs Duties

Protective Duties [Sec. 6 of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975]

In order to protect the interests of any industry established in India, Central Government may impose protective duty on any goods imported into India.

- then it may apply such safeguard measures on that article, as it deems appropriate.

Taxpoint :

1. The safeguard measures shall include imposition of safeguard duty, application of tariff-rate quota or such other measure, as the Central Government may consider appropriate, to curb the increased quantity of imports of an article to prevent serious injury to domestic industry.

3. However, the Central Government may exempt such quantity of any article, when imported from any country or territory into India, from payment of the whole or part of the safeguard duty leviable thereon.
4. Where tariff-rate quota is used as a safeguard measure, the Central Government shall not fix such quota lower than the average level of imports in the last 3 representative years for which statistics are available, unless a different level is deemed necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury.
5. The Central Government may allocate such tariff-rate quota to supplying countries having a substantial interest in supplying the article concerned, in such manner as may be provided by rules.
6. Provisional Safeguard Duty: The Central Government may, pending the determination of safeguard measures, apply provisional safeguard measures on the basis of a preliminary determination that increased imports have caused or threatened to cause serious injury to a domestic industry. However, any provisional safeguard measure shall not remain in force for more than 200 days from the date on which it was applied.
Further, where, on final determination, the Central Government is of the opinion that increased imports have not caused or threatened to cause serious injury to a domestic industry, it shall refund the safeguard duty so collected.

- therein or the exportation therefrom of any article including any subsidy on transportation of such article;
- b. Such article is imported into India;
 - c. Such article is imported directly / indirectly from the country of manufacture, production; and
 - d. The article is imported in the same condition as when exported from the country of manufacture or production or has been changed in condition by manufacture, production or otherwise.

Quantum of duty:-

The Central Government may impose a countervailing duty not exceeding the amount of such subsidy.

Taxpoint

- ⊙ Duration of imposition: Such duty shall be in force for 5 years (unless revoked earlier) from the date of its imposition. However, it can be further extended for another 5 years.

However, where a review initiated before the expiry of the aforesaid period of 5 years has not come to a conclusion before such expiry, the countervailing duty may continue to remain in force pending the outcome of such a review for a further period not exceeding 1 year. Further, if the said duty is revoked temporarily, the period of such revocation shall not exceed 1 year at a time.

- ⊙ Such countervailing duty shall be in addition to any other duty imposed under this Act or any other law.
- ⊙ A subsidy shall be deemed to exist if -
 - a. there is financial contribution by a Government, or any public body in the exporting or producing country or territory, that is, where -
 - i. a Government practice involves a direct transfer of funds (including grants, loans and equity infusion), or potential direct transfer of funds or liabilities, or both;
 - ii. Government revenue that is otherwise due is foregone or not collected (including fiscal incentives);
 - iii. a Government provides goods or services other than general infrastructure or purchases goods;
 - iv. a Government makes payments to a funding mechanism, or entrusts or directs a private body to carry out one or more of the type of functions specified in clauses (i) to (iii) above which would normally be vested in the Government and the practice in, no real sense, differs from practices normally followed by Governments; or
 - b. a Government grants or maintains any form of income or price support, which operates directly or indirectly to increase export of any article from, or to reduce import of any article into, its territory, and a benefit is thereby conferred.
- ⊙ Where the Central Government, on such inquiry as it considers necessary, is of the opinion that circumvention of imposed countervailing duty has taken place, either by altering the description or name or composition of the article on which such duty has been imposed or by import of such article in an unassembled or disassembled form or by changing the country of its origin or export or in any other manner, whereby the countervailing duty so imposed is rendered ineffective, it may extend the countervailing duty to such other article also from such date, not earlier than the date of initiation of the inquiry, as specified – Sec. 9(1A)
- ⊙ Where the Central Government, on such inquiry as it considers necessary, is of the opinion that absorption of countervailing duty imposed has taken place whereby the countervailing duty so imposed is rendered ineffective, it may modify such duty to counter the effect of such absorption, from such date, not earlier than the date of initiation of the inquiry, as specifies. – Sec. 9(1B)

- ◉ Absorption of countervailing duty is said to have taken place:
 - a. if there is a decrease in the export price of an article without any commensurate change in the resale price in India of such article imported from the exporting country or territory; or
 - b. under such other circumstances as may be provided by rules.
- ◉ The Central Government may, pending the determination in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules made thereunder of the amount of subsidy, impose a countervailing duty not exceeding the amount of such subsidy as provisionally estimated by it and if such countervailing duty exceeds the subsidy as so determined, -
 - a. the Central Government shall, having regard to such determination and as soon as may be after such determination, reduce such countervailing duty; and
 - b. refund shall be made of so much of such countervailing duty which has been collected as is in excess of the countervailing duty as so reduced. – Sec. 9(2)
- ◉ A notification issued or any countervailing duty imposed shall not apply to article imported by a 100% export-oriented undertaking or a unit in a special economic zone, unless, -
 - i. it is specifically made applicable in such notification or to such undertaking or unit; or
 - ii. such article is either cleared as such into the domestic tariff area or used in the manufacture of any goods that are cleared into the domestic tariff area, in which case, countervailing duty shall be imposed on that portion of the article so cleared or used, as was applicable when it was imported into India.
- ◉ Further, the countervailing duty shall not be levied unless it is determined that -
 - a. the subsidy relates to export performance;
 - b. the subsidy relates to the use of domestic goods over imported goods in the export article; or
 - c. the subsidy has been conferred on a limited number of persons engaged in manufacturing, producing or exporting the article unless such a subsidy is for -
 - i. research activities conducted by or on behalf of persons engaged in the manufacture, production or export;
 - ii. assistance to disadvantaged regions within the territory of the exporting country; or
 - iii. assistance to promote adaptation of existing facilities to new environmental requirements.
- ◉ Levy from retrospective effect: If the Central Government, is of the opinion that the injury to the domestic industry which is difficult to repair, is caused by massive imports in a relatively short period, of the article benefiting from subsidies paid or bestowed and where in order to preclude the recurrence of such injury, it is necessary to levy countervailing duty retrospectively, the Central Government may levy countervailing duty from a date prior to the date of imposition of countervailing duty but not beyond 90 days from the date of such notification
- ◉ The amount of any such subsidy shall, from time to time, be ascertained and determined by the Central Government, after such inquiry as it may consider necessary and the Central Government may make rules for the identification of such article and for the assessment and collection of any countervailing duty imposed upon the importation thereof under this section.

Anti-Dumping duty [Sec. 9A of Customs Tariff Act]

Dumping is said to occur when the goods are exported by a country to another country at a price lower than its normal value. This is an unfair trade practice which can have a distortive effect on international trade. Anti dumping is a measure to rectify the situation arising out of the dumping of goods and its trade distortive effect. Thus, the purpose of anti dumping duty is to rectify the trade distortive effect of dumping and re-establish fair trade. The use of anti dumping measure as an instrument of fair competition is permitted by the WTO. In fact, anti dumping is an instrument for ensuring fair trade and is not a measure of protection per se for the domestic industry. It provides relief to the domestic industry against the injury caused by dumping.

Condition to impose :

- a. Any article is exported by an exporter or producer from any country or territory to India at less than its normal value; and
- b. Such article is imported into India;

Quantum of Anti-Dumping Duty :

The Central Government may impose an anti-dumping duty not exceeding the margin of dumping in relation to such article.

- ◉ Margin of dumping = Normal Value less Export Price
- ◉ Export price, in relation to an article, means
 - a. the price of the article exported from the exporting country or territory; and
 - b. in cases where there is no export price or where the export price is unreliable because of association or a compensatory arrangement between the exporter and the importer or a third party, the export price may be constructed on the basis of the price at which the imported articles are first resold to an independent buyer or if the article is not resold to an independent buyer, or not resold in the condition as imported, on such reasonable basis as may be determined in accordance with the rules made u/s 9A(6);
- ◉ Normal value, in relation to an article, means -
 - i. the comparable price, in the ordinary course of trade, for the like article when destined for consumption in the exporting country or territory as determined in accordance with the rules made u/s 9A(6); or
 - ii. when there are no sales of the like article in the ordinary course of trade in the domestic market of the exporting country or territory, or when because of the particular market situation or low volume of the sales in the domestic market of the exporting country or territory, such sales do not permit a proper comparison, the normal value shall be either:
 - a. comparable representative price of the like article when exported from the exporting country or territory to an appropriate third country as determined in accordance with the rules made u/s 9A(6); or
 - b. the cost of production of the said article in the country of origin along with reasonable addition for administrative, selling and general costs, and for profits, as determined in accordance with the rules made u/s 9A(6)

However, in the case of import of the article from a country other than the country of origin and where the article has been merely transhipped through the country of export or such article is not produced in the country of export or there is no comparable price in the country of export, the normal value shall be determined with reference to its price in the country of origin

Taxpoint :

- ◉ Duration of imposition: Such duty shall be in force for 5 years (unless revoked earlier) from the date of its imposition. However, if the Central Government, in a review, is of the opinion that the cessation of such duty is likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and injury, it may, from time to time, extend the period of such imposition for a further period upto 5 years and such further period shall commence from the date of order of such extension.

- ◉ Where a review initiated before the expiry of the aforesaid period of 5 years has not come to a conclusion before such expiry, the anti-dumping duty may continue to remain in force pending the outcome of such a review for a further period not exceeding 1 year.

If the said duty is revoked temporarily, the period of such revocation shall not exceed 1 year at a time.

- ◉ Such countervailing duty shall be in addition to any other duty imposed under this Act or any other law.
- ◉ Where the Central Government, on such inquiry as it may consider necessary, is of the opinion that circumvention of anti-dumping duty imposed has taken place, either by altering the description or name or composition of the article subject to such anti-dumping duty or by import of such article in an unassembled or disassembled form or by changing the country of its origin or export or in any other manner, whereby the anti-dumping duty so imposed is rendered ineffective, it may extend the anti-dumping duty to such article or an article originating in or exported from such country, as the case may be, from such date, not earlier than the date of initiation of the inquiry, as the Central Government may, specify.
- ◉ Where the Central Government, on such inquiry as it may consider necessary, is of the opinion that absorption of anti-dumping duty imposed has taken place whereby the anti-dumping duty so imposed is rendered ineffective, it may modify such duty to counter the effect of such absorption, from such date, not earlier than the date of initiation of the inquiry, as the Central Government may specify.

Absorption of anti-dumping duty is said to have taken place,-

- a. if there is a decrease in the export price of an article without any commensurate change in the cost of production of such article or export price of such article to countries other than India or resale price in India of such article imported from the exporting country or territory; or
 - b. under such other circumstances as may be provided by rules.
- ◉ Provisional anti-dumping duty: The Central Government may, pending the determination of the normal value and the margin of dumping in relation to any article, impose on the importation of such article into India an anti-dumping duty on the basis of a provisional estimate of such value and margin and if such anti-dumping duty exceeds the margin as so determined :-
 - a. the Central Government shall, having regard to such determination and as soon as may be after such determination, reduce such anti-dumping duty; and
 - b. refund shall be made of so much of the anti-dumping duty which has been collected as is in excess of the anti-dumping duty as so reduced.
 - ◉ A notification issued or any anti-dumping duty imposed shall not apply to articles imported by a 100% export-oriented undertaking or a unit in a special economic zone, unless,-
 - i. it is specifically made applicable in such notification or to such undertaking or unit; or
 - ii. such article is either cleared as such into the domestic tariff area or used in the manufacture of any goods that are cleared into the domestic tariff area, in which case, anti-dumping duty shall be imposed on that portion of the article so cleared or used, as was applicable when it was imported into India.
 - ◉ Retrospective effect: If the Central Government, in respect of the dumped article under inquiry, is of the opinion that -
 - i. there is a history of dumping which caused injury or that the importer was, or should have been, aware that the exporter practices dumping and that such dumping would cause injury; and

- ii. the injury is caused by massive dumping of an article imported in a relatively short time which in the light of the timing and the volume of imported article dumped and other circumstances is likely to seriously undermine the remedial effect of the anti-dumping duty liable to be levied, the Central Government may levy anti-dumping duty retrospectively from a date prior to the date of imposition of anti-dumping duty but not beyond 90 days from the date of notification under that sub-section, and such duty shall be payable at such rate and from such date as may be specified in the notification.

Illustration 1:

A commodity is imported into India from a country covered by a notification issue by the Central Government u/s 9A of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975. Following particulars are made available:

- ⊙ The rate of exchange is notified by (i) CBIC; (ii) RBI; and (iii) Foreign Exchange Dealers' Association of India. For the purpose of customs, rate notified by CBIC shall be considered. Selling Rate shall be considered for import and buying rate shall be considered for export.

⁸ The Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007 have been specified

Example 5:

Determine the rate of exchange for the purpose of computation of customs duty in the following cases:

(I)	(II)	(III)	(IV)		(V)
			On the date given on col. (II)	On the date given on col. (III)	On the date given on col. (II)	On the date given on col. (III)
			Import	20-10-2022	15-10-2022	62
Export	25-11-2022	25-11-2022	61	61	63	63

Solution:

Exchange rate notified by the CBIC on the date of presentation of bill of entry (in case of import) or shipping bill (in case of export) shall be considered, thus:

- In case of import, exchange rate of ₹ 62 per USD shall be considered.
- In case of export, exchange rate of ₹ 61 per USD shall be considered.

Note that rate notified by RBI is irrelevant for computation of customs duty.

Notes

1. Where such goods are not sold at or about the same time of importation of the goods being valued, then the value of imported goods shall be based on the unit price at which the imported goods or identical or similar imported goods are sold in India at the earliest date after importation but before the expiry of 90 days after such importation.
2. Where such goods are sold in India after further processing, then the value shall be based on the unit price at which the imported goods after processing are sold in the greatest aggregate quantity to unrelated person in India as reduced by processing and other cost (as referred above) incurred in India.

Provision illustrated

Following are the sale details of product X (being 12000 units imported from Japan on 1-1-2023), you are required to compute assessable value of product X for customs duty by applying deductive method –

Date of Sale	Quantity Sold (in units)	Price per unit
01-1-2023	1000	₹ 100
10-1-2023	2000	₹ 98
19-1-2023	500	₹ 101
27-2-2023	1500	₹ 100
03-3-2023	1000	₹ 98
13-3-2023	1500	₹ 99
30-3-2023	1000	₹ 98
07-5-2023	2000	₹ 100

Assume the expenditure incurred in India (including profit) is ₹ 18 per unit. Duty is charged on such article @ 25% (including SWS) ad valorem.

Solution

Quantity sold at different prices are summarized below –

Price per unit	Quantity sold
₹ 100	1000 + 1500 = 2500 units
₹ 98	2000 + 1000 + 1000 = 4000 units
₹ 101	500 units
₹ 99	1500 units

Note: Sale made on 7/5/2023 is not considered as it is made after 90 days from importation thereof.

The greatest number of units sold at a particular price is 4000 units, therefore, the unit price in the greatest aggregate quantity is ₹ 98.

Computation of assessable value :

Assessable value + Customs duty = Unit sale price as computed above - Expenditure incurred in India

Assessable value + 25% of Assessable value = ₹ 98 – ₹ 18

125% of Assessable value = ₹ 80

Assessable value = ₹ 64 per unit

Assessable value of 12000 units = ₹ 7,68,000

Duty on above = ₹ 1,92,000

Computed value [Rule 8]

The value of imported goods shall consist of –

- The cost or value of materials and fabrication or other processing employed in producing the imported goods;
- An amount for general expenses and profit made by producers in the country of exportation for export to India;
- The cost of transport, insurance, etc. as referred in rule 10(2).

This method is normally possible when the importer in India and foreign exporter are closely associated and the foreign exporter is willing to give necessary costing.
Cost of Materials and General expenses for producing the imported goods	XX
Add: profit of the exporter	XX
Add: all expenditure as per Rule 10	XX
Assessable Value	XX

Residual Method [Rule 9]

Where the value of imported goods shall not be determined as per any preceding rules, then the value shall be determined using -

- ⊙ reasonable means consistent with the principles;
- ⊙ general provisions of these rules; and
- ⊙ data available in India.

Taxpoint:

- ⊙ However, the value so determined shall not exceed the price at which such or like goods are ordinarily sold or offered for sale for delivery at the time and place of importation in the course of international trade, when the seller or buyer has no interest in the business of other and price is the sole consideration for the sale or offer for sale.
- ⊙ Further, no value shall be determined on the following basis –
 - The selling price in India of the goods produced in India;

- b. A system, which provides acceptance of value being highest of two alternative values;
- c. The price of the goods on domestic markets of the country of exportation;
- d. The cost of production (other than computed value) for identical or similar goods;
- e. The price of the goods for export to a country other than India;
- f. Minimum customs values;
- g. Arbitrary or fictitious values

Cost and Services [Rule 10]

Already discussed in Rule 3

However, following are to be noted:

Where the FOB value of the goods is not ascertainable but the sum of FOB value of the goods and insurance cost is ascertainable	the transport cost shall be 20% of such sum
Where the FOB value of the goods is not ascertainable but the sum of FOB of the goods and the transport cost is ascertainable	the insurance cost shall be 1.125% of such sum

Taxpoint:

- Where CIF value is given but transport cost is not available, then transportation cost would be:

$$\text{Cost of transport} = \text{CIF Value} \times 20/120$$

- Where CIF value is given but insurance cost is not available, then transportation cost would be:

$$\text{Cost of insurance} = \text{CIF Value} \times 1.125/101.125$$

Other points

Declaration by the importer [Rule 11]

The importer or his agent shall furnish –

- a. A declaration disclosing full and accurate details relating to the value of imported goods; &
- b. Any other statement, information or documents including an invoice of the manufacturer or producer of the imported goods (where the goods are exported by a person other than the manufacturer or producer) as considered necessary by the proper officer for determination of the value of imported goods.

Notes

1. Declaration by importer, inter alia, includes –
 - Relationship between buyer and seller;
 - The basis of the declared value;
 - Conditions and restriction attached with sale;
 - Costs not included in the invoice.
2. The provision of the Customs Act, 1962 relating to confiscation, penalty and prosecution shall apply to the cases where wrong statement, information, documents or declaration are furnished under these rules.

Rejection of declared value [Rule 12]

When the proper officer has reason to doubt the truth or accuracy of the value declared in relation to any imported goods, he may ask the importer of such goods to furnish further information including documents or other evidence.

Where even after receiving such further information or in the absence of a response from such importer, the proper officer has reasonable doubt about the truth or accuracy of the value so declared, then it shall be deemed that the value of such imported goods cannot be determined under transaction value.

At the request of an importer, the proper officer shall intimate the importer in writing the grounds for doubting the truth and accuracy of the value declared by such importer and provide a reasonable opportunity of being heard before taking a final decision.

Taxpoint

- ⦿ This rule by itself does not provide a method for determination of value, it provides a mechanism and procedure for rejection of declared value in cases where there is reasonable doubt that the declared value does not represent the transaction value; where the declared value is rejected, the value shall be determined by proceeding sequentially in accordance with rules 4 to 9.
- ⦿ The declared value shall be accepted where the proper officer is satisfied about the truth and accuracy of the declared value after the said enquiry in consultation with the importers.
- ⦿ The proper officer shall have the powers to raise doubts on the truth or accuracy of the declared value based on certain reasons which may include -
 - a. the significantly higher value at which identical or similar goods imported at or about the same time in comparable quantities in a comparable commercial transaction were assessed;
 - b. the sale involves an abnormal discount or abnormal reduction from the ordinary competitive price;
 - c. the sale involves special discounts limited to exclusive agents;
 - d. the misdeclaration of goods in parameters such as description, quality, quantity, country of origin, year of manufacture or production;
 - e. the non declaration of parameters such as brand, grade, specifications that have relevance to value;
 - f. the fraudulent or manipulated documents.

Interpretative notes [Rule 13]

The interpretative notes specified in the schedule to these rules shall apply for the interpretation of these rules.

Interpretative Notes

General Note

Use of generally accepted accounting principles

1. “Generally accepted accounting principles” refers to the recognized consensus or substantial authoritative support within a country at a particular time as to which economic resources and obligations shall be recorded as assets and liabilities, which changes in assets and liabilities should be recorded, how the assets and liabilities and changes in them should be measured, what information should be disclosed and how it should be disclosed and which financial statements should be prepared. These standards may be broad guidelines of general application as well as detailed practices and procedures.

Notes to rules

Note to rule 2

In rule 2(2)(v), for the purposes of these rules, one person shall be deemed to control another when the former is legally or operationally in a position to exercise restraint or direction over the latter.

Note to rule 3Price actually paid or payable

The price actually paid or payable is the total payment made or to be made by the buyer to or for the benefit of the seller for the imported goods. The payment need not necessarily take the form of a transfer of money. Payment may be made by way of letters of credit or negotiable instruments. Payment may be made directly or indirectly. An example of an indirect payment would be the settlement by the buyer, whether in whole or in part, of a debt owed by the seller.

Activities undertaken by the buyer on his own account, other than those for which an adjustment is provided in rule 10, are not considered to be an indirect payment to the seller, even though they might be regarded as of benefit to the seller. The costs of such activities shall not, therefore, be added to the price actually paid or payable in determining the value of imported goods.

The value of imported goods shall not include the following charges or costs, provided that they are distinguished from the price actually paid or payable for the imported goods:

- a. Charges for construction, erection, assembly, maintenance or technical assistance, undertaken after importation on imported goods such as industrial plant, machinery or equipment;
- b. The cost of transport after importation;
- c. Duties and taxes in India.

The price actually paid or payable refers to the price for the imported goods. Thus, the flow of dividends or other payments from the buyer to the seller that do not relate to the imported goods are not part of the customs value.

Rule 3(2)(a) (iii)

Among restrictions which would not render a price actually paid or payable unacceptable are restrictions which do not substantially affect the value of the goods. An example of such restrictions would be the case where a seller requires a buyer of automobiles not to sell or exhibit them prior to a fixed date which represents the beginning of a model year.

Rule 3(2)(b)

If the sale or price is subject to some condition or consideration for which a value cannot be determined with respect to the goods being valued, the transaction value shall not be acceptable for customs purposes. Some examples of this include-

- a. The seller establishes the price of the imported goods on condition that the buyer will also buy other goods in specified quantities;
- b. the price of the imported goods is dependent upon the price or prices at which the buyer of the imported goods sells other goods to the seller of the imported goods;

- c. the price is established on the basis of a form of payment extraneous to the imported goods, such as where the imported goods are semifinished goods which have been provided by the seller on condition that he will receive a specified quantity of the finished goods.

However, conditions or considerations relating to the production or marketing of the imported goods shall not result in rejection of the transaction value. For example, the fact that the buyer furnishes the seller with engineering and plans undertaken in India shall not result in rejection of the transaction value for the purposes of rule 3. Likewise, if the buyer undertakes on his own account, even though by agreement with the seller, activities relating to the marketing of the imported goods, the value of these activities is not part of the value of imported goods nor shall such activities result in rejection of the transaction value.

Rule 3(3)

1. Rule 3(3)(a) and rule 3(3)(b) provide different means of establishing the acceptability of a transaction value.
2. Rule 3(3)(a) provides that where the buyer and the seller are related, the circumstances surrounding the sale shall be examined and the transaction value shall be accepted as the value of imported goods provided that the relationship did not influence the price. It is not intended that there should be an examination of the circumstances in all cases where the buyer and the seller are related. Such examination will only be required where there are doubts about the acceptability of the price. Where the proper officer of customs has no doubts about the acceptability of the price, it should be accepted without requesting further information from the importer. For example, the proper officer of customs may have previously examined the relationship, or he may already have detailed information concerning the buyer and the seller, and may already be satisfied from such examination or information that the relationship did not influence the price.
3. Where the proper officer of customs is unable to accept the transaction value without further inquiry, he should give the importer an opportunity to supply such further detailed information as may be necessary to enable him to examine the circumstances surrounding the sale. In this context, the proper officer of customs should be prepared to examine relevant aspects of the transaction, including the way in which the buyer and seller organize their commercial relations and the way in which the price in question was arrived at, in order to determine whether the relationship influenced the price. Where it can be shown that the buyer and seller, although related under the provisions of rule 2(2), buy from and sell to each other as if they were not related, this would demonstrate that the price had not been influenced by the relationship. As an example of this, if the price had been settled in a manner consistent with the normal pricing practices of the industry in question or with the way the seller settles prices for sales to buyers who are not related to him, this would demonstrate that the price had not been influenced by the relationship. As a further example, where it is shown that the price is adequate to ensure recovery of all costs plus a profit which is representative of the firm's overall profit realized over a representative period of time (e.g. on an annual basis) in sales of goods of the same class or kind, this would demonstrate that the price had not been influenced.
4. Rule 3(3)(b) provides an opportunity for the importer to demonstrate that the transaction value closely approximates to a "test" value previously accepted by the proper officer of customs and is therefore acceptable under the provisions of rule 3. Where a test under rule 3(3)(b) is met, it is not necessary to examine the question of influence under rule 3(3)(a). If the proper officer of customs has already sufficient information to be satisfied, without further detailed inquiries, that one of the tests provided in rule 3(3)(b) has been met, there is no reason for him to require the importer to demonstrate that the test can be met. In rule 3(3)(b) the term "unrelated buyers" means buyers who are not related to the seller in any particular case.

Rule 3(3)(b)

A number of factors must be taken into consideration in determining whether one value “closely approximates” to another value. These factors include the nature of the imported goods, the nature of the industry itself, the season in which the goods are imported, and whether the difference in values is commercially significant. Since these factors may vary from case to case, it would be impossible to apply a uniform standard such as a fixed percentage, in each case. For example, a small difference in value in a case involving one type of goods could be unacceptable while a large difference in a case involving another type of goods might be acceptable in determining whether the transaction value closely approximates to the “test” values set forth in rule 3(3)(b).

Notes to rule 4

1. In applying rule 4, the proper officer of customs shall, wherever possible, use a sale of identical goods at the same commercial level and in substantially the same quantities as the goods being valued. Where no such sale is found, a sale of identical goods that takes place under any one of the following three conditions may be used:
 - a. a sale at the same commercial level but in different quantities; or
 - b. a sale at a different commercial level but in substantially the same quantities; or
 - c. a sale at a different commercial level and in different quantities.
2. Having found a sale under any one of these three conditions adjustments will then be made, as the case may be, for :
 - a. quantity factors only;
 - b. commercial level factors only; or
 - c. both commercial level and quantity factors.
3. For the purposes of rule 4, the transaction value of identical imported goods means a value, adjusted as provided for in rule 4(1)(b) and (c) and rule 4(2) which has already been accepted under rule 3.
4. A condition for adjustment because of different commercial levels or different quantities is that such adjustment, whether it leads to an increase or a decrease in the value, be made only on the basis of demonstrated evidence that clearly establishes the reasonableness and accuracy of the adjustment, e.g. valid price lists containing prices referring to different levels or different quantities. As an example of this, if the imported goods being valued consist of a shipment of 10 units and the only identical imported goods for which a transaction value exists involved a sale of 500 units, and it is recognized that the seller grants quantity discounts, the required adjustment may be accomplished by resorting to the seller’s price list and using that price applicable to a sale of 10 units. This does not require that a sale had to have been made in quantities of 10 as long as the price list has been established as being bona fide through sales at other quantities. In the absence of such an objective measure, however, the determination of a value under the provisions of rule 4 is not appropriate.

Note to rule 5

1. In applying rule 5, the proper officer of customs shall, wherever possible, use a sale of similar goods at the same commercial level and in substantially the same quantities as the goods being valued. For the purpose of rule 5, the transaction value of similar imported goods means the value of imported goods, adjusted as provided for in rule 5(2) which has already been accepted under rule 3.

2. All other provisions contained in note to rule 4 shall mutatis mutandis also apply in respect of similar goods.

Note to rule 7

1. The term “unit/price at which goods are sold in the greatest aggregate quantity” means the price at which the greatest number of units is sold in sales to persons who are not related to the persons from whom they buy such goods at the first commercial level after importation at which such sales take place.
2. As an example of this, goods are sold from a price list which grants favorable unit prices for purchases made in larger quantities.

Sale quantity	Unit price	Number of sales	Total quantity sold at each price
1-10 units	100	10 sales of 5 units, 5 sales of 3 units	65
11-25 units	95	5 sales of 11 units	55
Over 25 units	90	1 sale of 30 units, 1 sale of 50 units	80

The greatest number of units sold at a price is 80, therefore, the unit price in the greatest aggregate quantity is 90.

3. As another example of this, two sales occur. In the first sale 500 units are sold at a price of 95 currency units each. In the second sale 400 units are sold at a price of 90 currency units each. In this example, the greatest number of units sold at a particular price is 500, therefore, the unit price in the greatest aggregate quantity is 95.
4. A third example would be the following situation where various quantities are sold at various prices.

a. Sales

Sale quantity	Unit price
40 units	100
30 units	90
15 units	100
50 units	95
25 units	105
35 units	90
5 units	100

b. Totals

Total quantity sold	Unit price
65	90
50	95
60	100
25	105

In this example, the greatest number of units sold at a particular price is 65, therefore, the unit price in the greatest aggregate quantity is 90.

5. Any sale in India, as described in paragraph 1 above to a person who supplies directly or indirectly free of charge or at reduced cost for use in connection with the production and sale for export of the imported goods any of the elements specified in rule 10(1)(b), should not be taken into account in establishing the unit price for the purposes of rule 7.
6. It should be noted that “profit and general expenses” referred to in rule 7(1) should be taken as a whole. The figure for the purposes of this deduction should be determined on the basis of information supplied by or on behalf of the importer unless his figures are inconsistent with those obtaining in sales in India, of imported goods of the same class or kind. Where the importer’s figures are inconsistent with such figures, the amount for profit and general expenses may be based upon relevant information other than that supplied by or on behalf of the importer.
7. The “general expenses” include the direct and indirect costs of marketing the goods in question.
8. Local taxes payable by reason of the sale of the goods for which a deduction is not made under the provisions of rule 7(1)(iii) shall be deducted under the provisions of rule 7(1)(i).
9. In determining either the commissions or the usual profits and general expenses under the provisions of rule 7(1), the question whether certain goods are “of the same class or kind” as other goods must be determined on a case-by-case basis by reference to the circumstances involved. Sales in India, of the narrowest group or range of imported goods of the same class or kind, which includes the goods being valued, for which the necessary information can be provided, should be examined. For the purposes of rule 7 goods of the same class or kind” includes goods imported from the same country as the goods being valued as well as goods imported from other countries.
 - i. For the purposes of rule 7(2) the “earliest date” shall be the date by which sales of the imported goods or of identical or similar imported, goods are made in sufficient quantity to establish the unit price.
 - ii. Where the method in rule 7(3) is used, deductions made for the value added by further processing shall be based on objective and quantifiable data relating to the cost of such work. Accepted industry formulas, recipes, methods of construction, and other industry practices would form the basis of the calculations.
 - iii. It is recognized that the method of valuation provided for in rule 7(3) would normally not be applicable when, as a result of the further processing, the imported goods lose their identity. However there can be instances where, although the identity of the imported goods is lost, the value added by the processing can be determined accurately without unreasonable difficulty. On the other hand, there can also be instances where the imported goods maintain their identity but form such a minor element in the goods sold in the country of importation that the use of this valuation method would be unjustified. In view of the above, each situation of this type must be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Note to rule 8

1. As a general rule, value of imported goods is determined under these rules on the basis of information readily available in India. In order to determine a computed value, however, it may be necessary to examine the costs of producing the goods being valued and other information which has to be obtained from outside India. Furthermore, in most cases, the producer of the goods will be outside the jurisdiction of the proper officer. The use of the computed value method will generally be limited to those cases where the buyer and seller are related, and the producer is prepared to supply to the proper officer the necessary costings and to provide facilities for any subsequent verification which may be necessary.
2. The “cost or value” referred to in clause (a) of rule 8 is to be determined on the basis of information relating to the production of the goods being valued supplied by or on behalf of the producer. It is to be based upon the commercial accounts of the producer, provided that such accounts are consistent with the generally accepted accounting principles applied in the country where the goods are produced.

3. The “cost or value” shall include the cost of elements specified in clauses (1)(a)(ii) and (1)(a)(iii) of rule 10. It shall also include the value, apportioned as appropriate under the provisions of the relevant note to rule 10, of any element specified in rule 10(1)(b) which has been supplied directly or indirectly by the buyer for use in connection with the production of the imported goods. The value of the elements specified in rule 10(1)(b)(iv) which are undertaken in India shall be included only to the extent that such elements are charged to the producer. It is to be understood that no cost or value of the elements referred to in this paragraph shall be counted twice in determining the computed value.
4. The “amount for profit and general expenses” referred to in clause (b) of rule 8 is to be determined on the basis of information supplied by or on behalf of the producer unless the producer’s figures are inconsistent with those usually reflected in sales of goods of the same class or kind as the goods being valued which are made by producers in the country of exportation for export to India.
5. It should be noted in this context that the “amount for profit and general expenses” has to be taken as a whole. It follows that if, in any particular case, producer’s profit figure is low and his general expenses are high, the producer’s profit and general expenses taken together may nevertheless be consistent with that usually reflected in sales of goods of the same class or kind. Such a situation might occur, for example, if a product were being launched in India and the producer accepted a nil or low profit to offset high general expenses associated with the launch. Where the producer can demonstrate a low profit on his sales of the imported goods because of particular commercial circumstances, his actual profit figures should be taken into account provided that he has valid commercial reasons to justify them and his pricing policy reflects usual pricing policies in the branch of industry concerned. Such a situation might occur for example, where producers have been forced to lower prices temporarily because of an unforeseeable drop in demand, or where they sell goods to complement a range of goods being produced in India and accept a low profit to maintain competitiveness. Where the producer’s own figures for profit and general expenses are not consistent with those usually reflected in sales of goods of the same class or kind as the goods being valued which are made by producers in the country of exportation for export to India, the amount for profit and general expenses may be based upon relevant information other than that supplied by or on behalf of the producer of the goods.
6. The “general expenses” referred to in clause (b) of rule 8 covers the direct and indirect costs of producing and selling the goods for export which are not included under clause (a) of rule 8.
7. Whether certain goods are “of the same class or kind” as other goods must be determined on a case-by-case basis with reference to the circumstances involved. In determining the usual profits and general expenses under the provisions of rule 8, sales for export to India of the narrowest group or range of goods, which includes the goods being valued, for which the necessary information can be provided, should be examined. For the purposes of rule 8 “goods of the same class or kind” must be from the same country as the goods being valued.

Note to rule 9

1. Value of imported goods determined under the provisions of rule 9 should to the greatest extent possible, be based on previously determined customs values.
2. The methods of valuation to be employed under rule 9 may be those laid down in rules 3 to 8, inclusive, but a reasonable flexibility in the application of such methods would be in conformity with the aims and provisions of rule 9.

3. Some examples of reasonable flexibility are as follows:
 - a. Identical goods. - The requirement that the identical goods should be imported at or about the same time as the goods being valued could be flexibly interpreted; identical imported goods produced in a country other than the country of exportation of the goods being valued could be the basis for customs valuation; customs values of identical imported goods already determined under the provisions of rules 7 and 8 could be used.
 - b. Similar goods. - The requirement that the similar goods should be imported at or about the same time as the goods being valued could be flexibly interpreted; similar imported goods produced in a country other than the country of exportation of the goods being valued could be the basis for customs valuation; customs values of similar imported goods already determined under the provisions of rules 7 and 8 could be used.
 - c. Deductive method. - The requirement that the goods shall have been sold in the “condition as imported” in rule 7(1) could be flexibly interpreted; the ninety days requirement could be administered flexibly.

Note to rule 10

In rule 10(l)(a)(i), the term “buying commissions” means fees paid by an importer to his agent for the service of representing him abroad in the purchase of the goods being valued.

Rule 10(l)(b)(ii)

1. There are two factors involved in the apportionment of the elements specified in rule 10(l)(b)(ii) to the imported goods - the value of the element itself and the way in which that value is to be apportioned to the imported goods. The apportionment of these elements should be made in a reasonable manner appropriate to the circumstances and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
2. Concerning the value of the element, if the importer acquires the element from a seller not related to him at a given cost, the value of the element is that cost. If the element was produced by the importer or by a person related to him, its value would be the cost of producing it. If the element had been previously used by the importer, regardless of whether it had been acquired or produced by such importer, the original cost of acquisition or production would have to be adjusted downward to reflect its use in order to arrive at the value of the element.
 - i. Once a value has been determined for the element it is necessary to apportion that value to the imported goods. Various possibilities exist. For example, the value might be apportioned to the first shipment if the importer wishes to pay duty on the entire value at one time. As another example, the importer may request that the value be apportioned over the number of units produced up to the time of the first shipment. As a further example, he may request that the value be apportioned over the entire anticipated production where contracts or firm commitments exist for that production. The method of apportionment used will depend upon the documentation provided by the importer.
 - ii. As an illustration of the above, an importer provides the producer with a mould to be used in the production of the imported goods and contracts with him to buy 10000 units. By the time of arrival of the first shipment of 1000 units, the producer has already produced 4,000 units. The importer may request the proper officer of customs to apportion the value of the mould over 1,000 units, 4,000 units or 10,000 units.

Rule 10(l)(b)(iv)

1. Additions for the elements specified in rule 10(l)(b)(iv) should be based on objective and quantifiable data. In order to minimize the burden for both the importer and proper officer of customs in determining the values to be added, data readily available in the buyer's commercial record system should be used in so far as possible.
2. For those elements supplied by the buyer which were purchased or leased by the buyer, the addition would be the cost of the purchase or the lease. No addition shall be made for those elements available in the public domain, other than the cost of obtaining copies of them.
3. The case with which it may be possible to calculate the values to be added will depend on a particular firm's structure and management practice, as well as its accounting methods.
4. For example, it is possible that a firm which imports a variety of products from several countries maintains the records of its design center outside the country of importation in such a way as to show accurately the costs attributable to a given product. In such cases, a direct adjustment may appropriately be made under the provisions of rule 10.
5. In another case, a firm may carry the cost of the design center outside the country of importation as a general overhead expense without allocation to specific products. In this instance, an appropriate adjustment could be made under the provisions of rule 10 with respect to the imported goods by apportioning total design center costs over total production benefiting from the design center and adding such apportioned cost on a unit basis to imports.
6. Variations in the above circumstances will, of course, require different factors to be considered in determining the proper method of allocation.
7. In cases where the production of the element in question involves a number of countries and over a period of time, the adjustment should be limited to the value actually added to that element outside the country of importation.

Rule 10(l)(c)

1. The royalties and license fees referred to in rule 10(l)(c) may include among other things, payments in respect to patents, trademarks and copyrights. However, the charges for the right to reproduce the imported goods in the country of importation shall not be added to the price actually paid or payable for the imported goods in determining the customs value.
2. Payments made by the buyer for the right to distribute or resell the imported goods shall not be added to the price actually paid or payable for the imported goods if such payments are not a condition of the sale for export to the country of importation of the imported goods.

Rule 10(3)

Where objective and quantifiable data do not exist with regard to the additions required to be made under the provisions of rule 10, the transaction value cannot be determined under the provisions of rule 3. As an illustration of this, a royalty is paid on the basis of the price in a sale in the importing country of a liter of a particular product that was imported by the kilogram and made up into a solution after importation. If the royalty is based partially on the imported goods and partially on other factors, which have nothing to do with the imported goods (such as when the imported goods are mixed with domestic ingredients and are no longer separately identifiable, or when the royalty cannot be distinguished from special financial arrangements between the buyer and the seller), it would be inappropriate to attempt to make an addition for the royalty. However, if the amount of this royalty is based only on the imported goods and can be readily quantified, an addition to the price actually paid or payable can be made.

Valuation of exported goods

 - a. the significant variation in value at which goods of like kind and quality exported at or about the same time in comparable quantities in a comparable commercial transaction were assessed.
 - b. the significantly higher value compared to the market value of goods of like kind and quality at the time of export
 - c. the declaration of goods in parameters such as description, quality, quantity, year of manufacture or production.
